NOTE.—Of these churches, some existed under Royal Charter, or otherwise, prior to the first Convention of the Diocese in 1785. This class is denoted by the letter A, placed after the date of admission into union.

A few others seem to have been admitted by the Conventions in which they respectively appeared for the first time by their delegates, although mention of the admission seems to have been omitted in the Journal. Such are designated by the letter B.

The few incorporated under the law of April 13, 1854, are marked by the letter C.

Mr. Augustus Gillette Palmer, Vestryman of St. Peter's Church, Portchester.

At the close of the service the Convention assembled in the Synod Hall for the business session.

The Secretary laid before the Convention written proof that a constitutional quorum of both orders was present, and on motion, the calling of the roll was dispensed with in accordance with the provisions of Canon II., Sec. 15.

The President declared the Convention duly organized for business.

On motion of the Rev. Mr. Kimber the reading of Rules of Order was dispensed with.

The Rt. Rev. Frederick Courtney, D.D., nominated the Rev. Robert B. Kimber for Secretary of the Convention and moved that the ballot be dispensed with, which was adopted, and Mr. Kimber was elected.

Dean Grosvenor nominated Mr. R. M. Pott for Treasurer and moved that the ballot be dispensed with, which was adopted, and Mr. Pott was elected.

The Secretary announced the following appointments of Assistant Secretaries:

THE REV. H. R. HULSE.

THE REV. C. K. GILBERT.

THE REV. F. R. JONES.

The Rules of Order were suspended by unanimous consent, and the Report of the Committee on Dispatch of Business was presented as follows:

REPORT

OF THE COMMITTEE ON DESPATCH OF BUSINESS.

The Committee on Despatch of Business, appointed at the Diocesan Convention of 1910, to which the Rules of Order were referred for revision, recommends that they be amended to read as follows:

RULES OF ORDER.

I. Every Convention shall be preceded by the Celebration of the Holy Communion and the Annual Address of the Bishop, or a Sermon, as the Bishop shall appoint; after which, the Bishop or, in case of his absence or inability to act, the Bishop Coadjutor shall take the chair, or, if there be no Bishop Coadjutor, the Convention shall elect a President.

II. The Secretary of the last Convention in giving notice of the Annual Convention shall request members and delegates to file with him in writing, within ten days after the receipt of such notice, any business they desire to bring before the Convention. He shall thereupon prepare a calendar of such business in the order of its receipt and shall cause the same to be printed and distributed among the members and delegates on or before the date of the Convention.

The Secretary of the last Convention also, or, in case of his absence, some other person appointed by the Chair, shall call the names of the Clergy entitled to seats.

III. He shall call the names of the Lay Delegates whose election has been certified in pursuance of Canon II., Section 10.

IV. The Chair shall then appoint a Committee of three persons, to whom shall be referred the credentials of the Lay Delegates, who shall report upon the correctness of the roll made by the Secretary.

V. A quorum being present, the Chair shall declare the Convention organized for business, which shall proceed in the following order:

1. The election of a Secretary, who shall have power to appoint three Assistant Secretaries.

2. The election of a Treasurer.

3. The appointment of members of six Standing Committees following, each of which Committees shall be composed of the number of clerical and lay members specified:

(a) On the Incorporation and Admission of Churches, two Clergymen and two Laymen, which Committee may report at any time during the session of the Convention;

(b) On the Diocesan Fund, two Clergymen and two Laymen, besides the Treasurer of the Convention, ex-officio;

(c) On the Treasurer's Report, three Laymen;

(d) On the General Theological Seminary, four Clergymen and four Laymen;

(e) On Canons, four Clergymen and four Laymen;

(f) On Miscellaneous Business, four Clergymen and four Laymen.

Any Standing Committee may meet during the intervals between Conventions, and may report to the succeeding Convention.

The members of the Committees on the Incorporation and Admission of Churches, on the Diocesan Fund, on the General Theological Seminary, on Canons, and on Miscellaneous Business, who shall be appointed at the Convention in 1911, at their first meeting, and within thirty days after the adjournment of the Convention, shall divide themselves by lot into classes of one Clergyman and one Layman in each class, one class to serve one year, and the others two, three and four years respectively, according to their number, and until the appointment of their successors and shall notify the Secretary of the Convention in writing of the result of such division. If after the expiration of forty days after the adjournment of the Convention the members of any Committee shall have failed to notify the Secretary, he shall at once proceed by lot to divide them into classes as aforesaid, and they shall respectively hold their offices accordingly. At each succeeding stated Convention the President shall appoint as members of each of the said Committees so many Clergymen and so many Laymen as those whose terms are expiring, to hold office for as many years as there are classes in such Committee. All vacancies occurring in the said Committees shall be filled by the concurrent vote of their Clerical and Lay members until the next stated Convention, when the vacancy shall be filled for the balance of the term. Except in the case of members chosen to fill vacancies until the next stated Convention no member shall be eligible to the same committee for one year after the expiration of his term of service.

4. Reference to Standing or Special Committees of such business as shall have been filed with the Secretary and appears on the calendar.

5. Introduction and Referring of resolutions and motions not on the calendar but which shall be added thereto in the order of their introduction.

6. The appointment by the President of Inspectors of Election for the Standing Committee, for the Deputies to the Federate Council, for Deputies to the Missionary Council of the Second Department, and for the Deputies and for the Provisional Deputies to the General Convention; one Clergyman and one Layman for the clerical votes, and one Clergyman and one Layman for the lay votes of each election.

7. Election of the Standing Committee, the Deputies to the Federate Council, Deputies to the Missionary Council of the Second Department and the Deputies and the Provisional Deputies to the General Convention.

8. The Receiving and Referring of Reports, as follows:

- (11) Report of the Standing Committee on General Theological Seminary.
- (12) Report of the Standing Committee on the Diocesan Fund.

These reports shall be presented by Title only unless otherwise ordered by the unanimous vote of the Convention.

9. Appointment and election of Trustees of the Boards named in the preceding Section.

10. Calendar of the day.

VI. On the second day, the order of business, after Morning Prayer, shall be:

1. Reading and approving of the Minutes.
2. Receiving certificates of Lay Delegates not present before.

3. Calling the names of members not present on the first day.
4. Introduction and reference of business not on the calendar but which shall be added thereto in the order of introduction.
5. Unfinished calendar, if any, of previous day.
6. Report of the Missionary Committee of the Diocese.
7. Report of the Committee on Canons.
8. Reports of Special Committees.
9. Calendar.

VII. On the third and any subsequent day, the order of business, after Morning Prayer, shall be:

1. Reading and approval of the Minutes.
2. Receiving the certificates of Lay Delegates not present before.
3. Calling the names of members not present before.
4. Calendar.

VIII. The address of the Bishop and of the Bishop Coadjutor shall be in order at any time.

IX. Before the rising of the Convention, the Minutes of the last day's proceedings shall be read and approved.

X. The Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church, Clergymen belonging to this Diocese, but not entitled to seats in this Convention, Clergymen of other Dioceses, Professors and Students of Theology in the Protestant Episcopal Church, and all persons holding any office or trust under the Convention, if not members, shall be admitted to the sittings of the Convention.

XI. The hours of each day's session shall be from 10 a. m. to 1 p. m., and from 2 p. m. to 5 p. m., and, when ordered by the Convention, from 8 to 10 p. m.

XII. The mode of conducting the stated elections by ballot shall be as follows:

The Clergy and the Lay Delegates of the Parishes entitled to vote shall present their several ballots for each office to be filled to the inspectors, whose duty it shall be to take charge of the same, keeping a poll list of the votes, and, as soon as practicable, to canvass the same, and report the result thereof to the Convention. If, on any such report, it should appear that no valid election has been made in respect to all or any of the offices to be filled, the poll shall again be opened, for the purpose of filling those which may remain vacant; and if such second vote shall not result in an election, further votes shall be taken until all the offices are filled or until the Convention shall otherwise order.

XIII. "All new business introduced, except such as may accompany and form a part of the report of a committee, shall be in the form of a motion or resolution and shall be in writing. Such new business shall be at once referred without debate by the President to an appropriate committee and shall be entered upon the calendar in the order of introduction. Action shall be only on the report of such Committee unless by unanimous consent."

XIV. No member may speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the Convention, nor more than once in any case until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

XV. Every member present shall vote whenever a question is put, unless excused by the Convention on account of his being personally interested in the result, or for other cause.

XVI. Votes shall be taken by ayes and noes, and by orders, whenever called for by five members.

XVII. In taking a vote by orders, it shall be the right of any member of a delegation who may dissent from the vote of the majority of the delegation to have the fact of his dissent recorded on the Minutes.

XVIII. All Special Committees shall be appointed by the President, unless otherwise ordered.

XIX. The prescribed order of business shall not be departed from, nor shall any rule of order be suspended, unless by a vote of two-thirds of the members present; nor shall any be changed or rescinded without one day's previous notice of a motion to that effect.

XX. Whenever in the Rules of Order provision is made for action by the Bishop, such action shall, in case of the absence or disability of the Bishop, devolve upon the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, and shall devolve upon the Standing Committee or other authority in cases where provision is made for their action in the place of the Bishop, only in the event of the absence or disability both of the Bishop and of the Bishop Coadjutor, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate.

XXI. The general procedure of the Convention shall be governed by the rules of parliamentary practice as set forth in "Cushing's Manual."

Your Committee also recommends the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That four Inspectors of Election, not members of the Convention, be appointed by the Bishop and the Standing Committee at least two weeks before an election. They shall subscribe to the usual oath required of the inspectors of elections of corporations and similar bodies before a notary public or other person duly authorized to administer such oath, and shall file the same with the Secretary of the Convention before entering upon their duties. They shall receive and canvass all votes cast at any election which is required to be by ballot, and, when such canvass is completed, shall immediately report its result to the Convention. They shall serve during the pleasure of the Convention, and shall be compensated for their services as the Bishop and Standing Committee may direct.

Respectfully submitted,
LEIGHTON PARKS.
S. DE LANCEY TOWNSEND.
ALEX. G. CUMMINS.
J. HOWARD WAINWRIGHT.
A. V. W. JACKSON.

The Rev. Dr. Leighton Parks gave notice that he would move the adoption of these Rules of Order tomorrow.

The Rev. Dr. Manning moved the Rules of Order be suspended, which was adopted, and presented the following resolution:

"Whereas: There are now before the Senate of the United States awaiting ratification certain treaties of arbitration negotiated between the State Department of this country and the governments of Great Britain and France; and,

Whereas, these treaties give clearer expression to the principle of arbitration as the true method of settling international disputes than any others which have been concluded between the leading European nations; and,

Whereas, every measure for the promotion of peace with righteousness is of vital concern to the Christian Church.

Resolved: First: That the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of New York records its hearty approval of the action of the President of the United States in the negotiation of these treaties and expresses the hope that they may speedily be ratified by the Senate.

Second: That a copy of these resolutions be transmitted to the President of the United States and to the Senators from the State of New York.

Third: That the Convention suggests that on the Sunday next before Advent, November 26th, special prayers be offered and reference made to this subject in the Churches of the Diocese.

Which was adopted.

The Rev. Pascal Harrower, for the Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Parishes, reported that St. Paul's Church, New Rochelle, had made application for admission into union with the Convention, in canonical form, and by vote of the Convention, St. Paul's Church, New Rochelle, was admitted into union with the Convention.

On motion, the Rules of Order were suspended to receive the Report of the Committee on Canons:

The Committee on Canons presented the following report:

1. The amendments to the Constitution which were referred to the Committee on Canons by resolution of the Convention of 1910 (pp. 129-131 of Journal of 1910) are hereby reported to this Convention to be "again approved by a majority of the two orders voting thereon separately."

2. The Committee propose that section 16 of Canon II should be amended so as to read "fifty Clergymen, and Delegates from forty congregations," so as to conform with section 11 of same Canon as amended in the Convention of 1908.

3. The Committee have also had under consideration the alterations rendered necessary in Canon XVI, and Canon XVII, in consequence of the adoption by the Convention at its session in 1910 of Canon XV, and recommend that in Canon XVI, Section 2 and 3 be struck out, and that a new section to be numbered 2 be adopted as follows:

"SEC. 2. The Treasurer of the Episcopal Fund shall make known each year to the Convention the amount required by assessment for the support of the Episcopate, said assessment to be made by the Treasurer of the Diocese in accordance with Canon XV."

Renumber Section 4 Section 3.

That in Canon XVII Section 1 shall read:

"Section 1. The Treasurer of the Convention shall make known each year before the close of the Convention the amount required for Diocesan purposes, and such amount shall be raised by assessment, in accordance with Canon XV."

Strike out Section 3.

On motion, the Rules of Order were suspended to receive the Report of the Committee on Diocesan Finances.

The Committee on Diocesan Finances presented the following report:

REPORT

OF THE COMMITTEE ON DIOCESAN FINANCES.

The Committee organized on December Nineteenth and has held five meetings during the year.

It has directed the Treasurer of the Diocese in the preparation of the schedules of assessments for Diocesan purposes and of apportionments for Domestic and Foreign Missions.

Acting in conjunction with the Archdeacons of the Diocese as the Board of Adjustment it has given careful consideration to the requests of about fifty parishes and missions for the correction or modification of their assessments or apportionments and has made such adjustments as appeared to be equitable.

Your Committee desires to record its very great satisfaction in the notable and highly gratifying results which have been attained in this first year under the operation of Canon XV as adopted at the last Convention, a satisfaction which may well be shared by all the clergy and people of the Diocese when the facts are made known to them. The assessments for Diocesan purposes have been fully met by a very large proportion of the parishes and missions, and it is gratifying to know that the amount of assessments remaining unpaid is only $1,600, or about three per cent. of the total sum assessed. In consequence of this, not only have the Episcopal and Diocesan funds been adequately sustained, but what is far more significant and gratifying, the Diocesan Missionary Treasury has been so promptly supplied with funds that the stipends of the missionaries throughout the Diocese have been paid in full and as soon as due.

The results of the apportionment for Domestic and Foreign Missions have been almost equally satisfactory. Though the apportionment was in the case of many parishes largely increased, for causes which the Committee carefully explained in a circular letter, a large proportion of the parishes met their apportionment in full, and the total of the Diocesan apportionment was exceeded by some $7,000, and this without the necessity, as in previous years, for the Bishop to raise money by his personal efforts.

Your Committee extends its hearty congratulations to the Diocese on this most successful outcome of the plans inaugurated a year ago.

In considering the apportionment for the coming year, your Committee is impressed by the practical difficulties in making apportionments to the parishes which will inevitably result from the new plan of the Board of Missions to include in the apportionment the gifts of the Woman's Auxiliaries and of the Sunday Schools. It seems to us of the utmost importance that the policy and wishes of the Diocese in this matter should be defined as fully as possible for the guidance of the Committee.

Your Committee begs to submit the following Resolutions covering certain minor amendments to Canon XV and a further provision, which taken together will promote flexibility and efficiency in the working of the system, and earnestly recommends their adoption by the Convention:

1. Resolved, that Canon XV be amended as follows:—

In Section 1, Paragraph 5, Line 3, by inserting the words "such a sum as will be sufficient to meet" so that the Paragraph shall read as follows:

"The Treasurer also under such direction shall make an apportionment among the Parishes, Missions and Congregations of such a sum as will be sufficient to meet the amount apportioned to the Diocese for Domestic and Foreign Missions."

In Section 2, Paragraph 5, Line 2, by omitting the words "apportioned to the Diocese" and substituting the words "to be raised" so that the Paragraph shall read "The apportionment among the Parishes, Missions or Congregations of the amount to be raised for Domestic and Foreign Missions shall be made, etc."

In Section 2, Paragraph 3, line 6, by substituting December for February.

Paragraph 4, Line 2, by substituting February for April.

Paragraph 4, Line 8, by substituting February for April.

Paragraph 4, line 9, by substituting August for October.

In Section 3, Paragraph 1, line 10, by substituting February for April.

So that the respective paragraphs shall read as follows:

"A notice of the amount of the current expenses and the assessment in the case of each Parish, Mission or Congregation shall be sent to the corporate authorities thereof before the first day of December."

"The assessment so laid by the Treasurer shall be deemed to be confirmed unless before the first day of February the Board of Adjustment shall take action modifying or correcting the same."

"And each of them shall make payment of its assessment to the Treasurer in two equal installments, one on the first day of February and the other on the first day of August next ensuing."

The Board of Adjustment shall certify the amount so determined to the Treasurer of the Diocese by the first day of February in each year."

2. Resolved, that the Treasurer of the Diocese shall have authority with the approval of the Committee on Diocesan Finances to borrow money up to $5,000 to meet any obligations authorized to be met out of the assessments for the current year.

3. Resolved, that the appointed members of the Committee desire to add to this report an expression of their grateful recognition of the services of their colleague, the Treasurer of the Diocese, to whose faithfulness, devotion and efficiency the success above recorded is very largely due.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Mr. Henry Lewis Morris presented the following report:

REPORT

OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE ESTATE AND PROPERTY OF THE DIOCESAN CONVENTION OF NEW YORK, FOR THE YEAR ENDING NOVEMBER 6, 1911.

The following is a list of the various Trusts:

Diocesan House, 416 Lafayette Street, and an Endowment Fund of $50,000, the income of which is to be expended for its support and maintenance. The real estate is leased to the Archdeacon of New York, and the entire income paid to him.

Land, Church Building, Rectory, Parish House and Schoolhouse at Eighty-ninth Street and Madison Avenue, leased to the Church of the Beloved Disciple, Endowment Fund and securities of the par value of $186,493.03, the income of which is to be applied to the maintenance and preservation of the church and its work, but no income shall be expended for alterations to the church or for a Mission Church.

Land, Burial Plot and Glebe Plot, with Church Building, Parish House and Rectory, near Scarborough, Westchester County, leased to St. Mary's Church, Beechwood. Endowment Fund of $9,206.82; the income to be expended for repairs and conducting services in the church.

Land, Church Buildings and Rectory at Montrose, Westchester County, occupied by the Church of Divine Love.

Land and Church Buildings at Verplanck, Westchester County, occupied by the Chapel of St. Barnabas.

Land and Church Buildings at Rosendale, Ulster County, occupied by All Saints Church.

Endowment Fund of $2,000, the income to be paid half yearly to the Treasurer for the time being of All Saints Church, Rosendale, the same to go in aid of the stipend of the Rector and Clergyman in Charge, and not for debts or general working expenses, with a provision that if the work is abandoned, the Bishop and Archdeacon shall decide upon the application of the income according to the provisions of the Will.

Land and Church Buildings at Yonkers, leased to Christ Church.

Land and Church Buildings at Tuexdo Park, occupied by St. Mary's Church.

Land at Ellenville, Ulster County, with Church Building and Rectory, leased to St. John's Memorial Church.

Land and Church Building at Newburg, leased to the Church of the Good Shepherd.

Endowment Fund of $10,500; the income to be paid semi-annually to the Pastor, Rector or other head of St. Matthew's Protestant Episcopal Church, in the town of Bedford, Westchester County, in addition to his regular salary as such Rector.

Land and Church Building known as the Worthington Memorial Church of St. Joseph of Arimathea, in the town of Greenburgh. Endowment fund of $5,000, the income of which is to be applied to the repair and maintenance of the church and grounds.

The title to the land occupied by St. Thomas' Protestant Episcopal Church, of Mamaroneck, Westchester County, is to revert to this corporation upon the failure of the parish, which holds a conditional title, to carry out the terms of the grants of the property.

Endowment Fund for this parish, consisting of bonds of the West Shore Railroad Company, of the par value of $4,500, the income to be applied to the expenses of the parish.

Endowment Fund, All Angels Church, New York City. This fund is to accumulate until it amounts to $50,000. It amounts at this date to $30,108.81.

Land at Yonkers, New York, with Church Buildings, also land and a Mission Chapel at Lincoln Park, leased to St. Andrew's Memorial Church, and also an Endowment Fund of $25,000, to be held as a memorial to William F. Cochran, the income to be paid to the corporation of St. Andrew's Memorial Church.

Loomis Memorial Chapel (known as the Church of St. Luke the Beloved Physician), to be held as a memorial to Dr. Alfred L. Loomis. The property is situated at Liberty, New York, at the Loomis Sanitarium, which agrees to maintain the property and provide necessary services. Endowment Fund of $10,000 for the support of the Church.

Property on the south side of East Eighty-eighth Street east of Second Avenue, held by St. James' Church. This corporation holds a reversionary interest in this property in case the Church corporation should fail to comply with the terms of the deed of gift. Endowment Fund of $200,000 to be invested and the income paid over to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of St. James' Church to be applied to the use, maintenance and support of said property in East Eighty-eighth Street.

Endowment Fund of $89,086.64, the income to be paid to St. James' Church so long as it shall be entitled under the terms of the agreement to receive the same and afterwards to Trinity Church Corporation of the City of New York.

Land at Harrison, Westchester County, New York, with Church Buildings thereon, known as All Saints Church.

Under a Codicil to the Will of Mary B. Purdy additional land was given to this corporation to hold for the benefit of All Saints Church, Harrison, which land and the property already held for the Church were leased to Frederick B. Van Kleeck, George K. MacNaught, Arthur De L. Ayrault, Westervelt Burger and Samuel Thorne, Jr., Trustees of All Saints Church.

Endowment Fund consisting of three bonds of $1,000 each American Telephone and Telegraph Company four per cent. collateral trust, and $11,364.08 in cash, all to be held and the income paid over for the support of the Church.

Church of the Holy Apostles, Borough of Manhattan, Endowment Fund. This Fund was commenced in 1901, and the sums received with accumulated interest now amount to $20,000, and the income is paid to the Treasurer to be used for general expenses of the Church.

Also two bonds of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway for $1,000 each, bearing five per cent. interest, the income to be paid to the Rector of the Church of the Holy Apostles, to be used for the Fresh Air Work of the parish; and a $1,000 bond of the City of New York, the income to be applied for the benefit of the Sunday School of the Parish, the fund to be known as the "John P. Collard Fund."

Another fund was commenced in 1907, the sums received with accumulated interest now amount to $30,000, and the income is paid to the Treasurer to be used for the general expenses of the Church.

A third fund has been commenced during the year 1911. The income received is to be added to the principal sums until $50,000 are accumulated, after which the income is to be paid to the Treasurer for the general expenses of the Church. Nothing has been received on this account.

Fund of $5,000, held under the Will of Elizabeth D. Eaton, the income to be paid to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of St. Clement's Church, New York, to be used to provide fitting and proper burial of the poor connected with that parish.

Fund of $10,000, received under the Will of Mary Beach Tousey, the income to be paid to the Rector of St. Clement's Church, New York, to be expended in the employment of a competent and devout woman to care for the poor and sick in the neighborhood of said Church.

Endowment Fund for the benefit of St. John's Church, Yonkers, invested in registered bond of the West Shore Railroad Company of the par value of $50,000, the income to be paid to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of St. John's Church in the City of Yonkers.

St. Andrew's Church at Richmond, Staten Island. Received from Robert Fleming Crooks one three per cent. Northern Pacific general lien bond for $1,000, the income to be paid to the Rector or Treasurer of St. Andrew's Protestant Episcopal Church at Richmond, Staten Island, to be by him expended for the special care of the burial plot belonging to Robert Fleming Crooks in the churchyard and for the benefit of the Church, with the hope that the Cross Memorial Window and Tablet will be cared for many years to come.

St. Stephens Church in the City of New York. Endowment Fund amounting to $87,500, the income to be paid to St. Stephens Church, and in case that corporation shall cease to exist, then the Fund is to revert to Trinity Church Corporation.

Under the Will of Miss Ella Mooney, $8,000 have been received, the income to be paid to the Trustees of Christ Church, Red Hook, for the maintenance of services in All Saints' Chapel, Upper Red Hook, New York.

The term of office of two of the trustees, Messrs. George A. Crocker, Jr., and J. Pierpont Morgan, have expired October 1, 1911, and two persons should be elected by the Convention for the term of four years to succeed them.

The Treasurer's Report, submitted herewith, shows in his charge securities and cash of the estimated value of Eight hundred and fifty-one thousand six hundred and eighty-five dollars and twenty-two cents.

Income collected and paid beneficiaries, thirty-four thousand, six hundred and fifty dollars and sixteen cents.

The Treasurer's accounts have been examined and found correct by the Executive Committee, consisting of John J. Atterbury and George A. Crocker, Jr.

Dated, New York, November 6th, 1911.

HENRY LEWIS MORRIS,
Secretary.

NEW YORK CITY, October 31, 1911.

EDMUND L. BAYLIES, Treasurer.

The undersigned have examined the foregoing accounts and have found them correct, and have found the securities and cash as called for.

J. F. ATTERBURY,

GEORGE A. CROCKER, JR.

NEW YORK CITY, November 3, 1911.

Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan and George A. Crocker, Jr., were nominated to succeed themselves as Trustees of the Estate and Property of the Diocesan Convention of New York. It was moved that the ballot be dispensed with and they be elected for four years from October 1, 1911.

Which was adopted.

The Rev. Robert B. Kimber presented the following report:

REPORT

THE EIGHTIETH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE NEW YORK PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CITY MISSION SOCIETY.

The larger part of these eighty years of the Society's work has been within the memory of one who, a few months ago, was called to the fuller life. Mr. William Alexander Smith had been a member of the Board of Managers for the very unusual period of sixty-five years. Later a Vice-president, and a member of the Executive Committee, he had been active up to a few years ago, and a regular attendant at all the meetings. His influence increased as the years went on—always constructive, and ready to enter the new fields of work, while strengthening those already occupied; the splendid strength of the Society today is in a large measure a debt it owes to him.

During the past year our staff has numbered twenty clergymen, three deaconesses, three lay-readers, and over forty lay workers in the different departments, whose work, as far as it can be shown in figures, has been as follows:

November 1, 1910, to November 1, 1911.

Number of places where services are held.....	37
Number of services.....	3,759
Holy Communion (public 1,154; private, 1,888).....	3,042
Communions made.....	12,478
Communicants registered.....	1,320
Baptisms (infants, 1,457; adults, 534).....	1,991
Confirmed	87
Marriages	119
Burials	6,104
Sunday-school teachers.....	35
Sunday-school pupils.....	905
Industrial School teachers.....	18
Industrial School pupils.....	325
Visits made by the staff.....	351,048

This is the story of an accomplishment of which the Church may well be proud, especially as it is recognized that the quality of the work has been as high as the results are large. A table such as this is only suggestive. The real work consists in the men and women who have been comforted and enabled to find peace, when after stormy and tragic lives they were called to meet their God; in the poor who have found a friend who has raised them from discouragement to a larger and more hopeful vision of life; in the prisoner, who, when freed, has shown the manliness in him, by realizing the success, and reclaiming the honor rightfully his. These things will be known to you only on that day when they, with us, will be gathered around the Throne.

The Treasurer's books show the Society's income to have been as follows for the year ending October 15, 1911:

Income applicable to general expenses.....	$52,694 48
Fresh Air Fund.....	9,018 59
Festival Fund.....	3,015 00
Special Objects.....	5,546 10

$70,274 17

The work at St. Barnabas' House has followed strictly along the lines for which it was established forty-six years ago—to house temporarily women and children who had become suddenly destitute, and help them to become re-established. Its inmates are not only those recommended by our own workers, but in the course of the year by nearly every parish and charitable agency in the city. With its doors open night and day to those whom it can help, the total number of applicants in the past year has been nearly two thousand.

God's Providence House is the daughter house, established when St. Barnabas' work had grown so large it could not properly house its Day Nursery, the oldest in the city. Here also the pressure is beginning to be felt—this fall the applications for the care of little children being greater than the accommodations for them.

The House of Aquila—the old Pro-Cathedral—has justified its new line of work. The Day Nursery there has grown to be among the largest of the Day Nurseries of the city, and while it is not possible yet to do aggressive Christian work in this purely Jewish neighborhood, yet it is known among the people as a Christian house, and we have won their confidence and their appreciation.

The colored work continues to grow, and St. Cyprian's is filling a very real need. The policy is to minister to the people not only spiritually, but socially and industrially as well. It is all done in a spirit of mutual helpfulness, the people giving as well as receiving, for the congregation met one-fifth of the cost of maintenance of this work last year. Alms, as such, are rarely dispensed, the needy being given work, for which they are paid a reasonable wage. A model housekeeping flat has been opened in the building, where the younger ones are trained to care for their homes in a more intelligent way, and to fit themselves for service in the homes of others.

The Fresh Air Fund of the past year amounted to more than $9,000. In ten years it has been increased three-fold. With it we have cared for, at the Sarah Schermerhorn House, and Camp Bleeker, at Milford, Connecticut, 1,019 boys and girls, mothers and babies, and given 15,469 individual days' board.

For the eighteenth consecutive year Mr. and Mrs. J. Hull Browning have given the Rethmore Home, at Tenaflly, New Jersey, for the use of our smaller children, meeting all the expenses of a healthful and joyous summer for them.

The unique field of the City Mission is its spiritual work in the City Institutions. Of no other city can it be said that the Church is the minister, by official right, to the Protestants in all the hospitals, prisons and asylums. The Chaplain is an official in the Institution in which he serves, no door is closed against him, he goes where he will, and sees whom he will. In the Hospitals for the Insane, and similar institutions where of necessity one ward must be locked from another, he has his pass keys, upon the use of which no restriction is placed.

The principle of all this work is service. Preaching, sacraments, Chapel services are not enough—the Chaplain is the servant of those to whom he ministers. Especially is this true of the prison work. Here the test of the religion that is preached lies in its practice, and more men today attest the Chaplain's value to them in encouraging them to make a fresh start, and strengthening them to continue their well-doing, than could recall the subject of one of his sermons during their prison term.

The head of a large Institution said the other day that the Chaplain was to him the indispensable man there. He unconsciously maintained discipline by his high moral standards and the creation of a healthier atmosphere. He regarded him as the mediator between himself and those committed to his care. The Chaplain informed him of abuses to be corrected, of grievances that could be remedied, of assistance that might be properly given. Together they work for the uplift of these unfortunates,

This is the work that has been and is being done. It is before your eyes here in our own city, and not far away. You may see it if you will, and seeing it be touched by what you see, and moved to a greater loyalty to it.

But let us look beyond. "The field is the world" is the Gospel statement. That "the field is the world" is emphasized more and more by our General Board of Missions. It seems to be forgotten, though, that in this "field" New York looms large, not so much as a source of support, as a Mission Field in itself. To meet the increasing needs of the great Field the apportionment for this Diocese has been increased to almost double what it was before. Some of this money will go to support the workers in the foreign field, yet New York has a million foreigners a year landed at her gate, a very small percentage of whom are Christians, as we use the word, to whom the Church may minister, if she will, as a part of this world field, without the necessity of crossing a continent and an ocean before the field is reached.

Some of this money will go to support the workers among the colored race in the South, for whose presence here and for whose condition this country is responsible. Yet New York is surely a part of this world field, as the second city in size of its colored population, and as showing greater results for the money expended than have been shown elsewhere.

Some of this money will go to support the workers among the Swedes of the Northwest, yes, within our very borders in neighboring towns and cities. Yet New York seems to be without the world field, as the largest of Italian cities, trying alone, in a feeble way, to preach a pure Gospel to these people whom the Church of their Fatherland has left in ignorance and superstition.

Let us be proud that the Church in these United States calls upon this Diocese to give more largely than any other of her prosperity and wealth to further the prayer of the Master that all men everywhere may learn and know of Him, but let us also remember that when, through this apportionment, we have accepted the privilege offered us, we still have left to be provided for that very large and integral part of the world field that lies within the limits of this City of New York.

If the one is a privilege, this is an obligation.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT B. KIMBER,

Superintendent.

NEW YORK, November 8, 1911.

Mr. Edmund L. Baylies presented the following report:

REPORT

OF THE BOARD OF MANAGERS OF THE SEAMEN'S CHURCH INSTITUTE OF NEW YORK.

We feel in presenting the Sixty-seventh Annual Report of the Seamen's Church Institute of New York that we have a more than usually interesting story to tell. The year has been marked by many changes and by a distinct forward advance.

FLOATING CHURCH.

With deep regret we have parted with the Floating Church of Our Saviour at the foot of Pike Street, so long an object of interest on our city's water front.

During its sixty-seven years of existence, this Society has owned and conducted services in three Floating Churches. The first was erected by the New York Men's Church Missionary Society and designated as the "Church of Our Saviour," and was moored to the bulkhead at the foot of Pike Street, East River. In 1843 this Church was transferred by deed to this Society and became at once an object of attention and a marked institution of the city. The decay of this boat and building rendered its continued use impossible, and it was abandoned in 1866.

In 1846 the second Floating Church, the Church of the Holy Comforter, was built and located at the foot of Dey Street, on the North River, where it remained for ten years. Subsequently it was transferred to the foot of Laight Street and then to the pier at Hubert Street. The Board of Managers disposed of this Church in 1868 because of constant and large expenditures to keep it in condition for use and the excessive rental for the slip in which the building was moored. At the close of the year 1869 the third Floating Church was completed, the second to be designated by the name of "Church of Our Saviour." It was moored at the foot of Pike Street, East River, and remained in or about the same location until December, 1910.

This Church was first opened for Divine Service on January 9, 1870, Bishop Horatio Potter officiating, assisted by the Chaplain in Charge. On Sunday, Christmas Day, 1910, this last Floating Church ended its career in the Borough of Manhattan with an official service at midday, the Rev. A. R. Mansfield, Superintendent of the Society, officiating.

It was because of the changed conditions in regard to the housing of sailors in the City of New York that this change became necessary. There were no more sailors near the foot of Pike Street, and excessive rentals made it impossible to secure a berth more accessible to those portions of the city where seamen are now found.

On January 6, 1911, the Floating Church was towed to Mariner's Harbor, Staten Island, where it will end its days. It is now in charge of the Archdeaconry of Richmond.

The last Annual Report of our Society contains an interesting view of this Church as it was being towed from Pike Street across the Harbor of New York to its final resting place at Mariner's Harbor.

THE LOOKOUT.

This publication, commenced in May, 1910, has been continued and has been issued every month. Its circulation is constantly increasing. Last year our monthly circulation was 2,000; it is now 2,900. The circulation, however, is not at present a paying circulation, for the paper is sent to persons contributing $2.00 or more yearly to our Society's work. This publication has been most useful in conveying to those interested in the Institution a better understanding of the work we are doing and to inform them of important happenings in the various departments. It also purposes to keep them in touch with matters of importance in the life of the seamen and to inform them of what other Institutions or agencies are doing for the men of the sea.

SHIPPING BUREAU.

Our Society is doing its full share in fighting against the traffic carried on by crimps and sailors' boarding-house keepers, and our most active weapon is our free shipping bureau. The number of men shipped without payment of illegal fees or bonuses during the past year from our Battery Station and North River Station was 2,363, and 892 men were provided with temporary employment on ships and on shore.

One of the most striking features of this work is that it has resulted in the almost complete disappearance of drunkenness at the time of sailing among the men shipped by this Society on the various vessels for which it regularly provides crews or parts of crews. Another interesting feature is the increased reliance upon our shipping bureau by contractors who need men for work on shore, either for rigging scaffolding or swinging ladders, and also supplying men for construction work, and especially for dredging.

BOAT AND HARBOR SERVICE.

Our Harbor boat, "Sentinel," continues to add greatly to the efficiency of our Institute work, and during the past year it has transported 1,511 seamen from ship to shore and from Harbor to Hospitals, and it has visited an increasingly large number of ships in the Harbor. During the year it has carried 2,474 pieces of dunnage.

THE BREAKWATER.

During the past year the number of lodgers has considerably increased, and often for weeks at a time the building was practically full, and men are constantly turned away.

SAVINGS DEPARTMENT.

During the past year $132,055.13 was received by us for safe keeping or transmission. During the past seven years the aggregate sum of $806,168.06 has been entrusted to us by sailors. We have continued to co-operate with the Legal Aid Society, to which we have for several years made an annual contribution in recognition of their helpful service. That Society has taken appropriate action in 294 cases so referred to them by us.

NEW BUILDING.

During the past year the plans for the new building have been finally perfected, and a considerable amount of additional subscriptions has been received. Under the advice of its Advisory Committee, consisting of Messrs. Robert S. Brewster, Cleveland H. Dodge, William Douglas Sloane and Francis Lynde Stetson, the Building Committee decided to commence building operations, and work was started on the 1st of September, 1911. It is estimated that it will take from fifteen to eighteen months to complete the structure. While the entire cost of the land and building has not yet been provided, it is confidently expected that the balance needed can be secured before the completion of the building, so that it may be opened free of debt.

By vote of the Society any one making a contribution of at least $5,000 to the erection of this Institute will be known as a "Founder," and any one so contributing less than $5,000, but not less than $1,000, will be known as a "Benefactor."

The interest of many people has been secured by asking them to give toward memorial rooms. The sum of $100 will build and furnish one of the sailor's bedrooms, of which there will be about 500. These rooms can be named either after the donor or in memoriam. In the same way the larger rooms in the building, such as the reading and game rooms, can be given by individuals as memorials at a cost of from $2,000 to $10,000. Over 150 of the $100 memorial rooms have already been taken, and Mr. Lisenard Stewart has contributed $10,000 for the hotel lobby or sitting room. Messrs. Wheaton B. and Henry R. Kunhardt and their sister, Mrs. E. Walpole Warren, have given $5,000 for the general reading room as a memorial of their father, Henry Rudolph Kunhardt.

The most interesting contributions toward the new building are undoubtedly those that are being made by the Churches of this Diocese and the Dioceses of Long Island and Newark in sums of $500 or less. These contributions will be used for the building and furnishing of the Chapel in the new Institute, which, it is estimated, will cost $15,000. Of this amount about $10,000 has already been contributed. We feel that in view of the large contributions that have been made to this building by persons not of this Church, it is but fitting that our own Churches should contribute the Chapel.

In this connection we feel that reference should be made to the resolutions that were passed unanimously last February by the Chamber of Commerce and by the New York Produce Exchange. The resolutions of the Chamber of Commerce recite in part that

*"Whereas, The Seamen's Church Institute of New York is engaged in a non-sectarian work of great service in protecting seamen against the inherently bad conditions along the water front, affording them a chance to be decent, to save their money, to become self-reliant and proposes to erect at the corner of South Street and Coenties Slip a twelve-story building * * **

"Resolved, That this Chamber urges ship owners, shippers, transporting interests and all classes of business men interested in the well being of the Port of New York to support the plan of the Institute for a new building adequate for its comprehensive and beneficent work."

IN MEMORIAM.

We record with sorrow the deaths of Mr. Henry Dexter, Mr. John V. Brower, Mr. Charles F. Cummings and Mr. Tristram B. Johnson. Mr. Dexter was one of our lay Vice-presidents. His unfailing and sympathetic service for the past thirty-nine years will cause his memory to last while the Society endures. Mr. Brower was an honorary member at the time of his death. He had been an active worker on the Board since 1890 and his loss will be keenly felt. Mr. Cummings came on the Board in 1892, succeeding his father, Thomas F. Cummings, one of the original members. Mr. Johnson became a member of the Board in 1905. From his first connection with the Society he rendered active and valuable service as chairman of one of its most important Committees, and in frequently appearing before legislative committees both in Albany and Washington in support of bills introduced to secure the protection of the lives and property of seamen. He will be remembered as a willing, diligent, active and non-assuming worker. His labors for the Society had just begun and his loss to this Board is incalculable.

LEGACIES.

The Society has been notified during the past year of a legacy of $5,000 to it from the late O. Egerton Schmidt, for many years chairman of the Executive Committee of the Society; and of $1,000 from Francis Collingwood, of Elizabeth, New Jersey.

FINANCES.

In the financial year ending December, 1910, our expenses amounted to $40,380.73, and the receipts from donors and contributions amounted to $31,917.77, the difference being made up by legacies and a small draft on principal. The Society has been much encouraged by the large increase in the number of its annual subscribers and in the additional amounts thus received by the Society.

Respectfully submitted,

EDMUND L. BAYLIES,

Chairman of the Executive Committee.

On motion, the Rules of Order were suspended and Mr. John K. Sague offered the following which was referred to the Committee on Canons:

A PROPOSED CANON.

The Social Service Commission shall consist of four clergymen and four laymen, to be elected by ballot. Within thirty days after the adjournment of the Convention of 1911 the members of the Social Service Commission who shall be elected by that Convention shall divide themselves by lot into four classes, one clergyman and one layman in each class, to hold office for terms of one, two, three and four years respectively, and until the election of their successors, and shall notify the Secretary of the Convention in writing of the result of such division. If after the expiration of forty days after the adjournment of the Convention the members of the Commission shall have failed so to notify the Secretary, he shall at once proceed by lot to divide the members of the Commission into classes as aforesaid, and they shall respectively hold their offices accordingly. At each succeeding stated Convention one clergyman and one layman shall be elected to hold their offices for four years. This Commission shall be empowered to add to its numbers not more than four additional members. The Commission shall elect its own officers.

All vacancies occurring in the said Commission shall be filled by the concurrent vote of its Clerical and Lay members until the next stated Convention,, when the vacancy shall be filled for the balance of the term. Except in the case of members chosen to fill vacancies until the next stated Convention, no member shall be eligible to the Commission for one year after the expiration of his term of service.

On motion, the Rules of Order were suspended and the Rev. Mr. Walker offered the following, which was referred to the Committee on Canons:

Amending Canon 15 by adding to Section I, Sub-section 4, a new paragraph designated (d) as follows:

"Fund to supplement inadequate salaries of the clergy."

Further amending Canon 15 by adding two new sections numbered 5 and 6 as follows:

SECTION 5.

"Any parish, congregation or mission of the Diocese of New York in charge of a clergyman that is not able to pay a clerical salary of $1,200 to an unmarried man or $1,200 and rectory or $1,500 without rectory to a married man, shall be entitled to aid from the Fund to supplement inadequate salaries of the clergy, provided said parish, congregation or mission shall make application to the Committee on Diocesan Finances on or before the first day of February in each year and file with the Committee a statement signed by the clergyman in charge and the Treasurer of its financial condition and stating the amount it is able to pay toward the salary of its rector or clergyman in charge, whether he be married or unmarried, which sum must be at least $700 per year. Upon the receipt of this statement the Committee shall proceed to determine the amount of money necessary in each case on the basis of $1,200 for unmarried clergy and $1,200 and rectory for married clergy, or $1,500 without rectory. The Committee shall then certify to the Treasurer of the Diocese the names of the clergy whose salaries are to be supplemented and the respective amounts."

SECTION 6.

"It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to pay to each clergyman the amount voted to him by the Committee on the 15th day of November in each year."

The Rev. Pascal Harrower presented the following report:

REPORT

THE ANNUAL REPORT OF THE NEW YORK SUNDAY SCHOOL COMMISSION, INC.

I. THE OFFICE BUSINESS FOR THE YEAR.

Both the Office Routine and the Commission Supply Department have more than ever proved their value in the eleventh year of service out of the thirteen, under which the Sunday School Commission has been in existence.

The actual net business of the Supply Department from Nov. 1, 1910, to Nov. 1, 1911, was $37,788.40, representing an actual gross business of between $50,000.00 and $60,000.00.

The number of orders received during that period amounted to 11,310. The number of callers at the Sunday School Exhibit reached the splendid total of 3,822.

In the Office Routine the total of pieces of mail and telephones out, during the year, amounted to 60,025. The mail and telephones in, amounted to 20,549.

The actual sale of the Commission Manuals from the New York office alone, during September, amounted to over 24,600 copies. It is estimated that the total sale of these excellent Subject Graded Manuals, from Milwaukee and New York, will, during the three months of September, October and November, amount to about 200,000 copies.

This shows that the New York Commission has been enabled to help, with practical Lesson Books, nearly one-half of the children of the Church.

It is noteworthy that the Official Diocesan Commission of 31 Dioceses have, of their own accord, recommended the New York Commission Manuals for use in their Sunday Schools.

The voluntary contributions toward the annual deficit incurred in the expenses of the Commission have amounted to about $200.00 more this year than last.

About $3,000.00 is now invested in Missionary and Bible Lantern Slides, which are circulated with typewritten lectures throughout the entire church, the missionary material, in particular, being used even in the Far West.

The Diocesan Training School has established its second year and has enrolled, for its first and second years, about twenty pupils, representing about fifteen parishes. This school ought to be still more widely patronized, and it ought to be the aim of each Sunday School in the Diocese to send at least one representative to be trained as its Normal Teacher in this helpful way.

III. THE PRESENT OUTLOOK.

One of the gravest problems before the nation is that of the education of its youth. The wiser treatment of childhood has been especially laid upon the conscience of this generation. There is still living in the vigor of age the man who organized the first "Gerry Society" for the specific purpose of the prevention of cruelty to children. Two years ago the first national Conference on Dependent Children was held in Washington at the call of President Roosevelt. The work of child saving, laws for their protection, of children at work, Children's Courts and Domestic Courts, all these mark the new passion that has fallen upon the heart of man for the conservation of childhood. This new passion is giving deeper meaning than ever to the whole process of education. We have our great system of Public Schools. But granting all that has been accomplished by these and other related educational activities, education itself runs into grooves than the old methods contemplated, just as the life and needs of childhood demand deeper wisdom in our judges and law-makers. A new social consciousness is coming to birth. It is changing our point of view. The Church must adjust herself to this changed condition. She would be false to herself if she did not do so, because this age with its changes and readjustments is simply forcing us back upon those great first truths of individual and social life for which Jesus Christ stood, and Jesus Christ is compelling the world to adjust itself socially, economically and educationally to the standards and ideals of His own character. This compulsion from the living Christ is thrusting new and deep responsibilities on the Church.

For this reason great national conventions of educators in recent years have been called to consider these conditions. How shall moral training be made effective? What shall be the content and aim of education? How can the Church supplement the work of the Public School? How shall the Home and the Church work together? How shall we bind the Sunday School and the Church more closely together in mutual support? We are face to face with influences today that are eating into the very heart of the Home. Where shall we begin, for example, to solve the problem of Divorce, at the top or at the bottom? An education that deals only with the outside of the Child cannot touch the Home. A Church that does not weld together the Child and the Home in the powerful bond of fellowship and faith, can save neither the Child nor the Home. And a Church that does not do this cannot itself long endure. It is cutting itself off at the roots.

When we recall the recent Child's Welfare Exhibit, held in this city, and remember that of the 817,000 children between the ages of six and seventeen in New York City, only 294,000 are actually attending Sunday School, one asks, where are the other other 523,000?

A noted Educator and Churchman gives us these words, "One asks as he looks out upon our modern life—The family has a sad outlook in these days, and religion in the family an outlook more sad. One divorce to every twelve marriages, hundreds of childless couples, tenements and apartments destructive of home spirit, the rich neglecting their children for pleasure and the poor for work; whether it is the excitement of the city, of the dulness of the country, whether the crowding, pressure of life, or the bitter unrest of social conditions, or the dissatisfaction with old customs and beliefs—the result is always against the family—the boys and girls are the losers.

"It is a heavy indictment and we shrink back. On the other hand, the industrial and social revolutions of the past fifty years have been enormous; and at times the most valued things go under, and we are in no condition today to judge of results." With all that is dark and forbidding, there are higher forces at work. A passion for humanity, for childhood burns at the heart of modern legislation. "With all the sins of this new age, think what ideals of truth, honor, liberty, are being taught in these troublous times." The burden, heavy as it is, is not being shirked. But this only makes what we are doing seem poor compared with the things we are set to do.

Now it would seem as if no greater duty could be placed before this Diocese than to throw into our work for youth and its true education a worthy enthusiasm and effort. The present question is—What shall the Church do? How shall her efficiency as an educational factor in this present time be increased? If she has schools, how make them effective? If she is to gather and nurture her children, how shall she best perform that service? If she is to weld parents and children together in a new and loving faith, how shall she take up that work? If she is to speak as the living voice and presence of her Master, how shall she find the secret of the Great Teacher?

It is before this task and before no other that our Sunday Schools stand. They are not to take the place of the Home—God forbid! But, rather, they are to find their work in such a wise and earnest ministry to childhood as shall help to saturate the family life with religion—that from it, through all the educational process of our modern world, there may come forth, "a youth with a character strong, pure, chivalrous, based upon religious faith."

This defines, as we conceive it, the work of the Sunday School. Are we doing it? It is a vastly deeper question than the matter of a text book or a map or a set of rules. It goes to the very roots of life and faith and fellowship. It is the richest possible service of human life, and the homes of men.

IV. LET US NOW ASK WHAT SHALL NEW YORK DO?

There are two courses.

1. We may go on as we have been doing, without definite Diocesan authority or support. Let no man undervalue what has been done these thirteen years past. These years have witnessed a great change for the better. There has been a new correlation of the Sunday School with the Day School work. The whole Church and nation have felt the impulse of a new spirit. We in this Diocese may go on as hitherto. But this will not answer the real need. The present situation is of necessity confusing, so far as it concerns our own Diocese. Whatever we may have done and are now doing for the Church at large, we are not giving relatively helpful service to our own Sunday Schools.

2. The second course.

The last General Convention adopted a canon, creating a General Board of Religious Education, and asked every Diocese to take action in harmony with its own. How does this bear upon our Diocese? At present our Sunday School organizations are confused in their functions. This should be corrected. A canon similar to that adopted by the General Convention, and creating a Diocesan Board of Religious Education, would eliminate all confusion, and put the whole work on a simple basis and open the way to the greatest possible advance. We believe that this should be done for two reasons—because it puts us in alignment with the developing policy of the Church at large, and it secures the most effective service of the Diocese.

The question rises—Is the Convention ready to take up this legislation? Such a step certainly involves far greater responsibility and investment of money than this Diocese has ever yet been willing to give. Nothing would be gained by the mere adoption of a canon. The whole matter goes much deeper than a paper resolution. And for this reason we believe that it is wiser to go on for another year under present arrangements, rather than precipitate action which we are not prepared to support. And because this seems the wiser course at this present Convention we desire to offer the following resolution:

Whereas, The time has come for the Diocese of New York to consider what should be done to unify its methods and agencies for the promotion of Religious Education, and to bring itself into full co-operation with the action of the Church in creating the General Board of Religious Education, therefore be it

Resolved, That a Committee be appointed to take into consideration the whole question of the Religious Education of Youth, and to recommend to the next Convention such legislation as shall be necessary to unify and promote the work of Religious Education in this Diocese.

Mr. Harrower moved the resolution and it was adopted. The Chair appointed as such Committee:

	Rev. Pascal Harrower,
Rev. E. M. Stires, D.D.,	Rev. H. R. Hulse,
Rev. H. P. Nichols, D.D.,	Mr. H. H. Pike,
Rev. R. P. Kreidler,	Mr. C. W. Stoughton.

The Convention then took a recess until 2 o'clock.

The Convention reassembled at 2 o'clock.

Mr. George Macculloch Miller presented the following report:

REPORT

OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE EPISCOPAL FUND.

The Trustees of the Episcopal Fund of the Diocese of New York report that the capital of the General Fund in their hands is two hundred and fourteen thousand four hundred and eighty-four dollars and eleven cents ($214,484.11).

The receipts from investments during the year will be insufficient to meet the deficiency in the income of the Fund for the salary of the Bishops, as no addition has been made to the capital of the Fund during the year.

The Trustees of the Episcopal Fund again respectfully call the attention of the Convention to the debt existing upon the Episcopal Residence, and ask such action by the Convention as will enable the Trustees to pay this obligation. The annual charges, by way of taxes, croton water, repairs, and the like (say $2,500), must be raised by an assessment, in addition to the moneys needed for the salary of the Bishops. The Trustees, therefore, recommend to the Convention the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Treasurer of the Diocese, acting under the direction of the Committee on Diocesan Finance, shall make an assessment on the Parishes, Missions and Congregations of the Diocese, of the amount necessary to be expended for the salary of the Bishops of the Diocese and for the care of the Episcopal Residence, as follows:

For the salary of the Bishop of the Diocese.....	$15,000 00
For the salary of the Suffragan Bishop of the Diocese	7,500 00
For the salary of the Secretary to the Bishop.....	2,000 00
For taxes, repairs, etc., to the Episcopal Residence..	2,500 00

such assessments to be in lieu of the collection provided for by Canon for the capital of the Episcopal Fund.

The statement of the investment and income of the Fund in the hands of the Trustees is as follows:

The Trustees further recommended to the Convention, for adoption, the following resolution as to the sale of the Episcopal Residence:

The Trustees of the Episcopal Fund being informed that in the opinion of the Bishop it would be better to have the Episcopal Residence adjacent to the Cathedral rather than on its present location, and the Trustees being advised that the present Residence can probably be sold to advantage during the current year, respectfully recommend to the Convention of the Diocese the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the sale of the present Episcopal Residence and the appropriation of its proceeds to the erection of an Episcopal Residence on a site part of the grounds of the Cathedral, upon terms securing the use of such site for an Episcopal Residence, as may be agreed upon between the Trustees of the Cathedral and the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund is approved.

NEW YORK, November 3, 1911.

Mr. Miller moved the resolution appended to the report.

Which was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. W. C. Rodgers presented the following report:

REPORT

OF THE PRESIDENT OF ST. STEPHEN'S COLLEGE TO THE CONVENTION OF THE DIOCESE OF NEW YORK.

On September 19, the College opened with every room in the buildings occupied. Two men dropped out. One new student has arrived, so that there are now 64. I had to refuse about fifteen good men for want of accommodation. Six are seniors, nine juniors, fifteen sophomores, about twenty-two freshmen, and twelve specials. Twelve students do not expect to enter the Ministry. Fifty-two are studying for the Ministry and come from eighteen Dioceses.

Seven are from Long Island, six from Harrisburg, two from Missouri, four from New York, two from New Jersey, four from Massachusetts, three from Albany, one from Western New York, three from New Hampshire, four from Newark, two from Vermont, two from Washington, four from Pennsylvania, three from Connecticut, two from Central New York, one from Indiana, one from Western Michigan, one from Rhode Island. Twenty-four out of the sixty-four are self-supporting. Forty are paying $300 per year. From henceforth all will be paying the new rate of $300.

Prof. Upton is taking a year's leave of absence from the Chair of English, and in his place Rev. H. K. Garnier, B.D., has been appointed for the time being. Mr. Garnier also takes the History courses, and Mr. Piper, one of our last year graduates, has returned as Assistant Instructor in English.

A new well has been drilled and has proved a success. A copious supply of water was found at a depth of about 150 ft. The well flows almost continuously 16½ gallons to the minute.

The buildings are being wired for electric light. This is the result of a spontaneous effort made at the last Commencement by the Alumni and former students.

The repairs on Orient Hall proved well worth while. As a result, room was provided for eight more students, and two much needed recitation rooms.

During the past year I have traveled somewhat extensively, trying to interest a larger number of people in the College. I believe I may say that the time and money were well spent. As a result the treasury was richer by about $4,000. I expect to do the same thing this year, and hope we may add considerably to the list of subscriptions and gifts already obtained. We have every reason to be encouraged. The tone of the student body is excellent. It consists of a manly, sensible, well-bred lot of men. They are doing good work. There is no narrow, ecclesiastical partisanship. There is no rowdyism, and no vicious conduct of any description whatsoever.

The two Winter months—February and March—are “shut in” months when indoor sports ought to be possible, and it is of supreme importance that a gymnasium be provided. I believe the Alumni and former students have about $3,000 for this purpose. We need $7,000 more. The buildings, campus and gardens are in good repair and present a trim and attractive appearance. I desire to make mention of the loyal and self-denying work of the Faculty.

You may be glad to know that the College has contributed $107.00 to Missions this year.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM C. RODGERS, President.

Annandale, N. Y., November, 1911.

On motion the Rules of Order were suspended and the Rev. Dr. M. H. Gates presented the following report of the Deaconess School:

REPORT

OF THE NEW YORK TRAINING SCHOOL FOR DEACONESSSES.

At the time of our last report, the school was temporarily sheltered, through the hospitality of Grace Parish, at Grace House-in-the-Fields, New Canaan, Connecticut. This report comes from the new building in the Cathedral Close. At Thanksgiving last year, the School was driven to New York by the cold. We were then befriended by the Archdeacon of the City, who offered rooms in the Diocesan House for the classes, and by the Sisterhoods, Deaconess Houses and Parish Houses of the City, where the students were hospitably entertained until after the Christmas holidays. On the sixteenth of January, the second term opened in the new building, which though far from finished, was in condition to house the school.

The graduating exercises took place in the Refectory, on the sixteenth of May; two members of the graduating class were set apart in the Cathedral the same morning; another graduate has since been set apart in the Cathedral at St. Louis. The destinations of the twelve women who went out from the School last year are as follows: One each to St. Bartholomew's Parish; St. Cornelius' Parish; Rye, New York; Grace Parish, Orange; the Diocesan Missions, Massachusetts; the Mountain work, Virginia; two to St. Elizabeth's School, Wapala, South Dakota; one each to Alaska, Tokyo, Kyoto, and St. Mary's College, Dallas, Texas.

The new Junior class numbers twenty-three, the following eight colleges being represented: Barnard, Smith, Vassar, Radcliffe, the University of Syracuse, the Woman's College of Baltimore, Alfred University, New York State, and St. Hilda's, Toronto. Two students have been sent by the Woman's Auxiliary of Canada, to be prepared for the mission field. Bishop Brent has requested the Board of Missions to send one of his missionaries to the School for special training during her year of furlough. Two students have been sent at the request of the Bishop of Shanghai, to prepare for work in his jurisdiction. One has been sent by the Bishop of Delaware, and two by Bishop Rhinelander.

The Faculty has met with a serious loss in the resignation of Dr. Lloyd Bevan, who has been called to the chair of Ecclesiastical History in the University of the South.

In addition to the practical departments of the curriculum of the School the students are engaged in the following parochial activities:

Parish Visiting; St. Mary's Church, The Chapel of the Intercession, The Church of the Redeemer, Corpus Christi Church, All Souls' Church, The Church of the Beloved Disciple.

Mothers' Meeting and Sewing School; St. Michael's Church.

Boys' Club; All Souls' Church.

Girls' Club; Holy Trinity Church, Brooklyn.

The Church Mission of Help; Clinics; St. Luke's Hospital, St. Bartholomew's, The Good Samaritan.

The School has also the care of the Sacristy at the Cathedral, where the students are trained in Altar Guild work.

With the approval of the three nearest Rectors, an afternoon Sunday School has been opened in St. Faith's house. This seems to be meeting a real need of the neighborhood, as well as affording our students opportunity for practice in Sunday School teaching and management. As will be seen, a great advance has now been made in practical work and instruction.

In addition to this account of the year, the Trustees desire to call the attention of all to the necessity of an endowment fund as a provision for the future, and especially to the present necessity of a larger number of annual contributors to the support of the School. For several years to come, until a sufficient endowment shall have been secured, it will be necessary to raise each year $8,000 to meet the deficit. To do this, the Trustees desire not only to appeal for gifts to the endowment fund, but also to ask for annual contributions to the current expense fund.

Already several friends of the School have become annual subscribers, but their number is not yet sufficient to provide for all the needs.

It is needless to say that the Institution is managed with great economy; in fact, much of the work done in the School is really done as a labor of love.

Many of us who knew what Dr. Huntington's interest in this School was will feel that here is his real memorial. The desire that the work, which he founded and carried on so long, should be endowed was strong in his heart. This was almost his last expressed wish.

Through his efforts, and those of his friends, we are the possessors of a building with no debt upon it, in the best possible situation for the School's purposes. We are near enough to the Columbia University to be able to avail ourselves of many of its advantages, and so near the Cathedral that our students will receive the inestimable benefit that must come from attendance at the great services which will be held there. This we have received from the past—it is for us of the present and future to carry on this great and greatly needed work for our Church.

The school library is a memorial to Dr. Huntington—it contains the greater part of his own wonderfully chosen library, which he left the school in his will. It is suggested that there may be those who may desire to show their regard for him by gifts of books or by gifts of money, to be used for the purchase of the books which from time to time shall be needed.

Such contributions, as well as subscriptions for the support of the school may be sent to Mr. Howard Caswell Smith, Treasurer, 45 Wall Street, New York.

Respectfully submitted,

MIL0 H. GATES, Warden.

The Bishop of the Diocese read his annual address.

On motion the Rules of Order were suspended and the proposed missionary canon was referred to the Committee on Canons.

On behalf of the Committee on Canons, Bishop Courtney moved the adoption of the amendments to the Constitution which had been previously reported, and they were adopted by concurrent votes of both orders.

The Committee propose that Section 16 of Canon II should be amended so as to read "fifty clergymen, and delegates from forty congregations," so as to conform with Section 11 of same Canon as amended in the Convention of 1908.

Which was adopted.

The Committee recommend that in Canon XVI, Sections 2 and 3 be struck out, and that a new section to be numbered 2 be adopted as follows:

Section 2. The Treasurer of the Episcopal Fund shall make known each year to the Convention the amount required by assessment for the support of the Episcopate, said assessment to be made by the Treasurer of the Diocese in accordance with Canon XV. Renumber Section 4 Section 3.

Which was adopted.

The Committee propose that Canon XVII, Section 1, shall read:

Section 1. The Treasurer of the Convention shall make known each year before the close of the Convention the amount required for Diocesan purposes, and such amount shall be raised by assessment, in accordance with Canon XV.

Strike out Section 3.

Which was adopted.

Mr. Francis Lynde Stetson offered the following amendment to Rule 19 in the report of the Committee on Dispatch of Business, which was referred to that Committee.

XIX: Any rule of order excepting Rule XIII may be suspended by the vote of not less than two-thirds of the members present. Any new matter introduced during such suspension may be explained by the mover in a statement of not more than five minutes, but otherwise shall not be subject to debate or action until after report from the appropriate committee. No rule of order shall be changed or rescinded without one day's previous notice of a motion to that effect.

On motion the Rules of Order were suspended and the Rev. Dr. Saunders presented the following report:

R E P O R T

OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE FUND FOR THE RELIEF OF WIDOWS AND CHILDREN OF DECEASED CLERGYMEN.

The Committee appointed at the last convention to consider the insufficiency of the Fund for the Relief of Widows and Children of Deceased Clergymen to meet the claims upon it, respectfully reports as follows:

This fund has not been sufficient for years to meet the claims annually made upon it. One obvious reason for this has been that Section 5, Canon XX, has been neglected by many parishes, so that the amount of the annual collection has been much smaller than it would have been if the collection had been taken up in every parish. Last year, in spite of the urgent special appeal sent out by the Trustees, offerings were received from only one hundred and ten of the two hundred and forty congregations in the diocese. Another reason seems to have been that while the Widows' Children's Fund is administered by the corporation known as the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of New York, it is entirely distinct and separate from the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund, and the corporation is obliged to administer it as such. Although attempt has been made in the report of the corporation to make this clear, yet the fact that the corporate title only embraces the words "Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen" and the knowledge of the fact that the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund as distinguished from the Fund for the Relief of Widows and Children of Deceased Clergymen has sufficient means to meet the demands upon it, have doubtless had the effect of decreasing the collections and donations applicable to the Widows' and Children's Fund. In the Convention of 1907 a resolution was passed approving the action of the Trustees that year in transferring funds from the income account of the Clergy Fund to that of the Widows' and Children's Fund to meet a deficit in the latter, and the Trustees then urged upon the convention the amendment of Section 5, of Canon XIX, by giving the corporation the discretion to apply the surplus income of the Fund for the Relief of Aged and Infirm Clergy to the needs of the beneficiaries of the Fund for Widows and Children of Deceased Clergymen. The Committee on Canons, to whom this resolution was referred, reported at the Convention of 1909 that the Convention of the Diocese had no power to authorize the diversion of either the capital or the income of either fund from its specific object to the object intended to be promoted by the other fund.

At the last Convention a resolution was passed authorizing and requesting the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergy of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of New York to take proceedings in the Supreme Court of the State of New York to obtain an order of the court authorizing the transfer of surplus income from the Clergy Fund to the Widows' Fund. Your Committee is informed that proceedings have accordingly been taken, but no relief can be expected from this source for some time even if the proceedings should be successful, a matter about which there is considerable doubt.

Reference to the report of the Widows' and Children's Fund will show that $8,101.68 were paid last year to the beneficiaries of the Fund, and that to do this the principal had to be drawn on. This amount is only 75% of the benefits prescribed, and it is therefore evident that $10,800 would be required this year to make normal payments. As the revenue from interest on investments is only about $750 a year, it is clear that full payments can only be made either by a large increase in the church collections and donations or by drawing on the principal. The latter proceeding is strongly to be deprecated, as it is most desirable that an endowment shall be built up which will enable the full benefits of the fund to be given without special appeals for the canonical offertory for this object.

Your Committee make the following recommendations:

I. That the Clergy be directed to read the notice sent out by the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of New York of the annual offertory for the fund at once of the services on the Sunday before Thanksgiving Day or Christmas Day so that the needs of the Widows' and Children's Fund may be made known to every congregation in the Diocese; and also be requested to use every effort to obtain a more than usually liberal response to the appeal.

II. That legacies and donations be asked to build up the Widows' and Children's Fund until an adequate endowment for it be provided.

Respectfully submitted,

ERNEST C. SAUNDERS,
ROBERT L. HARRISON,
ROBERT W. B. ELLIOTT.

Dr. Saunders offered the two resolutions appended to the report.

Which were adopted.

The Chair declared a recess while the elections were being held.

The Chair declared the polls closed and the Convention resumed its session.

The Rev. Dr. Nichols offered the following amendment, which was referred to the Committee on the Dispatch of Business:

Add to proposed Rule of Order No. V, Section 7, "provided that the election of Provisional Deputies to the General Convention be not held till after the names of the Deputies elected shall have been announced."

The Rev. Dr. Gates moved the following amendment, which was referred to the Committee on the Dispatch of Business:

To add to Section 8 of Rule V. of the Rules of Order: "Report of the New York Training School for Deaconesses."

Mr. William Jay presented the following Report:

REPORT

OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE PAROCHIAL FUND OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN THE DIOCESE OF NEW YORK.

The Trustees of the Parochial Fund respectfully report that during the year 1910-1911 they have held three meetings. As heretofore they have made appropriations from the income of invested funds to six Clergymen of the Diocese in active service whose incomes derived from the parishes they serve are below $600 per annum.

They have during the year made additional grants to three Clergymen who would have been unable without this assistance, to continue in active service so inadequate to their support was the compensation received from their respective Cures.

Again the members of the Board have especial pleasure in reporting to the Convention that this year, as for six years past, they have been enabled to act favorably upon every application received by them for assistance from the Parochial Fund.

In addition to the Stipends given to the regular beneficiaries, and the special appropriations made, the Board this year set apart from its annual income $635 to be used as a Vacation Fund for Clergymen whose parishes were unable to make parochial provision for this purpose.

A Special Committee appointed by the Board of Trustees made this year a distribution of the Sustentation Fund in accordance with the terms of the resolution adopted by the Convention of 1908-1909. For the present Conventional Year they received from contributions from parishes in the diocese to October 2nd, $5,268.30, this amount includes, however, $298.78 balance from last year, and interest on bank balance $50.90, and an advance of $300 from the Rt. Rev. Charles S. Burch. (This advance was repaid Bishop Burch on October 26th, from subsequent contributions). A distribution of the Fund was made to twenty-nine Clergymen. Nine Parishes additional to those which met the requirements of the resolution of the Convention of 1908-1909 were entitled to the assistance of the Committee, and the funds at their disposal enabled them to distribute 50 per centum of the amount to which the respective beneficiaries were entitled.

For the Conventional Year 1909-1910, however, the sum of $6,479 was distributed to twenty-eight Clergymen, or two-thirds of the amount to which they were entitled. For the year 1908-1909, $6,560 was divided among twenty of the Clergy of the Diocese whose cases met the requirements of the resolution of the Convention of that year. In other words, the amount distributed the third year after the action of the Convention of 1908, is approximately $1,292 less than the first year the collections of the Sustentation Fund were distributed.

The Board of Trustees of the Parochial Fund would therefore most respectfully ask the privilege of quoting from their report to the Convention of a year ago, and again request the Committee on Inadequate Salaries to urgently impress upon the Parishes their obligation to the Diocese of taking the annual collection for this purpose. Only those who are familiar with the self-sacrificing lives lived by many Clergymen (who cannot with proper self-respect bring their claims publicly before the Church), can speak with adequate emphasis as regard this exigent claim upon our interest and loyal support.

The Committee has made as equitable a distribution of the Fund as was within its power, considering the increased number of beneficiaries entitled to the appropriation for the current year.

The Annual Report of the Treasurer is herewith appended.

The term of office of Mr. George A. Crocker, Jr., and Mr. R. Fulton Cutting expired on October 1st. The Trustees suggest that the Secretary of the Convention be requested to cast a ballot for Mr. George A. Crocker, Jr., to succeed himself, and also a ballot for Mr. Stephen Baker to succeed Mr. Robert Fulton Cutting, who asks to be relieved from service because of many pressing engagements.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM JAY, President.

WALTER THOMPSON, Secretary.

NEW YORK, November 4, 1911.

The Trustees of the Parochial Fund of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of New York, New York City.

SIRS:

We have made an audit of the accounts of your Treasurer, Mr. George A. Crocker, Jr., for the fiscal year ended with the close of business on Monday, the second (2nd) day of October, A. D. 1911; and the result of the examination are herewith presented in two Exhibits and one Schedule, as follows:

Exhibit "A." General balance sheet at the close of business, October 2nd, 1911.

Exhibit "B." Cash receipts and disbursements for the year ended with the close of business, October 2nd, 1911; showing balances of the several funds at the beginning and end of the period.

The books and accounts have been carefully kept and extended comment seems to be uncalled for; but for your consideration, it is suggested that the general convenience might be better served by keeping your cash in two bank accounts: one to contain solely those funds which form a part of the principal of the various trusts, and the other, to be devoted exclusively to the care of the income.

It will be observed that, on October 2nd, ultimo, there was on deposit in cash the sum of $2,476.81 belonging to the principal of the different trusts, which was earning only the interest allowed by the bank. This could undoubtedly be invested to better advantage, and the income prorated among the several funds, as their interests should appear.

The balance shown to the credit of the Sustentation Fund included an advance of Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00) from the Right Reverend Charles S. Burch. This advance was repaid to Bishop Burch on the twenty-sixth (26th) day of October last.

Our certificate is appended next hereto.

Respectfully submitted,

DIXCY AND BOGGS.

Certificate.

We have examined the books and records of the Treasurer of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of New York for the fiscal year ended with the close of business on the second (2nd) day of October, 1911. All cash receipts as shown by the cash book have been deposited in the bank; all disbursements have been compared with the supporting vouchers and checks, and the bank balance at the close of business has been verified. The accuracy of the records in general has been thoroughly tested; and

We hereby certify that the accompanying Balance Sheet, showing a total liability for the Trustees of Ninety-seven thousand, four hundred twenty-two and 61-100 dollars ($97,422.61), is correctly compiled from the results of the examination, and that the books are in accordance therewith.

The Rev. G. A. Strong offered the following amendment which was referred to the Committee on the Dispatch of Business:

Amend the Rules of Order to provide a place for the appointment and report of the Committee on Diocesan Finance.

The Rev. Dr. Peters offered the following resolution, which was referred to the Committee on the Dispatch of Business:

Resolved, That the Committee on Dispatch of Business provide in the proposed scheme of business a place for the report of the Social Service Commission.

The Rev. Mr. Chalmers offered the following resolution, seconded by Bishop Courtney:

Whereas, The progress of the Kingdom of God is greatly impeded by the evils of the liquor traffic, and

Whereas, The family life of poor and rich alike suffers severely from the results of this traffic, and

Whereas, In the business world the great corporations and Railroad Companies seek to prevent their employees from patronizing the saloon, be it therefore

Resolved, That this Convention denounces the evils of the liquor traffic and is in sympathy with every movement for the restraining and abolishing the evil.

The Rev. Dr. Van de Water offered the following amendment, seconded by Dr. Manning:

That wherever the words "liquor traffic" occur the word "saloon" be substituted.

Which was accepted by Mr. Chalmers.

An amendment was proposed omitting the third preamble, which was accepted by Mr. Chalmers.

Mr. F. C. Huntington moved to amend as follows:

And further resolved, that it be referred to the Social Service Commission to report ways and means effectively to fight against the said evils.

Which was adopted.

The Report of the Committee on Canons was made the special order for to-morrow at 11 A. M.

The Secretary presented the following report:

REPORT

OF THE COMMITTEE ON INADEQUATE SALARIES OF THE CLERGY.

The Committee on Inadequate Salaries of the Clergy, begs leave respectfully to report as follows:

To pay Twelve hundred ($1200.00) dollars to each unmarried clergyman and Fifteen hundred ($1500.00) dollars to each married clergyman, according to the resolution of the Convention of 1908, would require a little more than $9,000.00. In no year has the Committee been able to collect that amount. Moreover, your Committee is now convinced, after three years' experience, that in many cases the sum given for the Inadequate Salaries of the Clergy is deducted from the amount contributed to Diocesan Missions. It therefore believes that the situation is one which calls for the attention of the Diocesan Board of Missions. Can we pay a living salary to all the Clergy of this Diocese? If we cannot (and at present we are not doing so), either the number of missions must be reduced or the income of the Diocesan Board be increased. But even then there remains the problem of the Rectors who are receiving inadequate salaries. Both these problems your Committee feels itself unable to deal with and it therefore offers the following resolutions:

FIRST. Resolved, that the matter of Inadequate Salaries of Rectors be referred to the Bishop and the Standing Committee.

SECOND. Resolved, that this Convention reaffirms the obligation of every parish to take, on or before January 1st, 1912, a collection to supplement the fund for the Inadequate Salaries of the Clergy and that the money so collected be sent to Mr. George A. Crocker, Jr., 99 John Street, Chairman of the Committee of the Parochial Fund.

THIRD. Resolved, that the whole question of the Inadequate Salaries of the non-parochial Clergy be referred to the Diocesan Board of Missions, with the respectful suggestion that they consider seriously adding to the amount of the apportionment upon parishes for Diocesan Missions the sum needed to insure a living salary for the Clergy.

FOURTH. Resolved, that this report be accepted and that the Committee be discharged from the further consideration of the subject.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

LEIGHTON PARKS,
CHARLES HOFFMAN,
HUGH BRICKHEAD.

Bishop Courtney moved that the matter be postponed until after 11 A. M. to-morrow.

Which was adopted.

The Convention then adjourned until Thursday at 10 A. M.

SECOND DAY.

Thursday, Nov. 9, 1911..

Morning Prayer was said in the Cathedral by the Rt. Rev. C. S. Burch, D.D., and Dean Grosvenor.

The Bishop of the Diocese took the Chair, and the minutes of the preceding day were read and approved.

HAMILTON L. HOPPIN } Inspectors.

And the Chair announced that the following persons, having received a concurrent majority of both orders, were duly elected Deputies to the Federate Council:

Rev. Charles F. Canedy, D.D.	Mr. Elihu Chauncey.
Rev. Robert V. K. Harris.	Mr. W. Bayard Cutting.
Rev. A. H. Judge	Mr. Irving Grinnell.
Rev. Herny Mottet, D.D.	Mr. Henry Lewis Morris.
Rev. G. Ashton Oldham.	Mr. Harry C. Barker.
Rev. John P. Peters, D.D.	Mr. Andrew C. Zabriskie.
Rev. Wm. J. Seabury, D.D.	Mr. Douglas Merritt.
Rev. Wm. R. Thomas, D.D.

The Rev. Dr. Peters offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That Canon XI. be referred to the Committee on Canons to report to the next Convention on the expediency of abolishing said Canon, and making necessary changes in other Canons and rules of order as may be necessary in consequence.

Which was referred to the Committee on Canons.

On motion it was resolved the ballot be dispensed with and Mr. C. F. Roe be declared elected Deputy to the Federate Council.

Which was adopted.

Dean Grosvenor offered the following amendment to Canon II., which was referred to the Committee on Canons:

Add to Section 10 after the words:

"In the form prescribed by Sections 7 and 8 of this Canon" the words:

"These certificates must be sent to the Secretary at least one week before the opening of Convention."

Mr. Charles H. Russell offered the following resolution, which was referred to the Committee on Canons:

Resolved, That the Committee on Canons be requested to consider what further amendments of the Canons and Rules of Order, if any, are necessary, in order to carry into effect the recommendations of the Committee on the Wider Distribution of Official Positions approved by the Convention of 1910, and to report to the next Convention.

The Rev. Dr. Van Kleck moved that the house sit as a Board of Missions.

Which was adopted.

The Report of the Archdeacon of Orange was presented.

REPORT

The Archdeacon of Orange respectfully reports:

That the conventional year has been marked with encouragement in the prosecution of the Missionary work, and also in the financial condition of the Treasury. The stipends have been provided for, and paid in full when due. Our Treasurer's report is appended, exhibiting a summary of receipts and expenditures.

The Summer work at Callicoon and Long Eddy, Sullivan County, was greatly blessed, as well as that of the whole year at Greenwood Lake, Orange County. At the latter place a large class numbering over twenty was confirmed by Bishop Burch in May. The much needed Parish building in the heart of the village of Greenwood Lake is rapidly advancing to completion, and a portion of it may be in use by Thanksgiving Day. This means progress, and meets an imperative demand.

At Monroe, Orange County, there is also a marked increase in interest.

Services were conducted as usual at Mead's Mount, in the Catskills, Ulster County, for thirteen Sundays during the season.

At Monticello, Sullivan County, the new house erected last year for Parish purposes has entirely justified the expected results.

Rosendale, Rifton Glen and Bloomington, Ulster County, under the Rev. J. G. Cameron, make satisfactory reports.

The new Church at New Paltz, Ulster County, the seat of a State Normal School, is well attended, and is much appreciated by Church students preparing to be teachers. A larger number than usual of pupils belonging to our Church is in attendance this Academic year. At Ellenville, High Falls, Stone Ridge and Milton our missionaries are doing their usual effective work.

This year marks the twenty-fifth anniversary of continuous and faithful service at the same station of the Rev. Uriah Symonds of Port Jervis. During that period a handsome and convenient Church, well furnished and equipped, has been erected, and the value of Church property largely increased.

It is with deep regret the Archdeacon announces the death of the Rev. Peter Claude Creveling, for over sixteen years the faithful and efficient Secretary of the Archdeaconry. To him the Diocese owes a debt of gratitude, for, without compensation, he willingly accomplished valuable work in the interests of the Church. As his successor, the Rev. W. J. C. Agnew, of Stone Ridge, has been elected.

A list of Missionaries and stations is herewith appended, and also the report of the Treasurer.

Respectfully submitted,

W. R. THOMAS

Archdeacon for the Archdeaconry of Orange.

Treasurer.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y.

To the Diocesan Board of Managers:

The Archdeaconry of Westchester has had a year of good work, with Missions and Stations fully served and financial obligations freely met. The new Canon of Finance seems to have worked admirably, and as far as we know, most of our Parishes have responded to its demands. It certainly places the responsibility for the conduct of Diocesan Missions where it rightfully belongs, upon the whole Diocese. We in the country have always been grateful for the generous support of the city, but we fear that it has too often come from a few Parishes or from special appeals to individual Churchmen as urgent needs required.

WESTCHESTER COUNTY.

We would report that the Vicar of Zion Chapel, Hastings-on-Hudson, Rev. Mr. Archbold, has had a hopeful year in the presentation of twenty-seven candidates for confirmation, increasing interest in the services at Sunday School, and zealous work in every department of service. Two thousand dollars are in hand for the purchase of a site for a new Church. Mr. Archbold, at my request, has taken charge of Nepera Park, a small hamlet where the Church was placed some years ago at a time when the place seemed to warrant it. Conditions changed, and left the Chapel feeble, but the outlook is now brighter.

St. John's Tuckahoe, is prospering under the able administration of Rev. Henry T. Wayne. The old Parish, with Church on the hilltop, is renewing its youth, with the rapid increase of houses all about and the fine spirit of Rector and people.

St. John's, Pleasantville, under Rev. Stephen F. Holmes, continues to grow. An active Men's Club adding their efforts to those of the Woman's Guild, so useful for years, is giving great help to Parish endeavor. For many years this Parish has been on our list for aid. Now, on January 1st, they are to relinquish their stipend and become self-supporting.

St. Mark's, Tarrytown, the Rev. Charles A. Ashmead, Rector, holds its own and more. This year the dignified stone Church, sadly needing repairs, within and without, has been put in excellent condition. Mr. Ashmead, from friends outside the Parish, secured $5,346. With this he has done all that is required, including repairs to the Rectory, installing electric light and steam plant to heat Church and Parish House. The Parish has no wealth, but the members are growing, and we think the future will bring added growth and influence.

St. Augustine's Church, at Croton, under the charge of Rev. Mr. Howell for two years, with the help of Rev. Dr. Ulmann, is being fruitfully served, and awaits the people who will surely come ere long. In July Mr. Howell felt obliged to resign, and Rev. A. C. Stewart is acting as locum tenens until a Rector may be had.

All Saints's, Harrison, Rev. George K. MacNaught, Priest in charge, has had a good year, the best, without doubt, and the most encouraging in its existence. The results are not large, but are not to be looked for until the town develops. But such devoted fidelity on the part of Mr. MacNaught, and such loyal and constant response from his people cannot fail to make All Saints a benediction to the community. Regular services in the Swedish language have been given by Rev. Mr. Hammarskold during the year in St. John's Chapel, Yonkers, St. Thomas's Church, Mamaroneck, St. Mark's Chapel, Tarrytown, and occasional services at Brewster, Patterson and Scarborough. Mr. Hammarskold has preached seventy-nine times, gave sixteen addresses, celebrated the Holy Communion seventeen times, baptized eight children, solemnized five marriages and officiated at ten funerals. We esteem it a great privilege to assist even in a small way in the consecrated service of this man of God.

St. John's, Lewisborough, and St. John's, South Salem, have been placed, with the consent of the Bishop, under the care of a Lay Reader, Mr. Stephen E. Keeler, and he is doing an excellent work. Rev. J. Newton Perkins administers Holy Communion at the Churches. There have been two lately organized missions for colored people. The first at Mount Vernon, under Rev. Newton Peart, and the second at Yonkers, which Mr. Gunthorpe, a Postulant of Holy Orders, serves acceptably, and the members are under great stress and strain, all making earnest endeavors for life and service. They are doing well, giving to the extent of their ability, and deserve the sympathy and assistance of the faithful.

ROCKLAND COUNTY.

The Mission and Churches of Spring Valley, New City and Pearl River are very active, and diligently served under Rev. Albert T. Keane. The administration of these missions is most laborious, but Mr. Keane meets his duties with cheerfulness and zeal.

Rev. William A. Masker gives willing service to Jones Point, with an occasional afternoon office at Congers; and to meet certain legal requirements, holds service at Grace Chapel, Tompkins Cove, at stated periods. His offices are warmly appreciated by the Archdeaconry.

Our veteran Missionary of Rockland, Rev. Thomas Stephens, though in his 82nd year, and Rector Emeritus of St. John's, New City, does not lose his life long devotion or cease to labor as he may. He is constantly supplying service—and with pathetic compassion. He often ministers to old, lonely inmates of the County Almshouse. They love him as a father, and anticipate his visits with keenest pleasure. God bless and cheer him in his advancing age, and make his last days his best days.

PUTNAM COUNTY.

The Church of the Holy Communion, Lake Mahopac, the Mission at Richardville, and the Church at West Somers, under the ministry of Rev. J. O. Davis, fare well in their difficult and onerous administration.

The Church property in these Missions is in fine condition, the spiritual work is done with conscientious fidelity, and there are abundant signs of hope and encouragement.

Christ Church, Patterson, served by the Rev. W. H. Meldrum, met with a sad loss in the burning of the Parish Church last February. The loss of the building was fully covered by insurance, and the Rector and his people have bravely met the situation and are building a new Church. The work at Patterson of late years has been somewhat affected by loss of population and change in the complexion of it. But Mr. Meldrum is doing his best to keep up the interest and the work.

I cannot end this report without a word about the late Golden Jubilee of the Rev. Franklin Babbitt, Rector of Grace Church, Nyack, Rockland County. This Rectorship of fifty years has been remarkable in the character, life and ministry of Mr. Babbitt, and the material and spiritual work done. The Diocese may well give most high praise and hearty thanks for the wonderful grace and virtue of this living Saint. As you may know, Mr. Babbitt erected a Temple for his God. The Rector's heart and soul, with chaste ideals and cultured taste; the Rector's means and labors were built with every progressive move, until the Church, as we see it, and the finished Temple, which his people and the whole Diocese rejoice in, was reared to the glory of God and for the life, growth and saving of souls. Laus Deo for the precious life and ministry of Franklin Babbitt and for the Church which stands in Nyack, a thing of beauty, a temple glorious, a sacred shrine for the reverent worship of Almighty God. May this noble priest stand for many years to come, if God will, at his Altar to serve his people with the joy of service, and grateful remembrance of all the dear Lord has permitted him to do for Him in his long and faithful ministry.

With thankfulness to God for the mercies bestowed on the work of the Archdeacon, and with deep appreciation to all who have worked and given.

We would respectfully report.

FREDERICK B. VAN KLEECK,

Archdeacon of Westchester.

The Archdeacon of New York presented the following report:

REPORT

OF THE ARCHDEACON OF NEW YORK.

The past year has not been marked by any notable events, but none the less a steady forward movement has been made by our Archdeaconry Missions. These little ones among the mighty have been gradually strengthening their stakes, even if they have not perceptibly lengthened their cords. Like others of the small Bronx plants which have become big and strong enough to be incorporated as parishes, they have had the advantage of a favorable environment. Of course, some parts of the large borough above the Harlem River, particularly those convenient to rapid-transit facilities, grow up more rapidly than others; but while some of the conditions under which mission work is carried on are more encouraging than others, it may safely be said that all parts of the field are fruitful and promising.

One of the best evidences of the healthy growth which is noticeable all along the line is found in the fact that the people of the several Missions are bearing their share of the current expenses, and cheerfully learning the lesson of self-reliance in its relation to their preparation for parochial independence. It is particularly interesting to recognize in these beginnings of new parishes the goodly proportion of families that have come together in places of worship near their new-found homes, from churches and chapels in lower and more congested parts of the city from which the attractions of the Bronx have drawn them. And this is a reminder that much of the good seed of faith which produces rich harvests in our Mission field has been sown in other places. It is also a reminder to churches and chapels in Manhattan that in helping any one of the Bronx Missions they may be giving good cheer to the new spiritual home of some of their former parishioners.

At St. Stephen's Chapel, Woodlawn, the Rev. Percival McIntire has continued on duty as the missionary in charge. The edifice is an attractive one, and stands on a spacious corner lot. There is still a mortgage, however, of $4,000 on the property, which the trustees were obliged to incur in order to complete the work of construction. The communicants number one hundred and thirty, including eight persons recently confirmed. The Sunday School has eighteen teachers and one hundred and twenty-six scholars. The organizations include an Altar Guild, Men's Club, Woman's Guild, Young People's Guild, and an Athletic Guild. Additions have been made to the Rectory Fund, which now amounts to $2,310. It is hoped that this sum may soon be increased, in order to provide sufficiently for the construction of the much needed rectory.

St. George's Chapel, Williamsbridge, the Rev. Arthur Ketchum in charge, has a fine edifice and rectory complete. During the summer the Rev. Thompson P. Edge, D.D., officiated. Twenty-four candidates were confirmed last spring. Eight teachers and one hundred and twenty scholars are on the Sunday School roll. Some indication of the activities at the Chapel is furnished by the following list of its auxiliary organizations: St. Mary's Altar Guild, St. Agnes' Guild, Men's Club, Woman's Guild, Daughters of the King, Young Men's League, The Crusaders, Knights of the Round Table, The Christ Child Guild, and the Dramatic Society.

The Rev. Kenneth A. Bray, Vicar of the Bronx Church House, remained in charge of the Chapel of the Holy Spirit until July 1, and was then succeeded by the Rev. R. H. Wevill, who had formerly rendered excellent service there. Mr. Bray's earnest and faithful ministry at this Chapel has won for him the grateful and loving appreciation of everybody in the little flock which he has so well shepherded. The building is of wood, and was formerly occupied by a Lutheran congregation. It was bought by a friend of the Mission, who still retains the title. The Lutherans are now building a large stone church with a parish house, in the same street, within a block of the chapel. The Sunday School numbers twelve teachers and one hundred and sixty scholars. Nineteen persons were confirmed some months ago. The Brotherhood of St. Andrew, a Woman's Guild, and a branch of the Girls' Friendly Society are in good working order at this Chapel.

Mr. James H. Falconer, Lay Reader has added another year of usefulness to the admirable record of service which he has made at the Chapel of the Atonement, with which he has been connected since the beginning of its interesting history. The Rev. James A. Skinner is the celebrant at the Holy Communion services. Seven persons were recently presented for confirmation.

This Chapel, built of wood, is well adapted to its uses, but a fund, now amounting to $800, has been raised by the people for the purchase of an adjoining lot. Trees and shrubs have recently been set out on the grounds. The basement is used by the Sunday School, numbering fifteen teachers and one hundred and sixty scholars, and by the Woman's Guild, the Boys' Club, and the Sewing Class.

St. Martha's is also a frame Chapel, with a large and well-lighted basement room. The Rev. Charles C. Harriman, Rector of St. Ann's Church, Morrisania, and his curates, have kindly maintained the work of this Chapel up to the first of June. During the summer temporary arrangements for clerical supplies were made.

On September 1st, the Rev. Percy R. Stockman entered upon his duties as the Missionary. To Miss Simpson, the resident Deaconess, the Chapel is greatly indebted for her zealous and efficient aid in furthering its usefulness. Sixteen persons were presented for confirmation during the past year. Twelve teachers and one hundred and eighty-seven scholars belong to the Sunday School, and the other organizations are the Altar Guild, Men's Club, King's Daughters, Woman's Guild, Boys' Club, and Girls' Club. The Archdeaconry Treasurer reports a balance of $289 on hand for the Chapel's expenses.

Emmanuel Mission continues to occupy a rented room, but new and better quarters are desired. The work during the past year has been carried on under the immediate direction of the Rev. Burton H. Lee, Rector of St. Ann's, Mo't Haven, assisted by the Rev. Daniel H. Verder and Mr. John Hamilton, Lay Reader, both also of St. Mary's Parish. Seven persons belonging to the Mission were recently confirmed. The Sunday School, with one hundred names on the roll, is as large as the space will accommodate. In the same room the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, the Woman's Guild, and the Sewing Class have their meetings. In this connection we congratulate St. Mary's on the good progress which has been made under the ministry of the present Rector, who has succeeded in paying off, during the past three years, $6,000 of the mortgage of $14,000 which confronted him when his rectorship began.

St. David's Chapel, Rev. Edward G. Clifton, Missionary, represents our work among our colored brethren. The building is at present only a large crypt waiting for its superstructure, but the legacy received from the estate of the Rev. Dr. Tiffany, now amounting, with interest, to $15,903.39, is available for the proposed improvements. The Missionary reports as follows: Four hundred and twenty-eight families; four hundred and two communicants; nineteen confirmed; fourteen teachers, and three hundred and twelve scholars in the Sunday School; offerings at church services, $773.75, and in the Sunday School, $57.25.

The new Mission of the Good Shepherd, Wakefield, Mr. Henry C. Evans, Lay Reader, in charge, still occupies a rented room. At present it represents forty-three families, thirty-five communicants, and a Sunday School of five teachers and thirty-six scholars. Although in its infancy, it has contributed a fund, now amounting, with interest, to $732.81, for the purchase of a permanent site in the same neighborhood, subject to approval by the Bishop and the Standing Committee.

It is noteworthy that church work among people of alien speech, especially among immigrants arriving at the port of New York, and among Italians living in so-called "colonies" in our tenement districts, has made a good forward movement, and is full of promise. In the heart of the largest of these Italian colonies, known as "Little Italy," St. Ambrose Italian Mission, the Rev. Carmelo Di Sano, Missionary, has presented one hundred and ninety-five persons for confirmation since its organization some five years ago. It has a Sunday-school membership of one hundred and ninety-eight; a Men's Club; Mother's Meeting; Woman's Guild; Young People's Guild; Boy's Club; Sewing Class; Penny Provident Fund, and Summer School. Its work among the children of the neighborhood is fortunate in having the co-operation of a band of Church women of generous spirit, known as the "Children's Club."

We are grateful debtors to the friends whose gifts of money have enabled us to go on with our work. We thankfully acknowledge also the following donations: From the Woman's Auxiliary, Church of the Holy Communion, two boxes of clothing, bedding, etc.; from a parishioner of the same parish, knit clothing for children; from the Needlework Guild, one hundred articles of clothing, etc.; from the Church of the Incarnation, a carpet for St. David's Chapel.

During the summer months 417 beneficiaries, mostly women and children, were sent into the country for fresh-air outings of one or two weeks, in addition to the usual number of excursions.

The Bronx Church House has continued its beneficent work on the large scale to which it is so admirably adapted. It is constantly giving timely help to neighboring parishes and missions that may be in need of it, by giving them the benefit of the services of clergymen and deaconesses of its staff of workers. Representing the Church House Foundation, its expenditures for the salaries of such helpers during the past year amounted to over $4,000. The following is the approximate membership which the busy organization under its roof includes: Men's Club, 360; Boys' Club, 180; Clubs for Older Girls, 450; Clubs for Younger Girls, 200; Kindergarten, 60.

We beg leave again to remind our brethren of the clergy and laity that this Archdeaconry can make a wise use of its opportunities to help on the work of church extension, only so far as it is favored with their sympathetic interest and active support.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE F. NELSON,

Archdeacon of New York

The following Report of the Archdeaconry of Richmond was presented:

REPORT

OF THE ARCHDEACONRY OF RICHMOND.

Several changes have taken place in the personnel of the Archdeaconry. The Church of the Holy Comforter, Eltingville, has been in charge of Mr. Samuel H. Wood, a student of the General Seminary, for the past two years. Mr. Wood did excellent work, but has been obliged to resign his post. The Rev. John C. Fair has, for the past two months, been in charge of the parish, but he is shortly to remove to Oklahoma. The Eltingville Parish should be a center from which to carry on a work through that whole section of the Archdeaconry, and as such is a place of considerable importance.

Owing to the continued illness of the Rector of St. Stephen's, Totentville, the Rev. English Crooks has been placed in temporary charge. A large class has been prepared for confirmation, and the work presents a most encouraging outlook.

The Rev. R. H. Herron has, unfortunately, been obliged to resign the Rectorship of Trinity Church, New Dorp, owing to failing health, after a most helpful ministry of about two years, in which he had endeared himself to a large circle of friends. New Dorp presents an attractive field, and with its growing population and fine Parish House, should grow into a strong parish.

All Saints', Mariners' Harbor, is doing well under the faithful care of the Rev. W. W. Mix; and St. Simon's, Concord, finds in the Rev. George F. Langdon a faithful and energetic pastor. There are other points in the Archdeaconry which should have regular service. With the re-organizing of the work under the new Archdeaconry organization of the Diocese, work at these points may be undertaken, and the Italian Mission be more vigorously prosecuted than has been heretofore possible.

RALPH McKEE,

The following Report of the Archdeaconry of Dutchess was presented:

REPORT

OF THE ARCHDEACONRY OF DUTCHESS

The Executive Committee of the Archdeaconry of Dutchess respectfully reports as follows:

The resignation of Dr. Ashton of his office as Archdeacon in October, 1910, was too soon followed by his death in the first week in January in the present year. His loss has been much felt, and his memory will long remain among the Missions which were under his care, as of one whose loving care and sympathy were never wanting in the discharge of his duties.

In accordance with the wishes of the Bishop of New York, no successor to the late Archdeacon has been chosen, in view of the probability of the passage of a new Canon re-arranging the boundaries of the Archdeaconries of the Diocese, and the Executive Committee has taken charge of the work.

There is little change to report in the work of the Archdeaconry, which has, of necessity, been somewhat restricted by the position of Archdeacon remaining unfilled during the year. Faithful work has been done by the missionaries in charge of Pleasant Valley, Hopewell Junction and Glenham. The Lay Reader at West Pawling Mission has also given services at Dover Plains. Pine Plains has been supplied by students from the General Theological Seminary during the year, but arrangements are being made for a clergyman to take charge until the new Archdeaconry of Westchester has been organized, and a permanent appointment can be made. The Rev. C. K. Gilbert kindly resumed charge of Lithgo during the year, which his increasing work at Millbrook had compelled him to give up, as the Executive Committee was unable to make other provision for it.

For the Executive Committee,

ERNEST C. SAUNDERS.

On motion the Board of Missions adjourned and the Convention resumed its session.

Bishop Courtney presented the following Report from the Committee on Canons:

The Committee on Canons, to which were referred certain proposed amendments of Canon XV., respectfully reports that it recommends the adoption of such amendments, which are as follows, viz.:

Resolved, That Canon XV. be amended as follows:

In Section 1, Paragraph 5, Line 3, by inserting the words: "such a sum as will be sufficient to meet" so that the Paragraph shall read as follows:

"The Treasurer also under such direction shall make an apportionment among the Parishes, Missions and Congregations of such a sum as will be sufficient to meet the amount apportioned to the Diocese for Domestic and Foreign Missions."

In Section 2, Paragraph 5, Line 2, by omitting the words: "apportioned to the Diocese" and substituting the words: "to be raised" so that the sentence to which such amendment applies shall read:

"The apportionment among the Parishes, Missions or Congregations of the amount to be raised for Domestic and Foreign Missions shall be made, etc."

In Section 2, Paragraph 3, Line 6, by substituting December for February.

Paragraph 4, Line 2, by substituting February for April.

Paragraph 4, Line 8, by substituting February for April.

Paragraph 4, Line 9, by substituting August for October.

In Section 3, Paragraph 1, Line 10, by substituting February for April.

So that the respective sentences to which such amendments apply shall read as follows:

"A notice of the amount of the current expenses and the assessment in the case of each Parish, Mission or Congregation shall be sent to the corporate authorities thereof before the first day of December," etc.

"The assessment so laid by the Treasurer shall be deemed to be confirmed unless before the first day of February the Board of Adjustment shall take action modifying or correcting the same."

"And each of them shall make payment of its assessment to the Treasurer in two equal installments, one on the first day of February and the other on the first day of August next ensuing."

"The Board of Adjustment shall certify this amount so determined to the Treasurer of the Diocese by the first day of February in each year," etc.

Bishop Courtney moved the adoption of the amendments, and they were adopted.

Bishop Courtney presented the following Report from the Committee on Canons:

The Committee on Canons, to which were referred the following proposed amendments of Canon XV, respectfully reports that the purposes of such proposed amendments appear to be in substance provided for by the proposed new Canon XIX, entitled: "Of the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society"; and it therefore recommends that no action be taken upon such proposed amendments at the present time.

Amend Canon XV by adding to Section 1, sub-section 4, the following:

(d) "Fund to supplement inadequate salaries of the clergy." Further amending Canon XV by adding two new sections numbered 5 and 6, as follows:

Section 5. "Any Parish, Congregation or Mission of the Diocese of New York in charge of a clergyman that is not able to pay a clerical salary of $1,200 to an unmarried man, or $1,200 and rectory or $1,500 without rectory to a married man, shall be entitled to aid from the Fund to supplement inadequate salaries of the clergy, provided, said Parish, Congregation or Mission shall make application to the Committee on Diocesan Finances on or before the first day of February in each year and file with the Committee a statement signed by the clergyman in charge and the Treasurer of its financial condition, and stating the amount it is able to pay towards the salary of its rector or clergyman in charge, whether he be married or unmarried, which sum must be at least $700 per year. Upon the receipt of this statement the Committee shall proceed to determine the amount of money necessary in each case on the basis of $1,200 for unmarried clergy and $1,200 and rectory for married clergy or $1,500 without rectory. The Committee shall then certify to the Treasurer of the Diocese the names of the clergy whose salaries are to be supplemented and the respective amounts."

Section 6. "It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to pay to each clergyman the amount voted to him by the Committee on the 15th day of November in each year."

Bishop Courtney, for the Committee on Canons, presented the following:

The Committee on Canons, to which was referred the proposed new Canon creating a Social Service Commission, respectfully recommends the adoption of such Canon, with the following changes, viz:

First: Omit the sentence: "This Commission shall be empowered to add to its numbers not more than four additional members."

The effect of this provision would be to create as members of a committee of this Convention persons as to whom the Convention would have no power of election or removal, and who would be entirely free from any responsibility to it. Their tenure of office might be permanent, in marked contrast to that of members of other committees under the system adopted by the Convention.

It is entirely within the power of the proposed Social Service Commission to associate with itself any number of outside persons, in important and public connection with its work, and thereby fully to secure the benefit of their co-operation, while avoiding the objections and difficulties which are involved in the proposition that the Commission shall be empowered to add to its number.

Second: Omit the sentence:

"The Commission shall elect its own officers."

The proposed new Canon has been drawn in the same form as the new Canon XI. ("Of Deputies to the Federate Council") and XII ("Of the Standing Committee") adopted by the Convention of 1910, in order to carry into effect the recommendations of the Special Committee on the Wider Distribution of Official Positions.

This form probably will be followed in the incorporation in the Canons, from time to time hereafter, of the principles of the Special Committee's report as applied to other committees. In neither of the two new Canons above mentioned is there any provision that the Committees referred to in them shall elect their own officers; and it is undesirable that such a provision should be included in the present case, as it would lead to the inference that the other committees do not have such power. And it is unnecessary, as the uniform practice is that each of the Committees elected by the Convention or appointed by the Bishop elects its own officers.

In case the proposed new Canon is adopted, the Committee recommends that it follow Canon XII and be numbered XIII and that the numbers of the subsequent Canons be changed accordingly.

CANON XIII.

The Social Service Commission shall consist of four clergymen and four laymen, to be elected by ballot. Within thirty days after the adjournment of the Convention of 1911 the members of the Social Service Commission who shall be elected by that Convention shall divide themselves by lot into four classes, one clergyman and one layman in each class, to hold office for terms of one, two, three and four years respectively, and until the election of their successors, and shall notify the Secretary of the Convention in writing of the result of such division. If after the expiration of forty days after the adjournment of the Convention the members of the Commission shall have failed so to notify the Secretary, he shall at once proceed by lot to divide the members of the Commission into classes as aforesaid, and they shall respectively hold their offices accordingly. At each succeeding stated Convention one clergyman and one layman shall be elected to hold their offices for four years.

All vacancies occurring in the said Commission shall be filled by the concurrent vote of its Clerical and Lay members until the next stated

Convention," when the vacancy shall be filled for the balance of the term. Except in the case of members chosen to fill vacancies until the next stated Convention no member shall be eligible to the Commission for one year after the expiration of his term of service.

The Rev. Dr. Cummins moved the adoption of the proposed Canon, and it was adopted.

Bishop Courtney, for the Committee on Canons, presented the following:

The Committee on Canons, to which was referred a proposed new Canon XIX, entitled, "Of the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society," in place of and in substitution for the present Canon XIX, entitled, "Of the Diocesan Missionary Society," respectively reports that it recommends the adoption of such new Canon, with the following changes, viz:

FIRST. In Section 4 (I) insert after the words: "There shall be a Board of Managers of the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society" the words: "which Board shall be also the Missionary Committee of the Diocese of New York."

The purpose of this addition is to preserve a corresponding important provision of the present Canon, which created the Diocesan Board of Managers.

SECOND. Add, at the end of the proposed new Canon, a section, to be numbered 5, as follows:

SECTION 5. The Diocesan Board of Managers and the several Arch-deaconries heretofore existing are authorized and directed to transfer and deliver to the Board of Managers of the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society all their property and records."

The Canon will then read:

CANON XIX.

Of the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society.

SEC. 1. All members of the Church in this Diocese shall be considered as constituting the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society.

SEC. 2. (I.) The Missionary and Church Extension work of the Diocese shall be conducted by the Diocesan Board of Missions and Church Extension.

(II.) The Convention shall be the Diocesan Board of Missions and Church Extension, and as such shall sit as often as the business of the Board may require.

(III.) The Bishop of the Diocese shall be ex-officio President of the Board.

(IV.) The Treasurer of the Diocese shall be ex-officio the Treasurer of the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to receive all funds for the Missionary and Church Extension work of the Diocese and to disburse the same under the direction of the Board of Managers.

SEC. 3. (I.) The Diocese shall be divided into three Archdeacons to be named respectively:

a. The Archdeaconry of New York, comprising the Counties of New York and Richmond;

b. The Archdeaconry of East Hudson, comprising the Counties of Westchester, Putnam and Dutchess;

c. The Archdeaconry of West Hudson, comprising the Counties of Rockland, Orange, Ulster and Sullivan.

(II.) The members of each Archdeaconry shall be the Clergy canonically resident within its limits, and three Lay Delegates of each parish and mission station, elected in such manner as the By-laws of the Archdeaconry may direct.

(III.) It shall be the duty of each Archdeacon, with the advice, assistance and co-operation of the Archdeaconry,

a. To search out the religious needs of his Archdeaconry and to conduct Missionary and Church Extension work within its limits;

b. To collect and preserve careful statistics of population, of the condition of communities, and of missionary work;

c. To provide for holding in each year at least two meetings of the Archdeaconry;

d. In the absence of the Bishop and, if there be such, of the Bishop Coadjutor and of the Suffragan Bishop to preside at all meetings of the Archdeaconry;

e. To make full and regular reports to the Bishop and to deliver copies thereof to the Archdeaconry and to the Board of Managers of the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society.

(IV.) It shall be the duty of each clergyman, unless prevented by grave and reasonable cause, to attend each meeting of the Archdeaconry, and there report all missionary work done in his cure.

(V.) The Bishop shall nominate, and, with the advice and consent of the respective Archdeacons shall appoint, the several Archdeacons. The appointment of an Archdeacon shall be for a period of five years and he shall be eligible for re-appointment. No Archdeacon while acting as such shall be Rector or settled Minister of any Church or Congregation.

(VI.) a. Each parish and mission station seeking aid from the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society shall make written application therefor, stating the number of contributors and the amount pledged or secured in the parish or station for the support of the minister, and all other facts necessary to a full understanding of the case.

b. Any mission station designated by the Missionary and Church Extension Society of the Diocese of New York may be organized by the Bishop, upon the application of residents in its neighborhood, and under the conditions laid down by the Canon "Of the Establishment and Boundaries of Parishes and Mission Districts."

c. The form of application shall be as follows:

To the Right Reverend.....

Bishop of New York.

We, the subscribers, baptised persons, residents in the Town of in the County of, New York, respectively request that we be duly received as a mission, under the authority and direction of the Diocese of New York, to be known as Mission, in the Town of

And we do hereby promise conformity to the authority of the Diocese, and to the Constitution and Canons, and the Doctrine, Discipline and Worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States and in the Diocese of New York, and we further pledge the sum of $..... to the support of the Minister for the first year."

d. Every application to the Bishop for the establishment of a Mission District under the provisions of the Canon "Of the Establishment and Boundaries of Parishes and Mission Districts" shall be accompanied by the approval of the Board of Managers of the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society.

(VII.) a. The appointment and removal of all Missionaries shall be vested in the Bishop.

b. Every clergyman receiving a stipend from the missionary funds of the Diocese shall make to the Archdeacon, in writing, a semi-annual report of his work, containing such information as the Board of Managers shall prescribe, and shall deliver a copy of the same to the Board of Managers.

SEC. 4. (I.) There shall be a Board of Managers of the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society, which Board shall be also the Missionary Committee of the Diocese of New York, consisting of the Bishop (who shall be Chairman ex-officio), the Suffragan Bishop, the three Archdeacons, the Treasurer of the Diocese, and two Presbyters and two Laymen elected by each Archdeaconry.

(II.) a. At its first meeting after the Diocesan Convention at which this Canon shall become operative, each Archdeaconry shall elect to the Board of Managers one Presbyter and one Layman to serve on the Board of Managers for one year, and one Presbyter and one Layman to serve for two years. Thereafter each Archdeaconry shall annually elect to the Board of Managers one Presbyter and one Layman, who shall serve for two years. No elected clerical or lay member of the Board of Managers shall be eligible for re-election for one year after the expiration of his term.

b. If any Archdeaconry shall fail to elect at the time appointed by this Canon one or more of its representatives to the Board of Managers, the Board of Managers shall have power to fill the vacancy from among the members of such Archdeaconry.

(III.) It shall be the duty of the Board of Managers:

a. To maintain and strengthen the Mission and Church Extension work of the Diocese;

b. To hold missionary councils and to issue missionary literature;

c. To plant the Church in new communities and among peoples of foreign tongues, subject to the provisions of the Canon "Of the Establishment and Boundaries of Parishes and Mission Districts;"

d. To create and carry out an efficient Church extension policy in all parts of the Diocese;

e. To preserve all reports received from the Archdeacons and Missionaries;

f. To make grants to poor parishes under such regulations as the Board may prescribe for the increase of inadequate clerical salaries, to the end that in this Diocese each unmarried clergymen may receive a salary of not less than $1,200 a year, and each married clergyman not less than $1,200 and a residence;

g. To meet monthly except in March, July, August and September, and at other times upon the call of the Chairman;

h. At its November meeting to audit the accounts of the Treasurer and to adopt and deliver to the Board of Missions and Church Extension an annual report containing the following items:

1. A statement of the missionary work done since last report.

2. The names of the Missionaries and stations.

3. An account of receipts and expenditures.

4. A list of the parishes contributing and of the sums contributed by each parish to the Diocesan Missions.

5. An estimate of the amount of funds needed for the Missionary and Church Extension work of the Diocese for the ensuing year.

6. Such other matters as may be deemed necessary.

i. To exercise during the recess of the Diocesan Board of Missions and Church Extension all the powers of the Board.

(IV.) Seven members of the Board of Managers, one of whom shall be the Bishop or the Suffragan Bishop, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. In the absence of the Bishop the Suffragan Bishop shall preside.

(V.) The Board of Managers are authorized and directed to procure themselves to be incorporated either under the corporation laws of the State of New York or by special Act of the Legislature, as they shall deem expedient, under the name "The Board of Managers of the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of New York," or such other name, if any, as they shall deem preferable, and shall provide that such corporation, besides any other powers which it may be entitled to exercise, shall have power to receive and administer gifts and legacies for Missionary and Church Extension work in the Diocese.

SEC. 5. The Diocesan Board of Managers and the several Archdeacons heretofore existing are authorized and directed to transfer and deliver to the Board of Managers of the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society all their property and records.

The Rev. Dr. Leighton Parks offered the following amendment to Section 4, sub-section 3, clause f:

Resolved, That the proposed Canon XIX Section 4 (f), be amended by inserting in lines 3 and 4 after the words "clergyman" the words "in charge of a parish."

Which was adopted.

Dr. Van Kleeck moved an amendment to Section 3 (1) b and c, by substituting for "West Hudson" the word "Orange" and for "East Hudson" the word "Westchester."

Which was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Manning moved that the Canon be adopted as a whole with the exception of Section 3, sub-section 5.

Which was adopted.

The Rev. Mr. Smithers moved that Section 3, sub-section 5 be adopted, and it was adopted.

Bishop Courtney moved that the Canon be adopted as a whole, as amended, and it was so adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Manning moved the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Cathedral of St. John the Divine in the City and Diocese of New York, being the Missionary Church of the whole Diocese, the trustees be and they are hereby requested, in accordance with the suggestion of the Bishop in his Convention Address, to make an appropriation, from the funds for the maintenance of the worship and work of the Cathedral, for the payment of the stipends of the Archdeacons as provided for in Canon XIX entitled, "Of the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society."

Which was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Leighton Parks moved that the Committee on Inadequate Clerical Salaries be discharged.

Which was adopted.

The Rev. Mr. Toop offered the following amendment to Canon XIV., Section 6:

Change to read: "Tentative missionary work authorized by the Bishop and the Board of Managers of the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society, may be prosecuted," etc.

Which was referred to the Committee on Canons.

Mr. Wainwright moved that the Report of the Committee on the Dispatch of Business be made the order of the day at 2 P. M., to be followed by the Report of the Commission on Social Service.

Which was adopted.

The Rev. Mr. Strong offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Bishop be requested to appoint annually, according to the recommendation of General Convention, a Diocesan Missionary Committee to secure the organization of Laymen's Missionary Committees in the parishes of the Diocese and to stimulate missionary interest and activity among them; such Committee to consist of the members of the Executive Committee of the Co-operating Committee of the Diocese of New York in the Laymen's Missionary Movement; and that the Bishop be also requested to designate three clergymen of the Diocese to act as advisers to this Committee from time to time as their services may be required.

Which was adopted.

The Chair appointed as such committee:

The Hon. Vernon M. Davis.

Mr. William E. Curtis	Dr. Herbert S. Carter.

Oct. 30, 1911.

Acting under the direction of the Committee on Diocese Finances the Treasurer of the Diocese notified, before Feb. 1, 1911, the corporate authorities of all the Parishes, Missions and Congregations of the Diocese of the assessments for the Episcopal Fund, the Diocesan Fund and Diocesan Missions, and also the amount apportioned for General Missions; at the same time inviting said corporate authorities to appear before the Board of Adjustment and show cause, if any, why said assessment and apportionment should be modified or corrected.

The Secretary of the Committee gave notice on Feb. 9, 1911, that the Board of Adjustment would meet March 1, 1911.

On April 1st a complete table of the assessments and apportionments as finally determined by the Board of Adjustment was printed and distributed to all the corporate authorities.

The amount thus finally determined for the assessment was $43,645.00, and for the apportionment $130,111.00.

The Treasurer of the Diocese, therefore, submits the following financial report:

The Secretary offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the amount to be required of the Diocese for the Diocesan Fund for the Convention Year 1911-1912 be $3,000.00.

Which was adopted.

The Convention took a recess until 2 P. M.

The Convention reassembled after recess at 2 P. M.

Mr. George Zabriskie moved that the Convention sit as a Board of Missions, which was adopted.

Mr. Zabriskie moved that the Board recommend to the Convention that $35,000 be required for the work of the ensuing year.

Which was adopted.

The Board of Missions adjourned and the Convention resumed its session.

Mr. Zabriskie moved that the Convention assess for Diocesan Missions $35,000, which was referred to the Committee on Diocesan Finance.

Mr. Morris offered the following resolution :

Resolved, That the Treasurer of the Diocesan Fund is hereby authorized to pay any assessments on the Diocesan House property already levied or hereafter to be levied by the City of New York; unless the said City of New York cancels such assessments without requiring payment.

Which was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Manning offered the following resolution :

Resolved, That the Committee on Canons be requested to recommend such changes in the Canons as may be necessary to give due and suitable recognition to the Bishop Suffragan of this Diocese.

Which was referred to the Committee on Canons.

Mr. Wainwright presented the Report of the Committee on Dispatch of Business and moved the adoption of the following Rules of Order :

RULES OF ORDER.

I. Every Convention shall be preceded by the Celebration of the Holy Communion and the Annual Address of the Bishop, or a Sermon, as the Bishop shall appoint; after which the Bishop, or in case of his absence or disability, the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, or if there be none, or in case of the absence or disability of the Bishop Coadjutor, the Suffragan Bishop, if there be one, or if there be more than one, the senior in point of consecration, or in case of his absence or disability, the next in order of consecration shall take the chair; but if there be no Suffragan Bishop present and able to act, the Convention shall elect a President.

II. The Secretary of the last Convention in giving notice of the Annual Convention shall request members and delegates to file with him in writing, within ten days after the receipt of such notice, any business they desire to bring before the Convention. He shall thereupon prepare a calendar of such business in the order of its receipt and shall cause the same to be printed and distributed among the members and delegates on or before the date of the Convention.

The Secretary of the last Convention also, or, in case of his absence, some other person appointed by the Chair, shall call the names of the Clergy entitled to seats.

III. He shall call the names of the Lay Delegates whose election has been certified in pursuance of Canon II., Section 10.

IV. The Chair shall then appoint a Committee of three persons, to whom shall be referred the credentials of the Lay Delegates, who shall report upon the correctness of the roll made by the Secretary.

V. A quorum being present, the Chair shall declare the Convention organized for business, which shall proceed in the following order:

1. The election of a Secretary, who shall have power to appoint three Assistant Secretaries.

2. The election of a Treasurer.

3. The appointment of members of six Standing Committees following, each of which Committees shall be composed of the number of clerical and lay members specified:

(a) On the Incorporation and Admission of Churches, two Clergymen and two Laymen, which Committee may report at any time during the session of the Convention;

(b) On the Diocesan Fund, two Clergymen and two Laymen, besides the Treasurer of the Convention, ex-officio;

(c) On the Treasurer's Report, three Laymen;

(d) On the General Theological Seminary, four Clergymen and four Laymen;

(e) On Canons, four Clergymen and four Laymen;

(f) On Miscellaneous Business, four Clergymen and four Laymen.

Any Standing Committee may meet during the intervals between Conventions, and may report to the succeeding Convention.

The members of the Committees on the Incorporation and Admission of Churches, on the Diocesan Fund, on the General Theological Seminary, on Canons, and on Miscellaneous Business, who shall be appointed at the Convention in 1911, at their first meeting, and within thirty days after the adjournment of the Convention, shall divide themselves by lot into classes of one Clergyman and one Layman in each class, one class to serve one year, and the others two, three and four years respectively, according to their number, and until the appointment of their successors and shall notify the Secretary of the Convention in writing of the result of such division. If after the expiration of forty days after the adjournment of the Convention the members of any Committee shall have failed to notify the Secretary, he shall at once proceed by lot to divide them into classes as aforesaid, and they shall respectively hold their offices accordingly. At each succeeding stated Convention the President shall appoint as members of each of the said Committees so many Clergymen and so many Laymen as those whose terms are expiring, to hold office for as many years as there are classes in such Committee. All vacancies occurring in the said Committees shall be filled by the concurrent vote of their Clerical and Lay members until the next stated Convention, when the vacancy shall be filled for the balance of the term. Except in the case of members chosen to fill vacancies until the next stated Convention no member shall be eligible to the same committee for one year after the expiration of his term of service.

4. Reference to Standing or Special Committees of such business as shall have been filed with the Secretary and appears on the calendar.

5. Introduction and Reference of resolutions and motions not on the calendar but which shall be added thereto in the order of their introduction.

6. The appointment by the President of Inspectors of Election for the Standing Committee, for the Deputies to the Federate Council, for Deputies to the Missionary Council of the Second Department, and for the Deputies and for the Provisional Deputies to the General Convention; one Clergyman and one Layman for the clerical votes, and one Clergyman and one Layman for the lay votes of each election.

7. Election of the Standing Committee, the Deputies to the Federate Council, Deputies to the Missionary Council of the Second Department and the Deputies and the Provisional Deputies to the General Convention, provided that the election of Provisional Deputies to the General Convention be not held till after the names of the Deputies elected shall have been announced.

8. The Receiving and Referring of Reports, as follows:

(1) Report of the Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Churches, and the Admission of Parishes into Union with the Convention.

(2) Report of the Standing Committee.

(3) Report of the Committee on Finance.

(4) Report of the Trustees of the Estate and Property of the Diocesan Convention of New York.

(5) Report of the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen.

(6) Report of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund.

(7) Report of the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund.

(8) Report of the Standing Committee on the Treasurer's Report.

(9) Report of the Standing Committee on the Diocesan Fund.

(10) Report of the New York City Mission Society.

(11) Report of the Seamen's Church Institute of New York.

(12) Report of St. Stephen's College.

(13) Report of the Sunday-school Commission.

(14) Report of the Social Service Commission.

(15) Report of the Standing Committee on General Theological Seminary.

(16) Report of the New York Training School for Deaconesses.

These reports shall be presented by Title only unless otherwise ordered by the unanimous vote of the Convention.

9. Appointment and election of Trustees of the Boards named in the preceding Section.

10. Calendar of the day.

VI. On the second day, the order of business, after Holy Communion or Morning Prayer, shall be:

1. Reading and approving of the Minutes.

2. Receiving certificates of Lay Delegates not present before.
3. Calling the names of members not present on the first day.
4. Introduction and reference of business not on the calendar but which shall be added thereto in the order of introduction.
5. Unfinished calendar, if any, of previous day.
6. Report of the Missionary Committee of the Diocese.
7. Report of the Committee on Canons.
8. Reports of Special Committees.
9. Calendar.

VII. On the third and any subsequent day, the order of business, after Morning Prayer, shall be:

1. Reading and approval of the Minutes.
2. Receiving the certificates of Lay Delegates not present before.
3. Calling the names of members not present before.
4. Calendar.

VIII. The address of the Bishop, the Bishop Coadjutor or the Bishop Suffragan shall be in order at any time.

IX. Before the rising of the Convention, the Minutes of the last day's proceedings shall be read and approved.

X. The Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church, Clergymen belonging to this Diocese, but not entitled to seats in this Convention, Clergymen of other Dioceses, Professors and Students of Theology in the Protestant Episcopal Church, and all persons holding any office or trust under the Convention, if not members, shall be admitted to the sittings of the Convention.

XI. The hours of each day's session shall be from 10 a. m. to 1 p. m., and from 2 p. m. to 5 p. m., and, when ordered by the Convention, from 8 to 10 p.m.

XII. The mode of conducting the stated elections by ballot shall be as follows:

The Clergy and the Lay Delegates of the Parishes entitled to vote shall present their several ballots for each office to be filled to the inspectors, whose duty it shall be to take charge of the same, keeping a poll list of the votes, and, as soon as practicable, to canvass the same, and report the result thereof to the Convention. If, on any such report, it should appear that no valid election has been made in respect to all or any of the offices to be filled the poll shall again be opened, for the purpose of filling those which may remain vacant; and if such second vote shall not result in an election, further votes shall be taken until all the offices are filled or until the Convention shall otherwise order.

XIII. All new business introduced, except such as may accompany and form a part of the report of a committee, and shall be in the form of a motion or resolution and shall be in writing. Such new business shall be at once referred without debate by the President to an appropriate committee and shall be entered upon the calendar in the order of introduction.

Action shall be only on the report of such Committee unless by unanimous consent.

XIV. No member may speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the Convention, nor more than once in any case until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

XV. Every member present shall vote whenever a question is put, unless excused by the Convention on account of his being personally interested in the result, or for other cause.

XVI. Votes shall be taken by ayes and noes, and by orders, whenever called for by five members.

XVII. In taking a vote by orders, it shall be the right of any member of a delegation who may dissent from the vote of the majority of the delegation to have the fact of his dissent recorded on the Minutes.

XVIII. All Special Committees shall be appointed by the President, unless otherwise ordered.

XIX. Any rule of order may be suspended by the vote of not less than two-thirds of the members present. Any new matter introduced during such suspension may be explained by the mover in a statement of not more than five minutes but otherwise shall not be subject to debate or action until after report from the appropriate committee. No rule of order shall be changed or rescinded without one day's previous notice of a motion to that effect.

XX. Whenever in the Rules of Order provision is made for action by the Bishop, such action, in case of the absence or disability of the Bishop, shall devolve upon the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, but if there be none, or in case of the absence or disability of the Bishop Coadjutor, shall devolve upon the Suffragan Bishop, if there be one, or if there be more than one, shall devolve upon the senior in point of consecration, or in case of his absence or disability, shall devolve upon the other Suffragan Bishops in the order of their consecration, and shall devolve upon the Standing Committee or other authority or person in cases where provision is made for their action in the place of the Bishop, only in the event of the absence or disability of the Bishop or the Bishop Coadjutor and the Suffragan Bishop or Bishops, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate.

XXI. The general procedure of the Convention shall be governed by the rules of parliamentary practice as set forth in "Cushing's Manual."

Your Committee also recommends the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That four Inspectors of Election, not members of the Convention, be appointed by the Bishop and the Standing Committee at least two weeks before an election. They shall receive and canvass all votes cast at any election which is required to be by ballot, and, when such canvass is completed, shall immediately report its result to the Convention. They shall serve during the pleasure of the Convention, and shall be compensated for their services as the Bishop and Standing Committee may direct.

Mr. George Zabriskie moved to amend by striking out Report of Standing Committee in Rule V., Section 8 (2).

The Rev. Dr. Leighton Parks moved that the amendment be laid on the table, which was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Parks moved the adoption of the first Rule of Order, and it was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Parks moved the adoption of the second Rule of Order, and it was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Parks moved the adoption of the third Rule of Order, and it was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Parks moved the adoption of the fourth Rule of Order, and it was adopted.

Mr. W. E. Rogers moved that the amendment to Rule V. be taken from the table.

Which was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Parks moved the adoption of Rule V., the first seven sections, omitting Section 6, and they were adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Parks moved that Rule V., Sections 8, 9 and 10, be adopted, and they were adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Parks moved the adoption of Rule VI., and it was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Parks moved the adoption of Rule VII., and it was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Parks moved the adoption of Rule VIII., and it was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Parks moved the adoption of Rule IX., and it was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Parks moved the adoption of Rule X., and it was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Parks moved the adoption of Rule XI., and it was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Parks moved the adoption of Rule XII., and it was adopted.

Mr. W. E. Rogers moved that the words "unanimous consent" in Rule XIII be stricken out and the words, "by two-thirds vote" be inserted.

Which was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Parks moved the adoption of Rule XIII., and it was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Parks moved the adoption of Rule XIV., and it was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Parks moved the adoption of Rule XV., and it was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Parks moved the adoption of Rule XVI., and it was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Parks moved the adoption of Rule XVII., and it was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Parks moved the adoption of Rule XVIII., and it was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Parks moved the adoption of Rule XIX., and it was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Parks moved the adoption of Rule XX., and it was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Parks moved the adoption of Rule XXI., and it was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Parks moved that the following be inserted as Section 6 of Rule V.:

Four Inspectors of Election, not members of the Convention, shall be appointed by the Bishop and the Standing Committee at least two weeks before an election. They shall receive and canvass all votes cast at any election which is required to be by ballot, and when such canvass is completed, shall immediately report its result to the Convention. They shall serve during the pleasure of the Convention, and shall be compensated for their services as the Bishop and Standing Committee may direct.

Which was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Parks then moved that the Rules of Order be adopted as a whole, and they were so adopted.

Bishop Courtney presented the following resolution:

Resolved, That the amendment to resolution 4 of the Report of the Committee on the Wider Distribution of Official Positions (page 69, Journal of 1910), which was adopted, be rescinded, as it is found to be unworkable by the Secretary of Convention, and that said resolution 4 be adopted (pages 62 and 63).

Which was adopted.

Mr. Stephen Baker offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That $35,000 be raised for Diocesan Missions.

Which was adopted.

The Treasurer of Convention reported that the following amounts were to be assessed upon the parishes:

The Diocesan Fund	$3,000 00
The Episcopal Fund	17,000 00
Diocesan Missions	35,000 00
	$55,000 00

Which was referred to the Committee on Finance.

The Rev. Dr. Cummins presented the following Report:

REPORT

OF THE SOCIAL SERVICE COMMISSION.

"Social Service means the wise and comprehensive application to modern society in all its phases, economic, social and religious, of the great fundamental principles of Christian Brotherhood."—Bishop Greer.

"Social Service is an essential part of Missions."—John M. Glenn.

The Commission, believing that social service is a duty of the Church, aims to study the questions affecting social and industrial life; to keep in touch with the agencies interested in these and like matters; to bring the forces of the Church into close contact with vitally pressing issues; to help procure legislation for social betterment; to aid in creating an intelligent public opinion and to strive in every way to understand the problems of the present political, social and religious advance, as they are related to the teachings of Jesus Christ.

THE QUESTIONNAIRE.

In January (1911), the Commission issued a Questionnaire to the clergy of the Diocese, its purpose being to gather some definite facts and figures about the Church's work socially, and to solicit suggestions of how it could be more helpful in touching the problems of modern economic, social and religious life. We believed that the presentation of the Church at work in matters of social betterment, through the clergy and laity, through parochial and other organizations, would be stimulating; it would at least show whether the Church was alive to the issues of the day.

The Canonical statistics then showed that there were two hundred and fifty-five churches and chapels in the Diocese. After making various allowances two hundred were selected as being representative and typical. To the clergy in charge of these, a copy of the Questionnaire was sent. Forty-five replies were received. A second copy was mailed to the remainder of the two hundred and a sufficient number of the blanks were returned to make a total of sixty upon which to base observations. Some of this number did not answer all the questions; a few did not seem to understand the purpose of the Questionnaire itself nor to regard it as a sincere effort to ascertain facts. Others gave irrelevant replies, ranging far from the questions asked.

The neglect of one hundred and forty-two rectors to answer the Questionnaire may be due to many reasons. To enumerate them would be largely guess work. It is known that some were frankly opposed to being questioned at all along these lines. A few did not regard such activities, as the Questionnaire suggested, as within the sphere of the Church's work.

The Object: The Questionnaire was issued by the Social Service Commission of the Diocese for the purpose of ascertaining what agencies for Social Service are at work in the parishes of the Diocese, and the attitude of the parishes individually toward the whole question of Social Service.

We submit such facts and figures as we have been able to obtain in the summary of the Questionnaire. That analysis which is subjoined to the summary is based upon facts submitted and letters received.

SUMMARY OF THE QUESTIONNAIRE.

Number of clergy replying was sixty.

I.

Are you a member of any society or movement interested in social betterment?

60 answers. 11 No. 49 Yes.

II.

Are you a member of any department of your local city or village government, playground commission, Board of Education, etc.?

53 answers. 35 no affiliation. 14 Yes. 4 Indefinite.

III.

What work in your parish is undertaken under the general aim and purpose of the Commission?

42 answers. 14 None. 25 Definite work. 3 Indefinite.

IV.

Is your parish house, if you have one, a "socializing" agency in the community?

56 answers. 40 Yes. 16 No or not having a parish house.

V.

Have you a district nurse?

59 answers. 42 No. 5 Yes. 12 Partly interested.

VI.

Have you a neighborhood clinic?

52 answers. 41 No. 4 Yes. 7 Other agencies.

VII.

Have you any work among foreign-speaking people?

54 answers. 39 No. 15 Some kind of work.

VIII.

Have you classes in your Sunday School or other organization devoted to the study of social matters?

46 answers. 37 No. 9 Use various plans in clubs and Sunday Schools.

IX.

How often are subjects of civics and like interest brought before your people?

49 answers. 2 Never. 47 Frequently.

X.

Might we ask the names of such subjects in the last year?

32 do not answer. 26 give list of seventy titles.

XI.

Has your parish a committee on legislation ready for prompt action on legislative measures?

48 answers. 32 No. 16 Various agencies.

XII.

Are the men and women of your parish affiliated with national organizations for the improvement of working conditions of men, women and children?

44 answers. 24 Yes. 16 No. 4 Doubtful.

XIII.

Are you affiliated with any labor organization?

XIV.

How does your church try to actively supervise neighborhood recreation in winter or summer?

47 answers. 17 No. 30 Various agencies.

XV.

State in what ways you feel the Social Service Commission may prove effective to the Church in this Diocese?

XVI.

Is there any particular movement in which you believe the Church should take an active, practical interest?

26 answers with suggestions.

ANALYSIS OF THE QUESTIONNAIRE.

Frankly, the Questionnaire must be regarded with disappointment if it is to be gauged by the number of answers received. And it must also be said, that any observations upon the results gathered should be governed by what is current knowledge with regard to the activities of certain parishes and clergy from whom no replies were received. Several of the largest parishes of the Diocese returned no answers. The well known attitude of their clergy, however, would seem to indicate that they were not opposed to what the Commission believes is within the duty of the Church. The most hopeful fact to be gleaned from the actual replies, is in the suggestive program given the Commission itself.

The first inquiry sought to ascertain what societies and movements for social betterment received the special interest of the clergy. It showed that forty-four belonged to thirty different "social" organizations, with varied aims and purposes. Eleven did not belong to any, while five said "the Church" was the only society receiving their attention. Fourteen gave specific instances, in answer to another query, of active personal service in some local city or village organization such as bureaus of charities, health societies, boards of education, taxpayers associations, playground and art commissions, etc. Thirty-five answered, "no affiliation whatever," i. e., locally.

One of the questions was framed so as to discover how far the Commission's conception of the Church's message received parochial support; whether the clergy and laity were vitally interested in the Church's work in this respect, as a parochial matter. It was stated in the Questionnaire, at the beginning, that the Commission believed that social service is a duty of the Church; that she should study all questions affecting social and industrial life; she should keep in touch with the agencies interested in social service; she should bring her forces into close contact with the vitally pressing issues of the day; she should help to procure legislation for social betterment and create an intelligent public opinion striving in every way to understand the problems of the present political social and religious advance as related to the teachings of Jesus Christ. To the question based on this, seven gave no answer, fourteen said: "No work whatever," while some twenty-five indicated a sympathy with the expressed belief of the Commission, showing that every agency that could be brought to bear upon local and parish problems was employed. One felt "preaching the Gospel" was sufficient, another believed that a parish house should be used only as a "spiritual agency" or as a third put it, "for the sole use of the parish." For the most part other answers indicate that parish houses have become a means of influencing the community in a great variety of ways. These with the addition of simple effective teaching and instruction in and out of the pulpit are among the forces employed to spread a knowledge of the Church's position. About 50 per cent. of the replies show that the parish house may be a strong social factor. The variety of uses to which it is put would seem to show what an important adjunct it is to the Church's work.

A few of the clergy are alive to matters of local health; about twenty declared themselves supporters of district nurses, neighborhood clinics and other forms of sick relief and protection. Fifteen of the clergy out of the sixty have active work among five nationalities.

It is quite clear, that as yet, the Sunday School has not been used to the extent of its opportunities in the direction of "social teaching." Beyond an occasional Bible Class and some general teachings on the "Ten Commandments socially interpreted" there are few signs that the youth are taught systematically and directly about social matters. The need for manuals and text books within the range of the Sunday School scholar of the higher grades was commented upon.

A promising feature of the replies is the frequency with which subjects of civic and like interest are finding their way into the pulpit. By means of lectures, Lenten talks, through clubs and guilds, much instruction and information is given concerning social ills and remedies. Two did answer, "never are such subjects spoken of"; two more said "seldom," seven "frequently"; one found opportunity once during the year, while another used every sermon. But practically eighty per cent. of the answers show a desire to interpret in the spirit of the Gospel all the current problems and matters of passing interest. While thirty-two do not answer the question asking for the subjects presented to their parishes during the year previous, the remainder enumerated a remarkable list of over seventy different titles. Whether the specific inquiry was too pointed for the thirty-two who did not reply, of course cannot be stated, but the list of subjects has shown a wide range of topics for the preacher's use. It clearly demonstrates that there is no dearth of living issues to be presented to the congregations in which the clergy minister.

Three parishes have special "committees on legislation," ready to take prompt action on legislative measures menacing the community in any way. Five use the men's clubs for the purpose, while two have other organizations looking after such matters. Three rectors act in such a capacity for their parishes, one promises to have a legislative committee, while two have representative men acting in this way. One desires "no politics" in his parish.

Apparently few seem to know how far their parishioners are interested in national or state organizations for social uplift and betterment. We wonder if this is due to the lack of sympathy on the part of the clergy with such movements or the keener and wider interest of the laity, or the failure to understand just what the laity feel about such matters. One rector on investigation found that his people were concerned and actively interested in twenty-four different organizations and that the foremost leaders in his parish were the leaders in these societies.

Save in five specific instances there was a lack of definiteness in what particular movements the Church should be interested. One or two contented themselves with such general expressions as "preaching the Gospel of the sacrifice, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ to rich and poor" or "to preach the Gospel as in early days." The general sentiment of those responding was that nothing need be foreign to the Church and her ministry. Whatever is of men and concerns their welfare, no matter what form it takes, should be of vital and sympathetic interest. There was a frank declaration that the Church had not, or perhaps did not seem to have for some, an interest in such problems as labor and its issues. The work of the Presbyterians has apparently impressed many of our clergy as being well worthy imitation. The general theme of civic righteousness, that of children and their many problems, the liquor question, and the immigrant, are regarded as of prime importance.

No more helpful answers have been received than those which stated how the Commission itself might be of use to the Church here in the Diocese. There were some who stated freely they were not in the position to say what the Commission might do because they had not given the matter any attention hitherto. One felt that the important work of the Church was "to preach the fear of God and the certainty of eternal fire for such as disobey God." But the answers as a whole showed that there was a general demand on the part of the clergy for facts, which is at least one good result of this effort.

The following helpful suggestions were received:

1. The Commission should watch for vicious legislation and keep the whole Diocese informed as to impending crises in social matters. Not only the clergy but the laity should be informed.
2. It should supply the clergy and laity with reliable information regarding social matters and act as a source of supply for speakers and all kinds of material for the use of individual churchmen.
3. It should formulate a suggestive social program for different types of parishes within such a Diocese as New York.
4. It ought to urge upon the clergy the personal interest in and affiliation with the various organizations for social betterment outside of the Church.

5. It must do what it can to bring all the existing social agencies in the Diocese into sympathetic touch with one another.

In spite of the meagre number responding and the lack of definiteness on the part of some who used the Questionnaire, the tone of the majority replying is hopeful. Letters from some of the clergy indicated a sincere desire to do all that was possible along the lines that may be suggested by the Commission.

The substance of the sympathetic replies to the Questionnaire is this, "The Church should inspire every individual member to take an active, intelligent interest in all movements for social betterment."

SOCIAL SERVICE ADDRESS.

Through the courtesy of the Dean and an interested student body in the General Theological Seminary, (October to May, 1910-1911), the Social Service Commission of the Diocese of New York was able to introduce the following speakers at that institution of learning. The President of the Students' Missionary Society expressed great appreciation, and informed the Commission that the lectures were helpful and inspiring. They were as follows:

"The Ministry and Social Service," Mr. R. Fulton Cutting.

"The Russell Sage Foundation," Mr. John M. Glenn.

"The Layman and His Opportunity," The Hon. John K. Sague.

"Currents of Thought," Dr. I. Woodbridge Riley.

"Can the Church Be Socialized?" The Rev. Percy S. Grant, D.D.

Note: The articles on "The Ministry and Social Service" by Mr. R. Fulton Cutting, "Currents of Thought" by Dr. I. Woodbridge Riley, and "Can the Church Be Socialized?" by The Rev. Percy S. Grant, D.D., were published in the Christ Church Chronicle and distributed to the Clergy of the Diocese.

INDUSTRIAL ARBITRATION.

Circulars were sent by the commission to the Clergy of the Diocese in behalf of a special address on the first Sunday in September, popularly known as "Labor Sunday," on the subject of "Industrial Arbitration," and during the year notice was given of several bills before the State Legislature and action suggested in reference to the same.

ARBITRATION AND SOCIAL SERVICE.

The Bishop hopes during the winter to hold services in the Cathedral of St. John the Divine in behalf of Industrial Arbitration as well as other social service interests.

INTERDENOMINATIONAL COMMITTEE FOR THE PROMOTION OF INDUSTRIAL ARBITRATION.

Through the initiative of the Social Service Commission of this Diocese an Interdenominational Committee for the Promotion of Industrial Arbitration has been established in New York City. It is the purpose of this Committee to conduct this winter a campaign of education in behalf of industrial arbitration through individual and collective efforts.

A WOMAN'S SOCIAL SERVICE COMMISSION.

The Commission believes that its work would be much enhanced by enlisting the services and coöperation of women, and that a certain number should be included in its membership.

A PROPOSED CANON.

The Social Service Commission shall consist of four clergymen and four laymen, to be elected by ballot. Within thirty days after the adjournment of the Convention of 1911 the members of the Social Service Commission who shall be elected by that Convention shall divide themselves by lot into four classes one clergyman and one layman in each class, to hold office for terms of one, two, three and four years respectively, and until the election of their successors, and shall notify the Secretary of the Convention in writing of the result of such division. If after the expiration of forty days after the adjournment of the Convention the members of the Commission shall have failed so to notify the Secretary, he shall at once proceed by lot to divide the members of the Commission into classes as aforesaid, and they shall respectively hold their offices accordingly. At each succeeding stated Convention one clergyman and one layman shall be elected to hold their offices for four years. This Commission shall be empowered to add to its numbers not more than four additional members. The Commission shall elect its own officers.

AN APPROPRIATION.

Be it resolved that, "The Diocesan Board of Missions be requested to include in its apportionment for Diocesan Missions the sum of $2,500 for the expenses of the Social Service Commission."

BIBLIOGRAPHY.

We would suggest as profitable reading for the Clergy and laity interested in Social Service the following books:

Mr. Stephen Baker, for the Finance Committee, reported its approval of the proposed assessments and moved their adoption, and they were adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Peters offered the following amendment to Canon XIV:

"The Standing Committee shall make to the Diocesan Convention annually a report of its acts."

Which was referred to the Committee on Canons.

The Rev. Dr. Cummings offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That an appropriation of $2,500 from the Diocesan Fund, contingent upon an equal amount being raised outside of the Convention be made for the purposes of the Social Service Commission.

The Rev. Dr. Nichols offered the following resolution as a substitute:

Resolved, That the resolution authorizing an assessment of $3,000 on the parishes for the Diocesan Fund be reconsidered.

Which was adopted.

The question was then put on the original resolution, and it was not adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Manning offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the assessment of $3,000 for the Diocesan Fund having been remitted for this specific purpose each parish of the diocese be and it is hereby requested to contribute for the support of the work of the Social Service Commission the same amount which it would have paid to the Diocesan Fund if the assessment for this purpose had not been remitted.

Which was adopted.

The Rev. C. K. Gilbert offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That 2,000 copies of the Journal be printed for distribution.

Which was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Cummings moved that the Secretary be instructed to cast a ballot for the following persons as members of the Social Service Commission for the ensuing year:

Rev. George William Douglas.	Mr. R. Fulton Cutting.
Rev. John P. Peters, D.D.	Mr. John M. Glenn.
Rev. Robert P. Kreitler.	Mr. Arthur A. Michel.
Rev. Alexander G. Cummins, Litt.D.	The Hon. John K. Sague.

Which was adopted.

The Secretary cast the ballot and the Chair declared the persons named to be duly elected.

The Rev. L. T. Cole, D.D., presented the following Report:

REPORT

OF THE COMMITTEE OF THE CONVENTION OF THE DIOCESE OF NEW YORK ON THE GENERAL THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

November, 1911.

The Committee is very happy to be able to report that the attendance at the Seminary this year is the largest in its history, 143 men being enrolled, of whom 66 are new students, last year the total enrollment was 127.

At a meeting of the Board of Trustees, held on February 9th, 1911, the Rev. Dr. Dickinson Sergeant Miller, Professor in Columbia University, was elected Professor of Christian Apologetics in the Seminary, in the place of the Rev. Professor Hayes, deceased.

Your Committee makes the following nominations for Trustees of the General Theological Seminary to represent the Diocese of New York for the coming year:

The Rev. Leighton Parks, D.D.	Mr. W. Bayard Cutting.
The Rev. William C. Rodgers, D.D.	Mr. James J. Goodwin.
The Rev. Milo H. Gates, D.D.	Mr. John A. Beal.
The Rev. Robert B. Kimber.	Mr. Charles F. Hoffman.
The Rev. Herbert Shipman.	Mr. Hermann H. Cammann.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

LAWRENCE T. COLE.
WM. FISHER LEWIS.
ROBERT B. KIMBER.
CHARLES E. BRUGLER.
WM. R. PETERS.
CHAS. F. HOFFMAN.
FRANCIS LYNDE STETSON.

Committee.

The Rev. Dr. Cole moved that the Secretary be instructed to cast a ballot for the persons nominated by the Committee.

Which was adopted.

The Secretary cast the ballot, and the Chair declared the persons named to be duly elected Trustees of the General Theological Seminary.

The Rev. Dr. Gates presented the following report:

APPENDIX A

BISHOP'S ADDRESS.

THE CHURCH GETTING READY FOR WORK.

The past year has been a notable one in the Church at large and also in the Diocese, not so much for what it shows in the way of work done as in the promise which it gives of a work to be done and of preparation for it. This, as I interpret it, is the significance of the movement which during the past year has been so conspicuously engaging the attention of a thoughtful Christian public in behalf of Church Unity, and in which our own Church has taken a prominent part. It does not mean or imply, of course, that the unity is at hand or in sight. It is not; but simply that the Christian world is beginning to perceive with a clearing and growing perception that in order to perform its full and proper task it must mass its forces and give thus an effective solidarity to them. The Christian world, in other words, is coming more and more to realize the fact that while it is numerically strong it is, through its divisions, inherently weak and wanting; that a crowd is not an army and cannot simply as a crowd conduct and carry on a vigorous campaign. It may be an amiable crowd, and for the most part it is, with a good and friendly feeling between the different parts or different sections of it, its various and numerous denominational groups; and yet in order to do an effective militant service something more is needed, as Phillips Brooks once so aptly put it, than a courtesy between regiments. Or as Dr. Newman Smyth has recently expressed it, something more is needed than that the different Christian denominations should remain side by side as so many disconnected and ineffectual cells; they must be bound together as in a live battery, they must gain dynamic unity, so that their full energy may be transmitted wherever moral and religious light and power are needed.

This is an obvious and pressing duty in the work of the Church at home; not so much in the cities perhaps, although it is needed there, as in the rural districts, the small country towns, where Christianity is over-organized and where because of its many denominational groups it is not and cannot be adequately maintained and effectively enforced. And when it comes to the foreign field, beyond the Christendom border, the need is more apparent and more imperative still. There are, for instance, at the present time, in the Empire of Japan, some five or six hundred Christian organizations of various Christian names, and possibly more. If these were united, the task of establishing the Christian religion there on a strong and permanent basis, and not only there but elsewhere in the Orient, would be a more hopeful task. For Japan holds the key, or one of the keys at least, and a very important key, to the evangelization of the East. But they are not united, they are divided, and that is the weakness of the situation.

But how is this dynamic unity to be reached and reached in such a way as not to involve a too easy surrender of personal convictions, denominational and group convictions, or without impairing the exercises of that principle of free inquiry which has contributed so much to the enlightenment of the past and has still an important part to play in the development of the future?

This is the problem confronting the Christian Church, and a difficult problem it is. It is something like the cosmic problem of trying to combine two apparently opposing and contradictory forces, the centripetal and centrifugal, in such harmonious manner as to make them yield or issue in one harmonious movement. And that is God's problem; and so is Church Unity. And, therefore, with an open unprejudiced mind and heart the Christian Church throughout the world must wait on God to solve it and be ready to receive what He, from time to time, shall teach, and to be guided by it. That is what the Christian world is beginning now to do, as this growing sense of the practical need of the practical worth and value of Church Unity shows. Realizing more and more, as someone has expressed it, that little kingdoms cannot stand against big foes and that the divisiveness of the Christian Church is its present weakness, the Christian world is looking to God to heal it and thus to prepare it for some great and needed work. In the meantime, the Christian Church, in spite of its numerous cleavage lines, must do the best it can, by calling out or turning out its full potential strength and bringing to its militant task its entire membership body. And it is still another hopeful sign with much promise in it that that is what the Christian Church is trying now to do. That is the significance of the Laymen's Movement in Christendom, and the Men and Religion Forward Movement, which means that the Christian Church, awakening to the sense of the greatness of its mission, is calling out its reserves and mobilizing its forces. It has not done hitherto even what it could. It has not thrown into the field its full potential strength, but only part of it and not the larger part. A very considerable section of its official enrollment, and chiefly among its men, has not actively enlisted in its militant campaign; not so much from indifference as from ignorance, because it did not know what it ought to do or what it could do. And so it has stayed behind, as a kind of home guard, for parochial protection, as though that alone were the duty which it had to perform. And unquestionably it is its duty, but not its whole duty. There is another which must not be neglected, and that is the duty of engaging in a world-evangelization. And now the Christian Church is calling to it to turn out for the performance of that duty. And it is turning out. The men of the Church here and there are falling into line and coming to the front and looking and asking for leadership, or ready at least to receive it, and the Clergy of the Church must give it, as many of them are giving it, and are learning to look upon their respective parishes, as John R. Mott has expressed it, not simply as fields to be cultivated but as forces to be wielded for the evangelization of the world. When this becomes the general attitude of the clergy then will the interest, which the men of their parishes take in parochial affairs, be not less but greater. They will have a better conception of what their parishes are, what they are meant to do, and they themselves will come to have a larger Christian outlook. The militant spirit in them in the best and worthiest sense of the manly spirit in them, something like though greater than the patriotic spirit, will be more fully aroused, and more and more will they see and be made to feel that to be a Christian is the best and biggest and bravest thing on earth. It will make them see and feel that the little local tasks in which they are engaged are neither little nor local but related to and connected with a great world work. And the consciousness of this will awaken and develop and more and more bring out new and finer forces and aspirations in them. It will give letters patent of a true nobility to them. The greatness of the cause to which they are committed will purify and elevate their motives, their aims, their ambitions, their characters and their lives and make them great with the greatness of a growth towards the measure of the stature of the fullness of Jesus Christ.

This is a type of Christian life and manhood which in the Christian Church to-day is coming into evidence and more and more to the front, which being interpreted means, that while the Christian Church has scarcely yet begun to do its full mission work it is awakening to it and getting ready for it.

Let me now direct attention to our own Diocesan field: Here too we find some encouraging signs in the way of preparation for a more aggressive work. Our missionary apportionment last year was greater than ever before, but notwithstanding this it has been fully met and more than met. Some of the parishes did not meet in full the amounts assigned to them. This, however, was due, in some cases at least, to peculiar local conditions presenting local difficulties not easy to overcome. But other parishes in the Diocese have generously given more than what they were asked to give, thus making up the lack. A few of the parishes and mission stations, I am sorry to have to report, contributed nothing at all, but these are fewer than formerly and are becoming a diminishing number. Next year our Diocesan apportionment will be considerably increased. This has been made necessary by the exigencies and opportunities of the situation. Every good work must either grow or die; it cannot stand still; and the work of the Church is growing and we must help it to grow, and therefore we must try bravely and generously to meet the added expense. The fact that the offerings made by the women and children of the diocese will count upon the apportionment next year as they have done hitherto, will help us somewhat to meet it. I would also suggest, as one of the ways in which a parish can more successfully perhaps meet its apportionment, is by obtaining from the Secretary of the Board of Missions some designated item of missionary work for which the Board has made itself responsible. This, of course, would count upon the apportionment of the parish; or the name of some particular missionary appointed by the Board, and then try to raise in whole or in part his pledged and promised stipend. This will also count upon the apportionment of the parish and make the attempt to secure it perhaps more appealing to the parishioners. At all events, while what we have done is creditable to the Diocese, it should be regarded not as the limit of our capacity but chiefly as a hopeful sign of what we can do when we try to extend throughout the world the Kingdom of Jesus Christ.

But perhaps the most notable event in the record of the year in the way of preparation for a more aggressive work is the formal opening, so far as it has been built, of our Diocesan Church, the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, which has already given promise of a great and useful work. Of the various ways in which it can make this promise good I have already spoken upon another occasion, and will mention here but one, having special reference to the missionary work of the Diocese. Before doing this, however, let me briefly sketch the history of missionary work in the Diocese.

As far back as 1796, a Committee was appointed by the Convention, consisting of three clergymen and three laymen, to be called "A Committee of the Protestant Episcopal Church for Propagating the Gospel in the State of New York." In 1831 the missionary work in the State, which was then the Diocese, was divided, and missionary work in the City of New York was committed to a Society called the City Mission Society. In the following year, the Committee for Propagating the Gospel in the State, outside of the City, was combined with the Committee on Theological Education, which had been formed a few years previously. The name of the new Society was the New York Protestant Episcopal Educational and Missionary Society. This was made the Missionary Board of the Diocese for all purposes contemplated in the Canon respecting missions. For a time it served the double purpose and worked well, but only for a time, and a few years later the Society resigned its trust to the end that educational and missionary interests be separated. Educational interests were committed back to the Society of Promoting Religion and Learning, and the missionary interests of the Diocese outside of the City of New York were confided to a Missionary Committee of five clergymen and five laymen, with the Bishop ex-officio as President. It was further authorized that collections for the support of the missionary work of the Diocese be taken in all the Churches, and another article of the Canon stated that the stipend of each missionary should be at the rate of $125 per annum, provided there be enough funds in the treasury for the purpose. Where the balance of the stipend was to come from, or whether there was to be any balance, the Canon did not state. It only stated that unless the missionary did good service on the $125 per annum he would not be entitled to the privilege of reappointment!

Then again, in the Journal of 1864, I find it stated that inasmuch as the Missionary Committee not being incorporated, was liable to lose a legacy of $200 and might thereafter experience other losses, it was ordered that the Committee take the necessary steps to become incorporated; and this was accordingly done. Some time afterwards, I do not know just when, the Convocation System was formed. It was a purely voluntary association about which I have not been able to find much information in the Journals of the Conventions. But it continued in existence until 1886, when the present Archdeaconry system was authorized by the Convention, basing its divisions for the most part, I believe, upon the existing convocational lines. This has been ever since our working missionary system. In some respects it has worked well, but in others not well, and mainly for two reasons: First, because it resulted in a virtual division of the missionary work of the Diocese, with all the disadvantages of Diocesan division and none of the advantages. The several Archdeaconries were very naturally interested chiefly in their own missionary districts and not so much in one another, and there was, in consequence, a lack of Diocesan unity in the work. And second, because the Archdeacons themselves, while doing admirable service, for which I wish to express my grateful appreciation, have not been able and from no fault of theirs, to give their whole time to the work. As rectors of parishes, or occupying other important positions, they have had other duties to perform which could not be neglected and which of necessity have interfered somewhat with their activities outside of their parochial cures. And here again I wish to express not only my own profound sense of indebtedness to them but that of the whole Diocese.

And now having fetched this somewhat circuitous compass I come back to the Cathedral. It should be the center of all this missionary work of the Diocese, healing its division and giving unity to it. To this end I beg to suggest that the present Canon be so amended that no Archdeacon, while acting as such, shall be rector or settled minister in charge of a parish or congregation. This would enable him to give his entire time and energy to the missionary work of his district, and is the exact language of the General Canon with reference to Suffragan Bishops. In order that this arrangement may be carried out, I beg to suggest that it be recommended by resolution of the Convention to the Trustees of the Cathedral that they make provision for the support of the Archdeacons of the Diocese by the payment of their stipends. In order that the Convention may feel that it has full warrant for taking such action, I beg to state in this connection that it is the declared purpose of the Trustees, as expressed in a resolution recently adopted by them, so to change the present Constitution and Statutes that a certain number of the Trustees shall be chosen each year by the Convention, thus bringing the Cathedral into close and vital touch with the Diocese itself and making it an open Corporation. This, in my judgment, is what it should be in order that the Cathedral may fulfil itself, even its very name, as the Cathedral Church of St. John the Divine in the City and Diocese of New York. This, as I have said is also the judgment of the Trustees, which they propose, just as soon as possible to execute and enforce. This being the case, I trust the Convention will feel that it is well within its rights in calling upon the Trustees of the Cathedral to make provision for the payment of the stipends of the Archdeacons.

I am aware, of course, that if this is done it will put an extra tax upon the Cathedral funds, but I am confident that with the growing interest in the Cathedral they will prove fully equal to it; and I recommend it, not only as contributing to missionary efficiency, but also for the reason that it will tend to make the Cathedral what it should be, the vitalizing center of the missionary work of the Diocese by gathering that work about itself and giving unity to it. It would tend, in other words, to make the Cathedral not merely in theory and academically, but in reality and fact, the Cathedral Church of the Diocese. If this is done, the Canon should be still further amended so as to make three Archdeacons in the Diocese instead of five; for with the Archdeacons themselves giving their whole time to the missionary work of the Diocese three would be enough, and following these natural divisions: First, the Archdeaconry of New York, consisting of the three Boroughs of Richmond, Manhattan and the Bronx. Second, the Archdeaconry of East Hudson, consisting of the upper Counties on the East side of the River. Third, the Archdeaconry of West Hudson, consisting of the remaining counties on the West side of the River. In this connection I beg to suggest still another amendment of the Canon.

For some time past I have had in mind the formation of a Church Extension Society. By this I mean such an incorporated Society as could receive and hold and administer moneys and bequests, not merely for the maintenance of the existing missionary work of the Diocese in the payment of missionary stipends, etc., but for the strengthening of that work in some cases and the enlargement of it in others. Such a Society, in my judgment, is very greatly needed and in my last Convention Address I spoke of and recommended it, and further reflection has confirmed me in the opinion then expressed. In considering the subject, however, I have hesitated about the starting and forming of another Society in the Diocese. Where one will do as well as two it will do better; and therefore, I suggest that instead of creating another Society, the present missionary Canon be so enlarged in its scope that the present Board of Diocesan Missions shall also become a Church Extension Society, and that it be incorporated for that purpose as well as for the purpose which it serves at present.

All this I hope may be done at this Convention, or that the initial steps at least may be taken to this end. I have but little further to suggest before bringing to a close this already too long address. For the past two or three years the attempt has been made to standardize a minimum clerical salary in the Diocese. This attempt has received the cordial support of the Convention, and a resolution was unanimously adopted calling upon the parishes of the Diocese to make, at a stated time, their offerings for this purpose. And yet, in spite of this the fund contributed for the purpose has not been enough to establish throughout the Diocese such a minimum stipend. I therefore commend it again to your earnest consideration and attention. No clergyman of the Diocese should be expected to live on less than this minimum salary. It is not right, it is not fair to him or creditable to the Diocese. He cannot throw himself wholly into his work as he ought to do and as he wants to do, unless he be given something like a fair and adequate support; and it is important that he should receive it, not only for his sake but for the sake of the work.

And now I end as I began. In reviewing the past year in the Church at large and also in the Diocese, I find good reason for encouragement, not so much for what it shows in the way of work done as in the promise which it gives of a greater work to be done and of preparation for it. We are living in a day of large and enterprising venture when great things are attempted and great things are done, and the Church of the living God to-day must make great ventures for God. It has a great work to do in the human life immediately about it, in and through its parishes and social service commissions, and also in the human life in other and distant lands. It is all one work, one missionary work, to which the Church should address itself with energy and hope, yes, and with faith, never for a moment doubting that in spite of all the changes which are taking place to-day, or may take place to-morrow, the future of this world belongs to Jesus Christ. Let us then, my brethren, in His Name and strength go forward in the work of establishing here and everywhere, in the hearts and lives of men, the Kingdom of Jesus Christ!

Annandale, Chapel of the Holy Innocents (St. Stephen's College).

During the College year the usual Sunday services and the daily Morning and Evening Prayer with the Litany on Wednesdays and Fridays have been maintained. There is a week-day Celebration of the Holy Communion on Thursdays and Holy Days at 7:15 a. m. There is a Celebration of the Holy Communion every Sunday at 7:45 a. m., and a Second Celebration on the First and Third Sundays at 10:30 a. m., preceded by Morning Prayer and Litany at 10 a. m. Special preachers have been kind enough to come to St. Stephen's College during Advent, Lent, and at other seasons to address the students.

A small Sunday School is conducted by some of the students in the College Chapel, and also at St. Peter's Mission. At the latter place a service is held each Sunday during the College year by student members of the St. Peter's Brotherhood.

*Term of office expired, but holding over.

During the year a very valuable addition has been made to the property of the parish. A dignified and commodious stone Rectory has been built and presented to the parish in memory of the late Samuel Sloan, for several years an honored Warden of the church. This memorial is the gift of Mr. Sloan's widow, sons and daughters. It will be known as "the Samuel Sloan Memorial."

It gives me great pleasure to say, that never in the history of the church's work at Greenwood Lake, has the parish been so successful as during the past year, and judging from the extremely bright present, we have all reason to expect a splendid future.

During the year, a rustic bridge from the mainland to the church on Chapel Island was built. The foundation of stone, resting on the bed of the lake and extending five feet above the surface of the water, is twelve feet in width. Topped with sand and gravel it affords a perfect roadway for teams as well as pedestrians. The superstructure is of cedar, very picturesque in effect. The church has been painted and repaired to a degree contributing to the comfort of worshippers there, in all but extremely cold weather.

For many years, the church owned a lot in the village of Greenwood Lake, donated at a time when there were only three or four houses in its vicinity. This year, the long-cherished project of a parish house has been realized, wherein services could be held from November to May, and it is hoped that by Thanksgiving Day, 1911, the parish house will be completed. It is splendidly located in the heart of the village and the auditorium is large enough to afford ample room for basketball and other indoor athletic games. In fact, the primary consideration in designing the interior of the building was to make it in the best sense of the word attractive to young people of both sexes, for whom club rooms have been provided, and there is a comfortable room for the clergyman or lay reader, on the second floor. The building will cost about $6,500. Of this amount, $3,000 has been raised by mortgage, and the balance, $3,500, is being raised through voluntary contributions, subscriptions amounting to $1,800, having been received up to the end of October, 1911.

In December last, a new Vestry-room, 16 x 16, was built, at a cost of $245.00, raised by subscriptions and donations. A new Pulpit, valued at $150.00, has been given, and on Sunday, June 18th, the Suffragan Bishop dedicated a new carved Altar and Reredos, valued at $850.00. It seems worthy of note, that both of these gifts were made and given by a member of the congregation.

By removals and unspecified causes, the losses had been accumulating for a number of years. The present Report is only approximately correct. It rests to a considerable extent on the broad basis of Christian charity.

The very useful Parish House erected some time ago, was built on the strength of a promise of a respected communicant that a bequest of $2,000 would be made to satisfy a mortgage for that amount. Upon her death it was learned that no such bequest had been made and this sum will now have to be secured, decedent's heir failing to recognize a moral obligation.

Mr. George Hayden Bromby, for 9½ years organist and choirmaster, left in September to assume a like position in The Cathedral, Salina, Kansas. His successor is Mr. Norman Cooke-Jephcott, F.R.G.O., late sub-organist of the church of the Holy Trinity, Coventry, England.

A very fine and notable painting, 44 feet wide by over 20 feet in height, has been done on the sanctuary walls and dome. It portrays "the Descent of the Holy Ghost," and contains 15 life size figures. The wood work in the sanctuary has been replaced in carved quartered oak. This completes the restoration of the sanctuary, begun five years ago, and makes it one of the finest in the Diocese. The work done this past year was given as two memorials, by persons connected with the parish.

Through the generosity of the Seamen's Church Institute, and the kindness of the Archdeaconry of Richmond, All Saints' Parish has secured the building formerly known as the Church of Our Saviour, and anchored in the East River, but now moored at the foot of Van Nam Avenue and Richmond Terrace, Mariners' Harbor, S. I.

It is known as the "Floating Church," and seats 300 people.

This building came to us completely equipped for worship, but needing paint and repairs, which we are now giving it, the cost of which does not appear in this year's report.

There is no piece of architecture like it in all the country. We are very proud of it.

The report of communicants needs explanation. This parish has been thoroughly canvassed this last year, and every effort made to locate every name upon its books. It was found that many names of known communicants, who had never brought canonical letters, should be added, that a large number on our books, known to have removed, but who had not asked for letters, ought not longer to be reported to Convention as "Present Communicants." Still a larger number was found recorded, of whom or whose whereabouts nothing is known. All of these are now upon our books, properly denominated. Only those known to be at the present time communicants of the parish are reported as such. Until canonical requirements are fulfilled by communicants, all statistics of such are valueless.

This last year, the parish, stimulated by the generosity of a parishioner of Holy Trinity Church, our esteemed neighbor, who gave us ten thousand dollars, has been able to reduce its bonded indebtedness some thirty thousand dollars, thus attaining needed relief.

This community can support churches, but cannot pay large bonded debts. The Diocesan Authorities that approved the assumption of such obligations should know these facts, and share the responsibility of dealing with them.

The Rector of St. Andrew's having suffered for more than a year from fading vision, and finally loss of sight, has happily had his vision largely restored by a successful operation for cataract upon one eye, and is able again to do his full share of the parish work.

For many acts of kindness of his brethren, both clerical and lay, he is profoundly appreciative and very grateful.

By the will of Zilla K. Napier, late of Brooklyn, a legacy of $1,000.00 has been bequeathed to the Church. Mr. Napier was formerly a communicant of the Parish, but removed to Brooklyn in 1871.

On October 22, 1911, the Bishop of the Diocese reopened the Church with an appropriate service for the restoration of a Church building. For six months the Church had been closed and in the hands of mechanics, and remodeled after plans drawn by Upjohn and Conath, of New York. The building was raised 26 inches, and a new foundation built. The side walls, which had spread, were drawn in, and the whole roof retrussed so as to overcome the inherent weakness of the building, the roof shingled; the exterior stuccoed and painted, a new vestibule organ chamber and sacristy built, enlarging the seating capacity by one-third, the roof ceiled with yellow pine, a sanitary composition floor laid throughout, electric lights installed, an electric motor with kinetic blower connected with the organ and the interior redecorated and painted, the result being a most attractive and substantial church building, retaining the beautiful gothic lines of the elder Upjohn plans, adapted to modern needs. A black walnut altar rail, the gift of the Sunday School and a black walnut credence, presented by a communicant, were used for the first time. The total cost of the improvement was nearly $5,500, of which, $4,200 was raised during the year.

APPENDIX D

CLERICAL REPORTS.

The Bishop of the Diocese has also received reports, according to Canon, from the following Clergymen of the Diocese not having parochial or missionary charge.

THE REV. STURGES ALLEN,
Superior O. H. C.

"During the past year, my residence has been at Holy Cross, West Park. Matins and Evensong have been said daily, and the Holy Eucharist has been celebrated, with a few exceptions, every day. Services and addresses have been given at various places and a Retreat for the Community of the Sisters of St. John Baptist was conducted in New York in April."

THE REV. STANLEY BROWN-SERMAN.

"Begs leave to report that during the past year I have been in residence at Oxford University, England, engaged in New Testament studies. During that time I have acted as assistant in the Parishes of Bicester and Caversfield, and since July, as Assistant Priest of Brill and Boarstall, in the Diocese of Oxford. I purpose remaining at Oxford and continuing as Assistant at Brill till my return to New York next autumn."

THE REV. P. K. CADY, D.D.

"Respectfully reports that, owing to the infirmities of age, his priestly functions of a general character during the past Conventional year have been restricted to Celebrations of the Holy Communion in his private Oratory on Sundays and Holy Days."

THE REV. HERBERT MORRISON CLARKE, Ph. D.

"Respectfully reports that during the past year he has filled the chair of modern languages at St. Stephen's College. He has officiated regularly in the college chapel and occasionally in neighboring churches."

THE REV. HENRY A. DOWS,

"Respectfully reports that during the Conventional year he has officiated as Chaplain of the House of the Annunciation, New York City."

THE REV. ARTHUR WENTWORTH HAMILTON EATON, D.D.

"Respectfully reports that during the past year he has been constantly engaged in historical work in preparation for a new volume, but has officiated much in the Dioceses of New York, Long Island and Massachusetts. From the first of the year until June he was in New York and during that time was rarely out of the chancel on Sundays."

THE REV. RANDALL C. HALL, D.D.

"During the past year, I have assisted in the Church of St. Mary the Virgin, New York, and have served as the Chaplain of the House of the Holy Comforter, New York City. In the latter institution there have been seven funerals. The three months in vacation, I conducted services in the Chapel on Money Island, Stoney Creek, Conn."

THE REV. A. N. HENSHAW,

"During the past year I have regularly assisted in the Sunday services at Trinity Church, Plattsburgh, and have preached from time to time."

THE REV. ARTHUR P. HUNT.

"Respectfully reports that during the year he has been occupied with his duties as Professor of Ethics in the General Theological Seminary, officiating in the Chapel, and preaching as opportunity offered."

THE REV. W. G. W. LEWIS.

"During the past year, I have not officiated in any public services of the Church. I have married two couples. My general health has been fairly good. My faith grows stronger every day. Eighty-five years old."

THE REV. JOHN H. LOGIE.

"I desire to report that during the year past I have been officiating as occasion presented itself, at various Churches in the Diocese. During my stay in Atlantic City, I am helping in All Saints' Church."

THE REV. EDMUND S. MIDDLETON.

"Reports that he has continued to perform his duties as Master in Trinity School and as Examining Chaplain. He has been quite steadily engaged throughout the year with Sunday duty and in particular was in charge of Holy Rood Church, for three months during the last summer."

THE REV. G. L. NICHOLAS, M. D.

"For my annual report, a repetition of last year's report would serve. The Holy Sacrifice Daily, save during a brief interval, and Baptisms, Confessions, and other offices."

THE REV. ARTHUR H. PROFFITT.

"I beg to report that during the past Conventional year, I have celebrated Holy Communion several times at Rutherford, N. J.; have preached at Grace Church, Rutherford, once. During the month of June, I officiated and celebrated the Holy Communion at Croton, N. Y., and during the month of August at Pelham, N. Y. I have also celebrated and preached once at St. Stephen's Church, Newark, N. J."

THE REV. CORNELIUS BISHOP SMITH, D.D.

"My Church work has continued the same as hitherto reported, with one exception. This has been the Centennial year of St. James' Parish, New York City, and has been commemorated by a memorial service at which I preached the historical sermon; having been Rector of the Parish for 28 years, and Rector Emeritus for 16 years more. Both of my successors, the Rev. Dr. Warren, and Bishop Courtney, and all the Parishioners, new and old, have treated me with unfailing kindness, and have made my life happier than I can imagine in any other occupation than that of the Christian ministry."

THE REV. J. J. ROWAN SPONG.

"For the year ending October 31st, 1911, I have celebrated the Holy Communion 20 times, assisted 5 times, preached 41 times, and gave religious instruction in private 27 times. The condition of my health, or lack of opportunity prevented me from officiating oftener."

THE REV. ANSON PHELPS STOKES.

"I have continued during the past year as assistant minister of St. Paul's Church, New Haven, Connecticut. I preach there regularly once a month at the morning service, assisting once a month at the Communion, and aid in such minor ways in connection with the parish as I am able to do.

"In addition I have preached during the year at Harvard University, Yale University, University of Pennsylvania, Columbia University, Williams College, Bryn Mawr College, Vassar College, and at a large number of schools, including St. Paul's School, Concord, and St. Mark's School, Southboro, Mass. I also delivered last June, the alumni sermon at the Episcopal Theological School, Cambridge. This was afterwards printed in the Outlook.

"My major work continues to be that connected with the Secretaryship of Yale University, which requires a large amount of time and thought. My duties at the University are not entirely secular, as they include acting as clerk of the Committee on the Supply of the College Pulpit, which leaves largely in my hands the choice of preachers. I have also conducted the daily prayers in Battell Chapel for about a month during the winter.

"I am connected with several educational and philanthropic boards. The one which takes most of my time is the Executive Committee of the Yale Foreign Missionary Society, which is building up an undenominational Christian College in Changsha, the capital of Hunan, China."

THE REV. J. FREDERICK TALCOTT.

"During the past year, I have carried on my missionary work in the Diocese as heretofore and have officiated as opportunity offered. During the summer months I have officiated at regular intervals at St. George's Church, Rumson, N. J."

THE REV. AUGUST ULMANN, D.D.

"I beg to report that on weekdays during the past year I have been teaching in a private school in New York, and on Sundays I have given such aid in different churches as I was invited to render."

THE REV. WILLIAM H. VIBBERT, S.T.D.

"Respectfully reports that during the past Convention year he has baptised 3 infants, married 6 couples and attended 8 funerals; all of which official acts are included in the report of Trinity Chapel."

THE REV. FRANCIS WASHBURN.

"I have been present in the chancel of St. George's, Newburgh, St. Paul's, Newburgh, and St. Luke's Matteawan, and taken part on a number of occasions. I have acted for the absent rectors of Milton, Marlborough, Arden, Chester and Monroe during the Spring and Summer, conducting Divine Services and celebrating Holy Communion and preaching. I have performed a service of Holy Matrimony, and a service of Holy Baptism. I also took Mr. Whitney's place one Sunday morning last winter at St. Agnes' Chapel, Balmville."

THE REV. JAMES B. WASSON, Ph. D.

THE
PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH
DIOCESE OF NEW YORK

As Adopted October 11, 1796; and Amended October 17, 1827; October 2, 1834; October 4, 1839; September 29, 1843; September 26, 1850; September 28, 1860; September 28, 1882; September 26, 1889; September 14, 1902; September 28, 1905; November 15, 1906; November 14, 1907; November 12, 1908; November 8, 1911.

ARTICLE I.

There shall be a Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese in each year. It shall be held at the Cathedral on the second Wednesday in November, unless the Bishop, with the consent of the Standing Committee, or, in case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, unless the Standing Committee shall appoint another place or time.

ARTICLE II.

The Bishop shall have power to call Special Conventions, when he may judge it conducive to the good of the Church; and shall do so when applied to for that purpose by the Standing Committee; and in case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the Standing Committee shall have power to call a Special Convention.

ARTICLE III.

The Convention shall consist of the Bishop and the Bishop-Coadjutor (if there be one), and the Suffragan Bishops (if there be one or more) of the Diocese and of Clerical and Lay Members.

The Clerical Members shall be those Clergymen canonically resident within the Diocese not less than six months immediately preceding the meeting of the Convention, who shall be either Archdeacons of the Diocese, or settled in some Church in union with the Convention, or in the Cathedral, or employed as Missionaries under the direction of the Convention, or engaged within the Diocese as Professors or Instructors in any incorporated institution of learning, or as Superintendents or Chaplains in any incorporated charitable institution, or Clergymen who, having attained the age of sixty-five years, shall have retired from the active work of the Ministry after holding for not less than ten years one or more of the positions hereinbefore named.

The Lay Members shall be male Delegates from the several Churches in union with the Convention, not exceeding three from each Church, chosen by the Vestry or Congregation.

ARTICLE IV.

Every Convention shall be opened with such services as shall be approved by the Bishop, or in case of his absence or inability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, by the Standing Committee.

ARTICLE V.

The Bishop shall preside in the Convention; but in case of a vacancy, or necessary absence, the members shall elect a President from among the Clergy.

ARTICLE VI.

A Secretary shall be chosen, upon the assembling of the Annual Convention, from among the members thereof, who shall remain in office until the meeting of the next Convention. His duty shall be to take minutes of their proceedings, to preserve their journals and records, to attest the public acts of the body, and faithfully to deliver into the hands of his successor all books and papers, relative to the concerns of the Convention, which may be in his possession. It shall also be his duty to give due notice to each Minister and Vestry of the time and place appointed for the meeting of the succeeding Convention.

ARTICLE VII.

In all matters which shall come before the Convention, the Clergy and the Laity shall deliberate in one body. In voting each clerical member shall have one vote, the Bishop, the Bishop Coadjutor and the Suffragan Bishops, having the right to vote with the clergy. When votes are taken by orders the lay delegates of each Church shall be entitled to one vote, except that when more than one Church or Chapel shall be united under one Vestry, and shall have been so united and recognized by the Convention prior to the last Wednesday in September in the year of our Lord 1859; the delegates of such Vestry only shall be entitled to one vote for each Church or Chapel.

Except in cases where a vote by orders is required, the concurrence of a majority of the Clerical and Lay Members voting shall constitute a vote; but in any case a vote by orders may be required by five members. When a vote by orders is taken the concurrence of a majority of the members of each order voting shall constitute a vote. In the election of a Bishop or Bishop Coadjutor, or Suffragan Bishop, the two orders shall always vote separately.

ARTICLE VIII.

“Whenever in the Constitution or Canons of this Diocese provision is made for action by the Bishop, such action, in case of the absence or disability of the Bishop, shall devolve upon the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, but if there be none, or in case of the absence or disability of the Bishop Coadjutor, shall devolve upon the Suffragan Bishop, if there be one, or if there be more than one, shall devolve upon the senior in point of consecration, or in case of his absence or disability, shall devolve upon the other Suffragan Bishops in the order of their consecration, and shall devolve upon the Standing Committee or other authority or person, in cases where provision is made for their action in the place of the Bishop, only in the event of the absence or disability of the Bishop, the Bishop Coadjutor and the Suffragan Bishop or Bishops, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate.”

ARTICLE IX.

The mode of altering this Constitution shall be as follows: A proposition for an amendment shall be introduced in writing and considered in the Convention; and, if approved of, shall lie over to the next Convention, and, if again approved of in such next Convention, by a majority of the two orders voting thereon separately, the change shall take place, and the Constitution so altered shall be valid and obligatory.

CANONS.

Adopted October 2, 1834; and Amended October 4, 1839; October 1, 1841; September 30, 1842; September 29, 1843; September 27, 1844; September 26 and 30, 1845; September 29, 1848; September 26, 1851; October 1, 1852; September 29, 1859; September 28, 1860; October 2, 1863; September 27, 1866; November 15, 1867; September 29, 1870; September 28, 1872; September 25, 1873; September 28, 1877; September 26, 1884; October 1, 1885; September 30 and October 1, 1886; September 29, 1887; September 27, 1888; September 26, 1889; September 25, 1890; October 1, 1891; September 27 and 28, 1893; September 27, 1894; September 26, 1895; October 1, 1896; September 30, 1897; September 29, 1898; September 27, 1900; September 26, 1901; September 24 and 25, 1902; November 15, 1906; November 14, 1907; November 12, 1908; November 12, 1909; November 9 and 10, 1910; November 8 and 9, 1911.

CANON I.

A List to be made of Ministers in the Diocese.

Within one week before the meeting of every Convention of this Diocese, the Bishop, or in case there be no Bishop, or of his inability or disability to act, then the Standing Committee of the Diocese, shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, a list of all the Ministers of the Protestant Episcopal Church canonically resident in this Diocese, annexing the names of their respective Cures or Parishes, or Stations as Missionaries, or of the Colleges, Academies, or other Seminaries or incorporated Charitable Institutions in which they are engaged; or, in regard to those who are not engaged in Parishes, Missions, or Institutions of learning, as above, their places of residence only; but no Clergyman while suspended from the Ministry shall have a place on the said list. Such list shall be recorded by the Secretary of the Convention in a book to be kept for that purpose, and be prefixed to the Journal.

CANON II.

Of the Members of the Convention and the Evidence of their Rights to Seats.

SEC. 1. A list of the names of all Clergymen entitled to seats in the Convention, under Article III. of the Constitution, shall be prepared by the Bishop, or in case there be no Bishop, or of his inability or disability to act, then by the Standing Committee. Said list shall be laid before the Convention on the first day of meeting, and shall be presumptive evidence of a right to a seat of all those whose names appear thereon.

SEC. 2. In case the right of any Clergyman of this Diocese to a seat in the Convention shall be disputed or claimed, it shall be determined according to the provision of the third Article of the Constitution by the Convention itself.

SEC. 3. The Secretary of the Convention shall record in a book, to be provided by him, and kept in accordance with the Canon of the General Convention, entitled "Of the Filling of Vacant Cures," all certificates that shall be transmitted to him in accordance with said Canon.

In case of a contested right to a seat in the Convention of any Clergyman who shall have been elected to any Church or Parish in this Diocese, after the passage of this Canon, the evidence of settlement shall consist in the said record; or in the production to the Convention of the certificate required by this Section, to be recorded as aforesaid, together with a certificate of the Bishop or of the Standing Committee, of his or their being satisfied that the person so chosen is a qualified Minister of this Church.

SEC. 4. Every Minister who may be received into this Diocese shall procure from the Bishop, or, in case of his disability or inability to act, from a majority of the clerical members of the Standing Committee, duly convened, a certificate that he has been received into this Diocese in compliance with the Canon of the General Convention. And before he shall be entitled to a seat in the Convention, he shall transmit such certificate to the Secretary, to be recorded in the book mentioned in the preceding Section. And in case of the contested right to a seat in the Convention of any Minister who may be received into this Diocese, the production of such record, or of such certificate, or of the Secretary's written acknowledgment of his receipt of the same, shall be presumptive evidence of regular admission, and the certificate, if not previously recorded, shall thereupon be recorded by the Secretary in the said book.

SEC. 5. In case of a contested right to a seat in the Convention of a Clergyman claiming such right by virtue of his being employed as a Missionary under the direction of this Convention, the evidence of such employment shall consist in the written certificate of the Bishop; or, in case of a vacancy of the Episcopate, or of the inability or disability of the Bishop, in the written certificate of the Chairman of the Missionary Committee of the Diocese.

SEC. 6. In case of a contested right to a seat in the Convention of a Clergyman claiming such right by virtue of his being engaged as a Professor or Instructor of Youth in a College, Academy, or General Seminary of Learning, duly incorporated, the evidence of his connection with such College, Academy, or Seminary shall consist in the written certificate of the President or Secretary of such Corporation that he is so employed.

SEC. 7. (I.) Lay Delegates from Churches having Vestries shall be appointed by the Vestry, at a regular meeting, held according to law.

(II.) The evidence of the appointment of a Lay Delegate from a Church having a Vestry shall be a certificate signed by the Rector of the Church and by the Clerk of the Vestry. If there be no Rector, or if the appointment shall have been made at any legal Vestry meeting held in his absence, then such certificate shall state that fact, and shall be signed by the Warden who presides at the meeting at which such Delegate is appointed, and also by the Clerk of the Vestry. The certificate must show upon its face that the appointment has been made in accordance with all the requirements of the Canons, and shall certify that the Delegate is a Lay member, entitled to vote for Wardens and Vestrymen of the Church which he is appointed to represent.

(III.) The evidence of appointment of a Lay Delegate from a Church having no Vestry shall be a certificate signed by the Minister of such Church, or by the officer who presides at the meeting of the congregation by which he was appointed, and also by the Clerk or Secretary of such meeting. The certificate shall state the time and place of the election, and shall certify that the person appointed has been duly chosen by such Church or Congregation as a Lay Delegate; that he is a Lay member of such Church or Congregation, and has been such member for at least twelve months next preceding the time of his appointment, and that the election was held in accordance with all the requirements of the Canons.

(IV.) No other certificate or evidence of appointment of any Lay Delegate than such as is above required shall be allowed or received.

SEC. 8. No Lay Delegate from a Church having a Vestry shall be entitled to a seat in the Convention unless he be entitled to vote for Wardens and Vestrymen of the Church which he is appointed to represent.

SEC. 9. A copy of the seventh and eighth sections of this Canon shall be transmitted annually by the Secretary of the Convention to every Church in this Diocese in union with the Convention, together with a blank printed form of certificate of appointment of Lay Delegates, and the notice which he is required by the Constitution to give of the time and place appointed for the meeting of the succeeding Convention.

SEC. 10. It shall be the duty of the Clerks of the Vestries of the Parishes which have been admitted into union with this Convention, immediately after the appointment of the Lay Delegates to the Diocesan Convention, to certify their election to the Secretary of the Convention in the form prescribed by Sections 7 and 8 of this Canon. From the certificates thus received the Secretary shall prepare a list of Lay Delegates for use in the organization of the Convention.

SEC. 11. The presence of at least fifty Clergymen entitled to vote in the Convention, and of Delegates from at least forty congregations, shall be necessary to the transaction of business—except that a smaller number may adjourn from day to day.

SEC. 12. If the President ex-officio of the Convention is not present at its opening, the Secretary of the Convention shall call to order the members present, when the senior presbyter present entitled to a seat in the Convention shall take the chair, and shall preside until a President be elected, as provided by Article V. of the Constitution.

SEC. 13. The Secretary of the Convention, under the direction of the Bishop, or, in case of his absence or inability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, under the direction of the Standing Committee, shall call over the names of the Clergy entitled to seats.

SEC. 14. He shall call the names of the Lay Delegates whose election has been certified to him, in pursuance of Section 10 of this Canon. The President shall then appoint a committee of three persons, to whom shall be referred the credentials of the Lay Delegates, who shall report upon the correctness of the roll made by the Secretary.

SEC. 15. The calling of the names of the Clergy entitled to seats and of the Lay Delegates may be dispensed with by a unanimous vote of the members of the Convention present, provided that evidence satisfactory to the Convention of the presence of a canonical quorum of each order be laid before the Convention by the Secretary. In such case the Secretary shall take means to secure a correct list of the Clergy entitled to seats and of the Lay Delegates who are present at the Convention.

SEC. 16. A quorum, which shall consist of fifty Clergymen and Delegates from forty Congregations, being present, the President, ex-officio, if present, shall declare the Convention duly organized. If he be absent, or unable to act, the temporary President shall direct that the members proceed to vote for a President, as provided in Article V. of the Constitution, which election shall be by ballot, unless dispensed with by the unanimous vote of the members present. The President, being elected, shall declare the Convention organized for business.

SEC. 17. The Convention shall then proceed to the election of a Secretary and Treasurer of the Convention, by ballot, unless dispensed with by the unanimous vote of the members present. The Secretary shall appoint two assistants, and announce their names to the Convention.

SEC. 18. The existing Rules of Order, so far as they are applicable to the preliminary proceedings for the organization of the Convention, shall be deemed in force for that purpose; and the said Rules of Order, except such of them as prescribe the mode of altering the same, shall regulate the proceedings after the organization, until altered by the Convention.

CANON III.

Of the Call of the Convention.

Unless it be otherwise directed by the Convention, the mode of giving notice of the meeting of any Convention, shall be by an advertisement of the time and place of such meeting, signed by the Secretary, and published in three of the public papers, or Church journals, printed in the Diocese of New York. Whenever, under the provisions of the Constitution, a Special Convention is called for any particular purpose, it shall be the duty of the Secretary, in the notice thereof, to specify such purpose.

CANON IV.

Of the Admission of a Church as a Parish into Union with the Church in this Diocese and Maintaining such Union.

SEC. 1. Every Church or Congregation desiring admission as a Parish into union with the Church in this Diocese shall present a written application therefor to the Convention, together with a copy of the Resolution of the Vestry or of the Congregation authorizing such application; in which resolution the said Church, by its Vestry or Congregation, shall agree to abide by, and conform to and observe all the Canons of the Church, and all the rules, orders, and regulations of the Convention, and to pay its Rector, so long as it shall remain in union with the Convention, in regular monthly or quarterly installments, a salary of not less than $1,500 per annum, or a salary of not less than $1,200 per annum and to provide for him a suitable residence, or a reasonable allowance in lieu thereof; which copy shall be duly certified by the presiding officer of the Vestry, or of the meeting of the Congregation at which the resolution was adopted, and also by the Clerk of the Vestry or Secretary of the meeting; and shall be authenticated by the seal of the corporation.

The said application shall also be accompanied by the Certificate of Incorporation of the Church, duly recorded, or a copy thereof, certified by the officer whose duty it may be to record or to file the same; and also by a Certificate of the Bishop, or, in case of his absence, or of his inability or disability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, of the Standing Committee, that he or they approve of the Incorporation of said Church, and that such Church, in his or their judgment, is duly established; and also, by a certificate executed by the authority of the Vestry or of the meeting, authenticated by the seal of the corporation, to the effect that such Church or Congregation is willing and able among its own members to raise at least $1,500 per annum for the salary of its Rector, or to raise at least $1,200 for his salary and to provide for him a suitable residence or a reasonable allowance in lieu thereof.

Every Church or Congregation applying for admission shall produce satisfactory evidence that not less than twenty-five persons, members of such Church, have habitually, for at least one year preceding such application, attended divine service in such Church or Congregation.

The Certificate of Incorporation of every Church incorporated under any Act of the Legislature of the State of New York, save the General Act of April 5, 1813, and the Amendments thereto, shall declare upon its face that the Church or Congregation is a Protestant Episcopal Church, and that it is forever to continue such, in communion with the Protestant Episcopal Church in the State of New York; and it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Convention to prepare and furnish blanks for the Certificate of Incorporation of Parishes, which shall embody the above provision.

SEC. 2. (I.) No application for the admission of a Parish into union with the Church in this Diocese shall be considered or acted upon at any meeting of the Convention, unless the same has been transmitted to the Secretary of the Convention at least forty days before the meeting of the Convention.

(II.) It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Convention, at least thirty days before the meeting of the Convention, to deliver to a Committee, to be annually appointed (to be called the Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Churches), all applications for admission into union which shall have been received by him, to be by such Committee examined, considered, and reported upon to the Convention.

SEC. 3. Whenever any Parish in union with this Convention shall neglect for three years in succession to make a Parochial Report, no missionary report being made on its behalf, and shall not, during the same period, have employed a Clergyman as its Parish Minister, nor requested of the ecclesiastical authority to have the services of a Missionary, such Parish shall be regarded as having forfeited its connection with the Convention, and shall no longer have a right to send a Delegate or Delegates to the same.

The Bishop shall report such Parish to the Convention in his Annual Address.

Such Parish, however, may be re-admitted, upon application to the Convention, accompanied by a report of its condition, and on such terms as shall appear just; such re-admission to take effect from and after the rising of the Convention consenting to such admission.

CANON V.

Of the Secretary of the Convention.

SEC. 1. In addition to the constitutional provisions concerning the Secretary, it is hereby declared that this officer shall be chosen by ballot after viva voce nominations of the Candidates, and shall continue in office until a new election is made.

SEC. 2. He shall transmit annually to each of the Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, and to the Secretary of the last House of Clerical and Lay Deputies in the General Convention, and to the Secretary of every Diocesan Convention, a copy of the Journal of the Convention; and shall request the last to send copies of their respective Journals in exchange.

SEC. 3. He shall also transmit to every General Convention in addition to the documents mentioned in the Canons of the General Convention, a certificate, to be signed by himself, containing a list of the Clergymen in this Diocese, and the amount of funds paid or secured to be paid (distinguishing them) to the General Theological Seminary, together with the nomination of Trustees of that Seminary; and also a like certificate of the appointment of Clerical and Lay Deputies.

SEC. 4. Any expense incurred by a compliance with the third section of this Canon shall be paid out of the Diocesan Fund.

SEC. 5. Whenever there shall be a vacancy in the office of Secretary of the Convention, the duties thereof shall devolve upon one of the Assistant Secretaries in the order of their appointment, if there be one; if not, upon the Secretary of the Standing Committee.

CANON VI.

Of the Treasurer of the Convention.

SEC. 1. At every Annual Convention there shall be chosen by ballot a Treasurer of the Diocese, who shall remain in office until the next Annual Convention and until his successor is appointed and shall have qualified. The Treasurer shall perform such duties as from time to time shall be prescribed by Canon, and shall act as financial agent for the Diocese for the receipt and disbursement of moneys collected under the authority of the Convention, except contributions for Domestic and Foreign Missions. He shall safely keep an account of all moneys or funds that shall come into his hands and shall deposit the same in such banks or places of deposit as the Committee on Diocesan Finances may authorize. He shall keep accurate books of account, which shall be open to inspection of the Committee on Diocesan Finances and give such information upon the finances of the Diocese and the conduct of his office as may be required by the Committee. He shall submit annually to the Convention a report of the receipts and disbursements of the Diocese. He shall give the bond or security that from time to time may be required by the Committee on Diocesan Finances, and the expenses therefor shall be paid out of the fund for Diocesan Expenses.

SEC. 2. In case of a vacancy in the office of the Treasurer, it shall be supplied by an appointment to be made by the Standing Committee, and the person so appointed shall continue to act until an appointment shall be made by the Convention.

CANON VII.

Of Parish Registers and Parochial Reports.

SEC. 1. Every Minister in charge of a Parish in this Diocese shall keep a Register of Baptisms, Confirmations, Communicants Marriages, and Funerals within his Cure.

SEC. 2. The record shall specify the name and time of birth of each child baptized, with the names of the parents and sponsors; the name of each adult baptized; the name of each person confirmed; the names of the parties married, with the names of the witness or witnesses required by the civil law; the name of each person buried; and also the time when each rite was performed. These Registers shall be kept by the Minister in a book to be provided for that purpose, belonging to the Vestry of each Church; which book shall be the Parish Register, and shall be preserved by the Vestry as a part of the records of the Church.

The list of communicants shall embrace all within his Cure as nearly as can be ascertained, and he shall also keep a list of the families and adult persons in his Cure, as far as practicable.

SEC. 3. Every Minister of this Church shall present, or cause to be delivered, on or before the first day of every annual Convention, to the Bishop of the Diocese, or, when there is no Bishop, to the President of the Convention, a statement of the number of Baptisms, Confirmations, Marriages, and Funerals; and of the number of Communicants in his Parish or Church, and of all other matters that may throw light on the state of the same.

SEC. 4. In every case where a Parish is without a Minister, the Register contemplated by this Canon shall be kept by some person appointed by the Vestry for that purpose; and the annual Parochial Reports shall be presented or forwarded to the Bishop by the Wardens of the Parish.

SEC. 5. The Register contemplated by this Canon shall at all times be subject to inspection by the Bishop or by such person as he may appoint.

SEC. 6. Upon the dissolution of a Parish the Register, provided for by this Canon, shall immediately become the property of the Diocese, and the Trustees of the Estate and Property of the Diocesan Convention shall cause the said Register to be deposited with the Bishop, to be under his care for the legitimate purposes thereof.

CANON VIII.

Of Preparing a Report on the State of the Church.

A Committee of the Convention of this Diocese shall be appointed at the stated meeting of the same next before every stated meeting of the General Convention, in accordance with the Canon* thereof, to assist the Bishop in preparing a report of the state of the Church in this Diocese, and a list of the Clergy, to be presented to the General Convention.

CANON IX.

Concerning Elections.

SEC. 1. Elections by ballot, when required by these Canons, may be dispensed with by a unanimous vote of the Convention. And when an election is by ballot, a majority of the votes in each order shall be necessary to a valid election: provided that if in any election a greater number of persons than the number of offices to be filled shall receive a canonical majority of the votes cast, those who up to the number of offices to be filled receive the largest canonical majorities in both orders shall be declared elected.

SEC. 2. The mode of conducting the nominations and elections of the Standing Committee, the Deputies and Provisional Deputies to the General Convention, Deputies to the Federate Council, and Deputies to the Missionary Council of the Second Department, shall be as follows:

Any member of the Convention may place in the hands of the Secretary, in writing, on or before the Monday preceding the first day of the meeting thereof, nominations signed by himself, for the Standing Committee, for Clerical and Lay Deputies and Provisional Deputies to the General Convention, for members of the Federate Council and Deputies to the Missionary Council of the Second Department. All names so sent in shall be reported to the Convention by the Secretary, at the beginning of the first day's session, in the form of a ballot, on which the names shall be arranged in alphabetical order. After each list of nominations as many blank spaces shall be left as there are vacancies to be filled.

* Canon 47, § 2.

These blanks may be filled by any voter. The voter shall mark an X at the right of the name of each person for whom he votes. On the first ballot these ballots only shall be used, and also in all subsequent ballots, except when otherwise ordered by the Convention. No ballot shall be counted on which more names are marked than there are vacancies to be filled, and the number of vacancies to be filled shall be printed on each ballot.

The Secretary shall provide a board, to be hung up in a conspicuous place, near the entrance to the Convention, on which shall be posted the nominations so received, and also the names of the present members of the Standing Committee, Deputies and Provisional Deputies to General Convention, and Deputies to the Federate Council; and these names shall also be printed on the back of the ballot provided by the Secretary.

SEC. 3. In the election of a Bishop or Bishop Coadjutor the two orders shall always vote separately.

CANON X.

Of Deputies to the General Convention.

SEC. 1. The Convention shall, at the regular annual meeting next preceding a stated meeting of the General Convention, elect by ballot four Clergymen and four Laymen to act as Deputies from this Diocese to the General Convention. It shall also elect by ballot four Clergymen and four Laymen, as Provisional Deputies, to act in the case hereinafter mentioned; which Deputies and Provisional Deputies shall hold their respective stations until successors are appointed, and shall be Deputies, or Provisional Deputies, for any General Convention which may be held during their continuance in office.

SEC. 2. Should a vacancy occur by resignation, removal from the Diocese, death, or otherwise, among the Deputies or Provisional Deputies, between the stated times of election, the vacancy shall be supplied by any Convention, during or prior to which such vacancy shall occur.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the Deputies elect to signify to the Bishop, at least two days before the meeting of the General Convention, their acceptance of the appointment and their intention to perform its duties; in default of which the Bishop shall designate, from the list of Provisional Deputies, so many as may be necessary to insure, as far as practicable, a full representation of the Diocese. The Bishop, also, from time to time shall designate one of the Provisional Deputies to supply, either temporarily or permanently, any vacancy caused by the death, absence or inability of any Deputy. During such period as shall be stated in the certificate issued to him by the Bishop, the Provisional Deputy so designated shall possess, and shall be entitled to exercise, the power and authority of the Deputy in place of whom he shall have been designated.

SEC. 4. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or the inability of the Bishop to act, the power conferred upon the Bishop by this Canon shall be exercised by the Standing Committee.

CANON XI.

Of Deputies to the Federate Council.

There shall be eight clerical and eight lay deputies from this Diocese to the Federate Council, who shall be elected by ballot. Within thirty days after the Convention of 1911 the deputies who shall be elected by that Convention shall divide themselves by lot into four classes, two clergymen and two laymen in each class, to hold office for terms of one, two, three and four years respectively, and until the election of their successors, and shall notify the Secretary of the Convention in writing of the result of such division. If after the expiration of forty days after the adjournment of the Convention the deputies shall have failed so to notify the Secretary, he shall at once proceed by lot to divide them into classes as aforesaid, and they shall respectively hold their offices accordingly. At each succeeding stated Convention two clerical and two lay deputies shall be elected to hold their offices for four years. In case of a vacancy by death or otherwise among the deputies such vacancy shall be filled by the Bishop until the next stated Convention. Except in the case of deputies appointed to fill vacancies no deputy shall be eligible to the office of deputy until one year after the expiration of his term of office.

CANON XII.

Of the Standing Committee.

SEC. 1. The Standing Committee shall consist of four clergymen and four laymen, to be elected by ballot. Within thirty days after the adjournment of the Convention of 1911 the members of the Standing Committee who shall be elected by that Convention shall divide themselves by lot into four classes, one clergyman and one layman in each class, to hold office for terms of one, two, three and four years respectively, and until the election of their successors, and shall notify the Secretary of the Convention in writing of the result of such division. If after the expiration of forty days after the adjournment of the Convention the members of the Committee shall have failed so to notify the Secretary, he shall at once proceed by lot to divide the members of the Committee into classes as aforesaid, and they shall respectively hold their offices accordingly. At each succeeding stated Convention one clergyman and one layman shall be elected to hold their offices for four years. Vacancies occurring by death or otherwise shall be supplied by the concurrent vote of the clerical and lay members of the Committee until the next stated Convention. Except in the case of members chosen to fill vacancies no member of the Committee shall be eligible for membership for one year after the expiration of his term of office.

SEC. 2. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or the inability or disability of the Bishop, the powers and duties to be performed by the Bishop in matters of discipline shall be performed by the Standing Committee, except in those cases where such powers and duties are or may be specially delegated to, or enjoined upon, the Clerical members of said Committee; in which cases such powers and duties shall be exercised by said Clerical members alone; provided, that no sentence shall be pronounced on a Clergyman but by a Bishop.

SEC. 3. The record of all proceedings upon a presentment of a Clergyman shall be preserved by the Standing Committee, and for that purpose shall, after a final decision, be delivered to their Secretary.

SEC. 4. Should a stated Convention, from any cause, not be held at the appointed time, or if such Convention should be held, but no election be made, pursuant to Section 1 of this Canon, then the last Standing Committee elected shall continue to perform the duties of the office until a new election takes place.

SEC. 5. Whenever application shall be made to the Standing Committee for their consent to an application to a Court for leave to sell or mortgage real property, which at the time of such application is used by a congregation for regular religious services, the Standing Committee shall not give their consent until it shall have been made to appear to their satisfaction that notice of the application has been given to the congregation.

CANON XIII.

Of the Social Service Commission.

The Social Service Commission shall consist of four clergymen and four laymen, to be elected by ballot. Within thirty days after the adjournment of the Convention of 1911 the members of the Social Service Commission who shall be elected by that Convention shall divide themselves by lot into four classes, one clergyman and one layman in each class, to hold office for terms of one, two, three and four years respectively, and until the election of their successors, and shall notify the Secretary of the Convention in writing of the result of such division. If, after the expiration of forty days after the adjournment of the Convention, the members of the Commission shall have failed so to notify the Secretary, he shall at once proceed by lot to divide the members of the Commission into classes as aforesaid, and they shall respectively hold their offices accordingly. At each succeeding stated Convention one clergyman and one layman shall be elected to hold their offices for four years. All vacancies occurring in the said Commission shall be filled by the concurrent vote of its Clerical and Lay members until the next stated Convention, when the vacancy shall be filled for the balance of the term. Except in the case of members chosen to fill vacancies until the next stated Convention no member shall be eligible to the Commission for one year after the expiration of his term of service.

CANON XIV.

Of Vacant Parishes, and Clergymen without Cure.

SEC. 1. Whenever a Parish becomes vacant by the resignation or decease of the incumbent, or otherwise, due notice of the same shall be given by the Clerk of the Vestry or Trustees to the Ordinary, who, with the concurrence of the authorities of the Parish, shall take such measures as he may deem expedient for the temporary maintenance of religious services in such Parish.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of the Vestry or Trustees of such vacant Parish to provide for the compensation of the Minister appointed under the preceding section.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the authorities of such vacant Parish to consult with the Bishop of the Diocese before proceeding to fill the vacancy.

SEC. 4. Any Clergyman without cure resident in, or visiting, this Diocese and desiring to take temporary or occasional service therein shall signify to the Bishop his wish to officiate in this Diocese. A list of such Clergymen as shall be licensed by the Bishop for such duty shall be kept at the Diocesan House. And no Rector or Parish shall employ the services of any Clergyman without cure for more than one day, unless he shall have the written license of the Bishop.

CANON XV.

Of the Establishment and Boundaries of Parishes and Mission Districts.

SEC. 1. The Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, may determine, and from time to time may alter, the boundaries of the parishes and mission districts of this Diocese, and may constitute new parishes and mission districts, and may erect mission districts into parishes; provided that not less than twenty days' previous notice of a time and place when the Standing Committee will hear any persons interested in the matter shall in each case be given to the incumbents of such parishes or mission districts as in the opinion of the Standing Committee may be affected by the proposed action. The Bishop's certificates of the determination or alteration of the boundaries of parishes or mission districts, of the constitution of new parishes or mission districts, and of the erection of mission districts into parishes, countersigned by the President of the Standing Committee, shall be delivered to the Secretary of the Convention, who shall record the same in a book to be kept by him for the purpose, to be called the Diocesan Register of Parishes and Mission Districts, and shall furnish a copy thereof, in the case of a parish or of a mission district forming part of a parish, to the Rector of the parish, who shall cause the same to be recorded in the Book of Minutes of the Vestry; or, in the case of a mission district assigned to a chapel or mission maintained by the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society, to the Society, who shall cause the same to be recorded in its Book of Minutes; or, in the case of any other mission district, to the Archdeacon within whose jurisdiction the district shall be situated, who shall cause such copy to be recorded in the Book of Minutes of his Archdeaconry.

SEC. 2. Wherever a chapel or a mission is maintained by a parish, if it be included within the parish boundaries assigned to the parish church, no separate district shall be assigned to it; but if it be not included within the parish boundaries assigned to the parish church, a separate district shall be assigned to it, which shall form part of the parish.

SEC. 3. Where in any town within this Diocese there is but one parish or mission, the limits of the town shall constitute the boundaries of the parish or mission district, and shall be so certified by the Bishop, unless upon the application of the Rector and Vestry of the parish, or of the Archdeacon in charge of the mission district, the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, shall otherwise determine. The boundaries of a parish or mission district may include more than one town or parts of more than one town.

SEC. 4. When the boundaries of a parish or of a mission district shall have been determined by the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, the territory so bounded, in the case of a parish, including a mission district forming part of a parish, shall constitute the parish or cure of the Rector thereof; in the case of a mission district assigned to a chapel or mission maintained by the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society, shall constitute the parochial cure of the Superintendent for the time being of that Society; and in the case of any other mission district shall constitute the parochial cure of the Archdeacon within whose jurisdiction the mission district is situated; and such Rector, Superintendent, or Archdeacon, as the case may be, shall be deemed the incumbent of such parish or mission district; provided that nothing in this Canon shall be taken to prevent such Rector, Superintendent, or Archdeacon from conferring upon the Minister in charge of any mission district such authority in respect thereto as he may think fit.

SEC. 5. In any town or borough in which a parish or a mission district shall have been constituted, a new place of worship (unless upon the site of a former one) shall not be established, nor shall a new congregation be gathered, nor shall a congregation remove from one site or place of worship to another site or place of worship, unless and until the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, shall have issued his license therefor; provided that the Standing Committee shall communicate a copy of the Bishop's proposed license, by mail or otherwise, before they act upon it, to the incumbent of the parish or mission district within which it is intended to establish such new place of worship or to which such congregation proposes to remove, and to the incumbents of the three parishes or mission districts nearest to the site of the proposed church, chapel, or other place of public worship, and to the applicant for such license, with not less than twenty days' notice of the time and place at which the Standing Committee will hear any person interested in the matter.

SEC. 6. Tentative missionary work, authorized by the Bishop and the Executive Committee of the Archdeaconry in which it is proposed to prosecute such work, may be prosecuted at any place they may designate, after conference with the incumbents of the three parishes or mission districts whose places of worship are nearest to the proposed site; but such work shall not be continued more than one year unless with the license of the Bishop, nor shall any building for such work be erected unless and until the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, shall have issued his license for the establishment of a new place of public worship, or shall have constituted a new mission district or a new parish, for the continuance of such work.

SEC. 7. Nothing contained in this Canon shall be taken to restrict the power of the Bishop to license private chapels or chapels connected with institutions, nor to affect such chapels so licensed.

CANON XVI.

Committee on Diocesan Finances.

SEC. 1. (1) At every Annual Convention the Bishop shall appoint four laymen and two clergymen, who shall hold office until their successors are appointed, and who with the Treasurer of the Diocese, ex-officio, shall constitute a Committee on Diocesan Finances. Vacancies in said Committee, except in the case of the Treasurer, shall be filled by a majority vote of the members of the Committee.

(2) Every motion, resolution or recommendation calling for a contribution or an assessment of money for any purpose shall be referred to this Committee, which shall consider the same and report thereon to the Convention.

(3) The Committee shall exercise general supervision of the financial affairs of the Convention, and shall endeavor to secure simplicity and certainty in the collection of funds and co-operation between the various trusts and boards of the Convention. It shall keep a record of its meetings, and shall report to the Annual Convention.

(4) The Treasurer of the Diocese, acting under the direction of the Committee, shall annually make an assessment on the Parishes, Missions and Congregations of the Diocese for the total of the amounts fixed by the Convention for the following objects, respectively:

- (a) The Episcopal Fund.
- (b) The Diocesan Fund.
- (c) Diocesan Missions.

(5) The Treasurer, also, under such direction, shall make an apportionment among the Parishes, Missions and Congregations of such a sum as will be sufficient to meet the amount apportioned to the Diocese for Domestic and Foreign Missions.

SEC. 2. (1) The assessment for the objects named in Section 1 (paragraph 4) shall be based upon the current expenses of each Parish, Mission or Congregation, as shown by its Annual Report.

For the purposes of determining the basis of assessment, current expenses are hereby defined to include all ordinary expenses for the objects following, viz.:

Salaries and wages.

Lighting, heating, insurance, repairs and maintenance of buildings used for church purposes, supplies, and the support of services.

The notification to each Parish, Mission or Congregation of its annual assessment shall indicate the amount assigned to it for each of the objects for which the assessment is laid.

The Treasurer shall classify the Parishes, Missions and Congregations according to the amount of the current expenses of each of them, and shall make assessments based on such classification.

(2) The annual report of each Parish, Mission or Congregation shall be presented on the first day of the Annual Convention, or in default thereof its current expenses may be estimated by the Treasurer.

(3) The Treasurer shall prepare an assessment roll based on the current expenses as so reported or estimated, and shall fix the rate of assessment. A notice of the amount of the current expenses and the assessment in the case of each Parish, Mission or Congregation shall be sent to the corporate authorities thereof before the first day of December, which notice shall invite said Parish, Mission or Congregation to appear before the Board of Adjustment and show cause, if any, why said assessment should be modified or corrected.

(4) The assessment so laid by the Treasurer shall be deemed to be confirmed unless before the first day of February, the Board of Adjustment shall take action modifying or correcting the same.

The amounts of such assessments shall be charged by the Treasurer of the Diocese against the Parishes, Missions or Congregations severally and respectively, and each of them shall make payment of its assessment to the Treasurer in two equal installments, one on the first day of February, and the other on the first day of August next ensuing; and it shall be the duty of the Treasurer to attend to the collection of the same. It shall be the further duty of the Treasurer to report to the Secretary of the Convention the names of all the Parishes, Missions or Congregations that for two successive years shall have failed to pay the sums assessed against such Parishes, Missions or Congregations for Diocesan purposes.

(5) The apportionment among the Parishes, Missions or Congregations of the amount to be raised for the Diocese for Domestic and Foreign Missions shall be made on the basis of the current expenses as above defined, and the same classification of Parishes, Missions or Congregations shall be adopted as in the case of the assessment for Diocesan purposes. The provisions for the modifications, confirmation and adjustment herein prescribed for the Diocesan assessments shall be observed also in respect of such apportionments, except that they shall be paid to the Treasurer of the Board of Missions, and not to the Treasurer of the Diocese.

SEC. 3. There shall be a Board to be known as the Board of Adjustment, consisting of the Committee and the five Archdeacons ex-officio.

It shall be the duty of the Board of Adjustment to receive and to consider any petition or request regarding the assessment upon any of the Parishes, Missions or Congregations of the Diocese, and after due consideration to adjust the same at such amount as the Board shall deem to be equitable and fair. The Board of Adjustment shall certify the amount so determined to the Treasurer of the Diocese by the first day of February in each year, and thereupon the Treasurer shall cause his books to conform with the action of the Board and notify any Parish, Mission or Congregation if any change has been made in its assessment by the Board of Adjustment.

It shall be the duty of the Board of Adjustment also to make such adjustments as it shall deem to be proper in respect of the apportionment of any Parish, Mission or Congregation, for Domestic and Foreign Missions upon a written request from it for such action, and the Board shall certify to the Treasurer any change that it may make in any apportionment made by him.

SEC. 4. The Committee shall fix the character and amount of security to be furnished by the Treasurer of the Diocese, and by any other Treasurers over whom the Convention may have jurisdiction.

Whenever the Committee on Diocesan Finances shall deem advisable it may confer with the Standing Committee, the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund, the Trustees of the Parochial Fund, the Trustees of the Estate and Property of the Diocese, the Trustees of the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund, and with any other Trustees or Boards of the Convention, and with the Treasurers of any organization under the jurisdiction of the Convention, for the purpose of harmonizing and simplifying the financial affairs and methods of the Convention and of the Diocese.

CANON XVII.

Of the Episcopal Fund.

SEC. 1. The fund for the support of the Episcopate in this Diocese, now provided, together with that which may be hereafter contributed or acquired, and any accumulation accruing from the investment thereof, shall be intrusted to the corporation entitled "The Trustees of the Episcopal Fund for the Diocese of New York," incorporated by an Act of the Legislature of the State of New York, passed May 14, 1845. The Trustees composing said corporation shall be five in number, who shall be appointed by and shall hold their offices during the pleasure of the Convention, and all vacancies occurring in their number shall be filled by the Convention.

SEC. 2. The Treasurer of the Episcopal Fund shall make known each year to the Convention the amount required by assessment for the support of the Episcopate, said assessment to be made by the Treasurer of the Diocese in accordance with Canon XVI.

SEC. 3. All moneys belonging to the said fund shall be loaned by the said Trustees upon security of real estate, or invested in stocks of the United States, or of any of the States, or of the City of New York, at their discretion, and also in such other securities as may be recommended unanimously by the Trustees and approved by a vote of the Convention. And all securities and investments shall be taken or made in their corporate name above mentioned, and they shall have power, from time to time, to change such investments. A statement exhibiting the condition of the said fund and securities, together with all receipts and disbursements, shall be reported to the Convention at every stated meeting thereof, signed by the Trustees, or a majority of them.

CANON XVIII.

Of the Diocesan Fund.

SEC. 1. The Treasurer of Convention shall make known each year before the close of the Convention the amount required for Diocesan purposes, and such amount shall be raised by assessment, in accordance with Canon XVI.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer of the Convention to retain annually out of this fund one dollar for each Clergyman in the Diocese. The moneys thus retained shall be paid by him to the Treasurer of the General Convention at each meeting of the same.

CANON XIX.

Of Contributions for Church Objects.

SEC. 1. In every Parish of the Diocese provision shall be made whereby its members may make offerings, by collections and otherwise, as often as the needs of the Church shall require, for the support of its objects, particularly its missionary work at home and abroad, the education of young men for the sacred Ministry, and those other religious and charitable objects which have been commended to the care of the Church by the General Convention, or by the Convention of the Diocese; and it shall be the duty of the Clergyman in charge to give due notice to the congregation of the time and purpose of such offerings, and also to call their attention to the importance and claims of the respective objects to which the offerings are to be applied.

SEC. 2. The business of distributing all funds that may be raised under this Canon, for the education of young men for Holy Orders, is hereby committed to the incorporated society styled "The Protestant Episcopal Society for Promoting Religion and Learning in the State of New York," which shall make a full annual report to the Convention of the application of all moneys paid into its treasury under the provisions of this Canon, or by the Treasurer of the Convention from any source.

SEC. 3. So far as relates to the offerings or contributions of Parishes within the City of New York, it is hereby declared that the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society and the Seamen's Church Institute of New York are to be reckoned among the Church charities for which provision is to be made, so that each congregation in the City of New York shall make annual contributions to one of these societies.

CANON XX.

Of the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society.

SEC. 1. All members of the Church in this Diocese shall be considered as constituting the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society.

SEC. 2. (1) The Missionary and Church Extension work of the Diocese shall be conducted by the Diocesan Board of Missions and Church Extension.

(2) The Convention shall be the Diocesan Board of Missions and Church Extension, and as such shall sit as often as the business of the Board may require.

(3) The Bishop of the Diocese shall be ex-officio President of the Board.

(4) The Treasurer of the Diocese shall be ex-officio the Treasurer of the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to receive all funds for the Missionary and Church Extension work of the Diocese and to disburse the same under the direction of the Board of Managers.

SEC. 3. (1) The Diocese shall be divided into three Arch-deaconries, to be named respectively:

a. The Archdeaconry of New York, comprising the Counties of New York and Richmond;

b. The Archdeaconry of Westchester, comprising the Counties of Westchester, Putnam, and Dutchess;

c. The Archdeaconry of Orange, comprising the Counties of Rockland, Orange, Ulster, and Sullivan.

(2) The members of each Archdeaconry shall be the Clergy canonically resident within its limits, and three Lay Delegates of each parish and mission station, elected in such manner as the By-laws of the Archdeaconry may direct.

(3) It shall be the duty of each Archdeacon, with the advice, assistance and co-operation of the Archdeaconry,

a. To search out the religious needs of his Archdeaconry and to conduct Missionary and Church Extension work within its limits;

b. To collect and preserve careful statistics of population, of the condition of communities, and of missionary work;

c. To provide for holding in each year at least two meetings of the Archdeaconry;

d. In the absence of the Bishop and, if there be such, of the Bishop Coadjutor and of the Suffragan Bishop to preside at all meetings of the Archdeaconry;

e. To make full and regular reports to the Bishop and to deliver copies thereof to the Archdeaconry and to the Board of Managers of the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society.

(4) It shall be the duty of each clergyman, unless prevented by grave and reasonable cause, to attend each meeting of the Archdeaconry, and there report all missionary work done in his cure.

(5) The Bishop shall nominate, and, with the advice and consent of the respective Archdeaconries shall appoint, the several Archdeacons. The appointment of an Archdeacon shall be for a period of five years, and he shall be eligible for reappointment. No Archdeacon while acting as such shall be Rector or settled Minister of any Church or Congregation.

(6) a. Each parish and mission station seeking aid from the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society shall make written application therefor, stating the number of contributors and the amount pledged or secured in the parish or station for the support of the minister, and all other facts necessary to a full understanding of the case.

b. Any mission station designated by the Missionary and Church Extension Society of the Diocese of New York may be organized by the Bishop, upon the application of residents in its neighborhood, and under the conditions laid down by the Canon "Of the Establishment and Boundaries of Parishes and Mission Districts."

c. The form of application shall be as follows:

To the Right Reverend.....
Bishop of New York.

We, the subscribers, baptised persons, residents in the Town of, in the County of, New York, respectfully request that we be duly received as a mission, under the authority and direction of the Diocese of New York, to be known as Mission, in the Town of

And we do hereby promise conformity to the authority of the Diocese, and to the Constitution and Canons, and the Doctrine, Discipline, and Worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States and in the Diocese of New York, and we further pledge the sum of $..... to the support of the Minister for the first year.

d. Every application to the Bishop for the establishment of a Mission District under the provisions of the Canon "Of the Establishment and Boundaries of Parishes and Mission Districts" shall be accompanied by the approval of the Board of Managers of the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society.

(7) a. The appointment and removal of all Missionaries shall be vested in the Bishop.

b. Every clergyman receiving a stipend from the missionary funds of the Diocese shall make to the Archdeacon, in writing, a semi-annual report of his work, containing such information as the Board of Managers shall prescribe, and shall deliver a copy of the same to the Board of Managers.

SEC. 4. (1) There shall be a Board of Managers of the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society, which Board shall be also the Missionary Committee of the Diocese of New York, consisting of the Bishop (who shall be Chairman ex-officio), the Suffragan Bishop, the three Archdeacons, the treasurer of the Diocese, and two Presbyters and two laymen elected by each Archdeaconry.

(2) a. At its first meeting after the Diocesan Convention, at which this Canon shall become operative, each Archdeaconry shall elect to the Executive Committee one Presbyter and one layman to serve on the Board of Managers for one year, and one Presbyter and one layman to serve for two years. Thereafter each Archdeaconry shall annually elect to the Board of Managers one Presbyter and one layman, who shall serve for two years. No elected clerical or lay member of the Board of Managers shall be eligible for re-election for one year after the expiration of his term.

b. If any Archdeaconry shall fail to elect at the time appointed by this Canon one or more of its representatives to the Board of Managers, the Board of Managers shall have power to fill the vacancy from among the members of such Archdeaconry.

(3) It shall be the duty of the Board of Managers:

a. To maintain and strengthen the Mission and Church Extension work of the Diocese;

b. To hold missionary councils and to issue missionary literature;

c. To plant the Church in new communities and among people of foreign tongues, subject to the provisions of the Canon "Of the Establishment and Boundaries of Parishes and Mission Districts";

d. To create and carry out an efficient Church extension policy in all parts of the Diocese;

e. To preserve all reports received from the Archdeacons and Missionaries;

f. To make grants to poor parishes under such regulations as the Board may prescribe for the increase of inadequate clerical salaries, to the end that in this Diocese each unmarried clergyman in charge of a parish may receive a salary of not less than $1,200 a year, and each married clergyman in charge of a parish not less than $1,200 and a residence;

g. To meet monthly except in March, July, August and September, and at other times upon the call of the Chairman;

h. At its November meeting to audit the accounts of the treasurer and to adopt and deliver to the Board of Missions and Church Extension an annual report containing the following items:

1. A statement of the missionary work done since last report.

2. The names of the Missionaries and stations.

3. An account of receipts and expenditures.

4. A list of the parishes contributing and of the sums contributed by each parish to the Diocesan Missions.

5. An estimate of the amount of funds needed for the Missionary and Church Extension work of the Diocese for the ensuing year.

6. Such other matters as may be deemed necessary.

i. To exercise during the recess of the Diocesan Board of Missions and Church Extension all the powers of the Board.

(4) Seven members of the Board of Managers, one of whom shall be the Bishop or the Suffragan Bishop, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. In the absence of the Bishop the Suffragan Bishop shall preside.

(5) The Board of Managers are authorized and directed to procure themselves to be incorporated either under the corporation laws of the State of New York or by special Act of the Legislature, as they shall deem expedient, under the name "The Board of Managers of the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of New York," or such other name, if any, as they shall deem preferable, and shall provide that such corporation, besides any other powers which it may be entitled to exercise, shall have power to receive and administer gifts and legacies for missionary and Church extension work in the Diocese.

SEC. 5. The Diocesan Board of Managers and the several Archdeaconries heretofore existing are authorized and directed to transfer and deliver to the Board of Managers of the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society all their property and records.

CANON XXI.

Of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergy.

SEC. 1. Five lay Trustees shall be appointed annually by the Convention, who, with the Bishop, shall constitute a Board to be called the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen.

SEC. 2. Vacancies occurring in the number of the above-named five lay Trustees, by death, resignation, or otherwise, during the recess of the Convention, may be supplied by the remaining Trustees.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the said Trustees to assume the management and care of the following funds:

1st. The fund now provided for the relief of Aged and Infirm Clergymen of the Diocese, together with that which may hereafter be contributed or acquired, and any accumulation accruing from the investment thereof.

2nd. A fund to be hereafter contributed or acquired for the relief of Widows and Children of Deceased Clergymen of the Diocese, together with any accumulation accruing from the investment thereof.

SEC. 4. It shall be the further duty of the said Trustees to receive applications for relief or assistance from any persons entitled to receive aid from either of the funds above mentioned, and to apply such relief or assistance as follows:

1st. As to the fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, to apply such relief or assistance on the principles of, and subject to, the limitations indicated in the report of the Special Committee made to the Annual Convention of 1841,* and subject also to such other rules and regulations as have since been adopted by this Convention, or as said Trustees, with the approbation of said Convention, shall from time to time adopt.

*“(a) Legacies and donations to be invested as a permanent fund; the proceeds to be applied annually, if needed, under the direction of the Bishop and three lay Trustees, to be elected by the Convention at each stated meeting. If the whole or any part of the annual revenue of said fund be not needed, in any year, it might be considered thenceforth as part of the capital.

“(b) Another . . . source of income will be found, it is presumed, in annual contributions to be made by all the congregations in the Diocese, on some day previously notified.

2nd. As to the fund for the Widows and Children of Clergymen, to apply such relief or assistance on the principles of, and subject to, the limitations laid down by the regulations adopted by the Annual Convention of 1886 in relation to said fund, and subject also to such further rules and regulations as said Trustees, with the approbation of this Convention, shall from time to time adopt.

SEC. 5. A collection shall be made annually in every congregation in this Diocese, on the annual Thanksgiving Day, or on Christmas Day, or on the Sunday next before or next following either of those days.

This collection and all other contributions to these objects shall be transmitted to the Treasurer of the said Board of Trustees.

All donations and legacies received by said Treasurer shall, in the absence of the special designation of one or other of the said funds, be applied as the Trustees in their discretion may determine, subject, however, to any other or different appropriation by the Convention of any particular gift or legacy. The annual collection, herein provided for, shall, in the absence of special

"With regard to the limitations under which relief should be applied, your Committee are aware that much must be left to the discretion of the Trustees. . . . In regard to these limitations, the Committee would suggest:

"1. That relief should be confined to those whose circumstances are actually straightened, and who have been actively engaged in parochial or kindred labors during a large part of their ministerial lives.

"2. It should not be so administered as to supersede on the part of parishes the duty of making provision for the support of their pastor when too aged or infirm to continue his ministry; and should therefore be confined, in the case of parish clergymen, to cases in which the parish has signified, through the Bishop, its inability or indisposition to make such provision to an adequate extent.

"3. It should not be extended to clergymen who have near relatives in affluent circumstances, unless there be satisfactory evidence that such relatives are unwilling to discharge the duty of providing for those of their own household.

"4. In deciding between conflicting claims, preference should be given caeteris paribus to those who have been longest employed within the Diocese in ministerial duty."

designation of any portion thereof by the donors, be applied by said Trustees to the fund for the Widows and Children of Clergymen. The Treasurer shall keep a separate account of each of the said funds, and all moneys not wanted for current use shall be invested and held in trust by the said Trustees.

SEC. 6. The said Trustees shall elect their own Chairman, Treasurer, and Secretary.

They shall meet at least twice in each year, and shall keep minutes of their proceedings, which shall be submitted to the Convention of the Diocese whenever called for.

CANON XXII.

Of the Trial of a Clergyman not being a Bishop.

Whenever any Minister of this Diocese, not being a Bishop thereof, shall become "liable to presentment and trial," under the provisions of any Canon of the General or Diocesan Convention, the mode of proceeding in this Diocese shall be as follows, viz.:

SEC. 1. The trial shall be on a presentment in writing, addressed to the Bishop of the Diocese, specifying the offences of which the accused is alleged to be guilty, with reasonable certainty as to time, place, and circumstances. Such presentment may be made by the major part in number of the members of the Vestry of any Church of which the accused is a Minister, or by any three Presbyters of this Diocese entitled to seats in the Convention, or as hereinafter mentioned. Whenever, from public rumor or otherwise, the Bishop shall have reason to believe that any Clergyman is under the imputation of having been guilty of any offence or misconduct for which he is liable to be tried, and that the interest of the Church requires an investigation, it shall be his duty to appoint five persons, of whom three at least shall be Presbyters, to examine the case, a majority of whom may make such examination; and if there is in their opinion sufficient ground for presentment, shall present the Clergyman accordingly.

SEC. 2. A presentment being made in any one of the modes above prescribed, the Bishop, if the facts charged shall not appear to him to be such as constitute an offense, may dismiss it; or if it allege facts, some of which do and some of which do not constitute an offense, he may allow it in part and dismiss the residue, or he may permit it to be amended. When it shall be allowed in whole or in part, the Bishop shall cause a copy of it to be served on the accused, and shall also nominate twelve Presbyters of this Diocese, entitled to seats in the Convention and not being parties to the presentment, and cause a list of their names to be served on the accused, who shall, within thirty days after such service, select five of them and notify their names in writing to the Bishop; and if he shall not give such notification to the Bishop within the said thirty days, the Bishop shall select five, and the Presbyters so selected shall form a Board for the trial of the accused, and shall meet at such time and place as the Bishop shall direct, and shall have power to adjourn from time to time, and from place to place (but always within this Diocese), as they shall think necessary.

SEC. 3. A written notice of the time and place of their first meeting shall be served at least thirty days before such meeting on the accused, and also on one of the persons making the presentment.

SEC. 4. If, at the time appointed for the first meeting of the Board of Presbyters, the whole number of five shall not attend, then those who do attend may adjourn from time to time; and if, after one adjournment or more, it shall appear to them improbable that the whole number will attend within a reasonable time, then those who do attend, not being less than three, shall constitute the Board, and proceed to the trial, and a majority of them shall decide all questions.

SEC. 5. If a clergyman presented shall confess the truth of the facts alleged in the presentment, it shall be the duty of the Bishop to proceed to pass sentence; and if he shall not confess them before the appointment of a Board for his trial, as before mentioned, he shall be considered as denying them.

SEC. 6. If a clergyman presented, after having had due notice, shall not appear before the Board of Presbyters appointed for his trial, the Board may nevertheless proceed as if he were present, unless for good cause they shall see fit to adjourn to another day.

SEC. 7. When the Board proceed to the trial, they shall hear such evidence as shall be produced, which evidence shall be reduced to writing, and signed by the witnesses respectively; and some officer, authorized by law to administer oaths, may, at the desire of either party, be requested to administer an oath or affirmation to the witnesses that they will testify the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, concerning the facts charged in the presentment. If, on or during the trial, the accused shall confess the truth of the charges, as stated in the presentment, the Board may dispense with hearing further evidence, and may proceed at once to state their opinion to the Bishop as to the sentence that ought to be pronounced.

SEC. 8. Upon the application of either party to the Bishop, and it being made satisfactorily to appear to him that any material witnesses cannot be procured upon the trial, the Bishop may appoint a Commissary to take the testimony of any such witness. Such Commissary may be either a Clergyman or a Layman, and the party so applying shall give to the other at least six days' notice of the time and place of taking the testimony. And if the person on whom the notice shall be served shall reside more than forty miles from the place of examination, an additional day's notice shall be given for every additional twenty miles of the said distance. And both parties may attend and examine the witness, and the questions and answers shall be reduced to writing and signed by the witness, and shall be certified by the Commissary, and enclosed under his seal, and transmitted to the Board, and shall be received by them as evidence. A witness examined before such Commissary may be sworn or affirmed in manner aforesaid.

SEC. 9. The Board having deliberately considered the evidence, shall declare, in a writing signed by them, or a majority of them, their decision on the charges contained in the presentment, distinctly stating whether the accused is guilty or not guilty of such charges, respectively, and also stating the sentence which in their opinion should be pronounced; and a copy of such decision shall be, without delay, communicated to the accused, and the original decision, together with the evidence, shall be delivered to the Bishop, who shall pronounce such canonical sentence as shall appear to him to be proper, provided the same shall not exceed in severity the sentence recommended by the Board; and such sentence shall be final. Before pronouncing any sentence the Bishop shall summon the accused, and any three or more of the Clergy, to meet him at such time as may in his opinion be most convenient, in some church to be designated by him, which shall for that purpose be open at the time to all persons who may choose to attend, and the sentence shall then and there be publicly pronounced by the Bishop. But the Bishop, if he shall be satisfied that justice requires it, may grant a new trial to the accused; in which case a new Board of Presbyters shall be appointed, the proceedings before whom shall be conducted as before mentioned.

SEC. 10. All notices and papers contemplated in this Canon may be served by a summoner or summoners, to be appointed for the purpose by the Bishop, and whose certificate of such service shall be evidence thereof. In case of service by any other person, the facts shall be proved by the affidavit of such person. A written notice or paper delivered to a party, or left at his last place of residence, shall be deemed a sufficient service of such notice or paper.

SEC. 11. The defendant may have the privilege of appearing by counsel; in case of the exercise of which privilege, and not otherwise, those who present shall have also the like privilege.

CANON XXIII.

Concerning the Dissolution of the Pastoral Relation by Reason of Disability of a Minister.

Whenever it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Bishop, on competent medical testimony, that by reason of incurable mental or physical disability a clergyman has become incapable of discharging the duties of his cure, it shall be competent for the Bishop, on the application of the Vestry or Trustees of the Church, and upon reasonable notice to all the parties concerned, to dissolve the pastoral relation between such clergyman and his church.

CANON XXIV.

Concerning Alterations in the Canons and Additions thereto.

No proposed alteration of, or addition to, the Canons shall hereafter be considered by the Convention, unless at least one day's previous notice be given thereof in open Convention; nor, unless by unanimous consent, until such alteration or addition shall have been referred to and reported upon by a Committee of at least two Presbyters and two Laymen. Nor shall such alteration or addition be adopted, during the same Convention, if two-thirds of the votes of both orders, taken separately, shall not concur therein; but in such case the same (unless negatived by a majority of the members present) shall lie over for consideration until the next annual meeting of the Convention.

CANON XXV.

Repealing Former Canons.

All former Canons of this Convention are hereby repealed.

RULES OF ORDER.

I. Every Convention shall be preceded by the Celebration of the Holy Communion and the Annual Address of the Bishop, or a Sermon, as the Bishop shall appoint; after which, the Bishop or, in case of his absence or disability, the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one; or if there be none the Suffragan Bishop, if there be one, or if there be more than one, the senior in point of consecration, or in case of his absence or disability, the next in order of consecration shall take the chair; but if there be no Suffragan Bishop present and able to act, the Convention shall elect a President.

II. The Secretary of the last Convention in giving notice of the Annual Convention shall request members and delegates to file with him in writing, within ten days after the receipt of such notice, any business they desire to bring before the Convention. He shall thereupon prepare a calendar of such business in the order of its receipt and shall cause the same to be printed and distributed among the members and delegates on or before the date of the Convention.

The Secretary of the last Convention also, or, in case of his absence, some other person appointed by the Chair, shall call the names of the Clergy entitled to seats.

III. He shall call the names of the Lay Delegates whose election has been certified in pursuance of Canon II., Section 10.

IV. The Chair shall then appoint a Committee of three persons, to whom shall be referred the credentials of the Lay Delegates, who shall report upon the correctness of the roll made by the Secretary.

V. A quorum being present, the Chair shall declare the Convention organized for business, which shall proceed in the following order:

1. The election of a Secretary, who shall have power to appoint three Assistant Secretaries.

2. The election of a Treasurer.

3. The appointment of members of six Standing Committees following, each of which Committees shall be composed of the number of clerical and lay members specified:

- (a) On the Incorporation and Admission of Churches, two Clergymen and two Laymen, which Committee may report at any time during the session of the Convention;
- (b) On the Diocesan Fund, two Clergymen and two Laymen, besides the Treasurer of the Convention, ex-officio;
- (c) On the Treasurer's Report, three Laymen;
- (d) On the General Theological Seminary, four Clergymen and four Laymen;

- (e) On Canons, four Clergymen and four Laymen;
- (f) On Miscellaneous Business, four Clergymen and four Laymen.

Any Standing Committee may meet during the intervals between Conventions, and may report to the succeeding Convention.

The members of the Committees on the Incorporation and Admission of Churches, on the Diocesan Fund, on the General Theological Seminary, on Canons, and on Miscellaneous Business, who shall be appointed at the Convention in 1911, at their first meeting, and within thirty days after the adjournment of the Convention, shall divide themselves by lot into classes of one Clergyman and one Layman in each class, one class to serve one year, and the others two, three and four years respectively, according to their number, and until the appointment of their successors and shall notify the Secretary of the Convention in writing of the result of such division. If after the expiration of forty days after the adjournment of the Convention the members of any Committee shall have failed to notify the Secretary, he shall at once proceed by lot to divide them into classes as aforesaid, and they shall respectively hold their offices accordingly. At each succeeding stated Convention the President shall appoint as members of each of the said Committees so many Clergymen and so many Laymen as those whose terms are expiring, to hold office for as many years as there are classes in such Committee. All vacancies occurring in the said Committees shall be filled by the concurrent vote of their Clerical and Lay members until the next stated Convention, when the vacancy shall be filled for the balance of the term. Except in the case of members chosen to fill vacancies until the next stated Convention no member shall be eligible to the same committee for one year after expiration of his term of service.

4. Reference to Standing or Special Committees of such business as shall have been filed with the Secretary and appears on the calendar.

5. Introduction and Referring of resolutions and motions not on the calendar but which shall be added thereto in the order of their introduction.

6. Four Inspectors of Election, not members of the Convention, shall be appointed by the Bishop and the Standing Committee at least two weeks before an election. They shall receive and canvass all votes cast at any election which is required to be by ballot, and, when such canvass is completed, shall immediately report its result to the Convention. They shall serve during the pleasure of the Convention, and shall be compensated for their services as the Bishop and Standing Committee may direct.

7. Election of the Standing Committee, the Deputies to the Federate Council, Deputies to the Missionary Council of the Second Department, and the Deputies and the Provisional Deputies to the General Convention provided that the election of Provisional Deputies to the General Con-

3. Calling the names of members not present before.

4. Calendar.

VIII. The address of the Bishop and of the Bishop Coadjutor shall be in order at any time.

IX. Before the rising of the Convention, the Minutes of the last day's proceedings shall be read and approved.

X. The Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church, Clergymen belonging to this Diocese, but not entitled to seats in this Convention, Clergymen of other Dioceses, Professors and Students of Theology in the Protestant Episcopal Church, and all persons holding any office or trust under the Convention, if not members, shall be admitted to the sittings of the Convention.

XI. The hours of each day's session shall be from 10 a. m. to 1 p. m., and from 2 p. m. to 5 p. m., and, when ordered by the Convention, from 8 to 10 p. m.

XII. The mode of conducting the stated elections by ballot shall be as follows:

The Clergy and the Lay Delegates of the Parishes entitled to vote shall present their several ballots for each office to be filled to the inspectors, whose duty it shall be to take charge of the same, keeping a poll list of the votes, and, as soon as practicable, to canvass the same, and report the result thereof to the Convention. If, on any such report, it should appear that no valid election has been made in respect to all or any of the offices to be filled, the poll shall again be opened, for the purpose of filling those which may remain vacant; and if such second vote shall not result in an election, further votes shall be taken until all the offices are filled or until the Convention shall otherwise order.

XIII. All new business introduced, except such as may accompany and form a part of the report of a committee, shall be in the form of a motion or resolution and shall be in writing. Such new business shall be at once referred without debate by the President to an appropriate committee and shall be entered upon the calendar in the order of introduction. Action shall be only on the report of such Committee unless by two-thirds vote.

XIV. No member may speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the Convention, nor more than once in any case until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

XV. Every member present shall vote whenever a question is put, unless excused by the Convention on account of his being personally interested in the result, or for other cause.

XVI. Votes shall be taken by ayes and noes, and by orders, whenever called for by five members.

XVII. In taking a vote by orders, it shall be the right of any member of a delegation who may dissent from the vote of the majority of the delegation to have the fact of his dissent recorded on the Minutes.

vention be not held till after the names of the Deputies elected shall have been announced.

8. The Receiving and Referring of Reports, as follows:

- (1) Report of the Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Churches, and the Admission of Parishes into Union with the Convention.
- (2) Report of the Standing Committee.
- (3) Report of the Committee on Finance.
- (4) Report of the Trustees of the Estate and Property of the Diocesan Convention of New York.
- (4) Report of the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen.
- (6) Report of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund.
- (7) Report of the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund.
- (8) Report of the Standing Committee on the Treasurer's Report.
- (9) Report of the Standing Committee on the Diocesan Fund.
- (10) Report of the New York City Mission Society.
- (11) Report of the Seamen's Church Institute of New York.
- (12) Report of St. Stephen's College.
- (13) Report of the Sunday-school Commission.
- (14) Report of the Social Service Commission.
- (15) Report of the Standing Committee on General Theological Seminary.
- (16) Report of the New York Training School for Deaconesses.

These reports shall be presented by Title only unless otherwise ordered by the unanimous vote of the Convntion.

9. Appointment and election of Trustees of the Boards named in the preceding Section.

10. Calendar of the day.

VI. On the second day, the order of business, after Holy Communion or Morning Prayer, shall be:

1. Reading and approving of the Minutes.
2. Receiving certificates of Lay Delegates not present before.
3. Calling the names of members not present on the first day.
4. Introduction and reference of business not on the calendar but which shall be added thereto in the order of introduction.
5. Unfinished calendar, if any, of previous day.
6. Report of the Missionary Committee of the Diocese.
7. Report of the Committee on Canons.
8. Reports of Special Committees.
9. Calendar.

VII. On the third and any subsequent day, the order of business, after Morning Prayer, shall be:

1. Reading and approval of the Minutes.
2. Receiving the certificates of Lay Delegates not present before.

XVIII. All Special Committees shall be appointed by the President, unless otherwise ordered.

XIX. Any rule of order may be suspended by the vote of not less than two-thirds of the members present. Any new matter introduced during such suspension may be explained by the mover in a statement of not more than five minutes, but otherwise shall not be subject to debate or action until after report from the appropriate committee. No rule of order shall be changed or rescinded without one day's previous notice of a motion to that effect.

XX. Whenever in the Rules of Order provision is made for action by the Bishop, such action, in case of the absence or disability of the Bishop, shall devolve upon the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, but if there be none, or in case of the absence or disability of the Bishop Coadjutor, shall devolve upon the Suffragan Bishop, if there be one, or if there be more than one, shall devolve upon the senior in point of consecration, or in case of his absence or disability, shall devolve upon the other Suffragan Bishop in the order of their consecration, and shall devolve upon the Standing Committee or other authority or person in cases where provision is made for their action in the place of the Bishop, only in the event of the absence or disability of the Bishop or the Bishop Coadjutor, and the Suffragan Bishop or Bishops, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate.

XXI. The general procedure of the Convention shall be governed by the rules of the parliamentary practice as set forth in "Cushing's Manual."
